WEATHER DATA APPEAR ON PAGE 12

ESTABLISHED 1887

No. 31,570

ZURICH, MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1984

Reagan Questions Yalta Split

Denies U.S. Consents to Subjugation

By Stephen Engelberg
New York Times Service

WASHINGTON — President Ronald Reagan has said that "passively accepting the permanent subjugation of the people of East-ern Europe is not an acceptable

Mr. Reagan, speaking Friday at a White House luncheon commemorating the 40th anniversary of the Warsaw uprising against Nazi oc-cupation forces, also said that the United States "rejects any interpre-tation of the Yalta agreement that suggests American consent for the division of Europe into spheres of influence."

The 1945 agreement, signed at the Crimean resort of Yalta by the Soviet Union, Britain and the United States, dealt with issues related to the imminent defeat of Nazi Germany, Among other points, it called for free elections in nations bberated from the Nazis.

The agreement set the stage for Soviet control of Eastern Europe and the Cold War. The Yalta pact has long been criticized by American conservatives as a betrayal of

Mr. Reagan, in his interpretation, said be favored "full compliance" with the Yalta agreement specifically its stipulation of free penalties and interest.

"We see that agreement as a pledge by the three great powers to restore full independence, and to allow free democratic elections in all countries liberated from the Na-zis after World War II," he said. There is no reason to absolve the Soviet Union or ourselves from this several other officials had previously objected to "misinterpretation" of the Yalta agreement. He noted that Vice President George Bush had said in a speech last year in. Vienna that "we recognize no lawful division of Europe."

of the Polish Home Army, the underground force that fought in Warsaw, Mr. Reagan once again attempted to use bumor in his batthe of words with the Soviet Union. He told a story about an American and a Soviet citizen who were discussing freedom of speech. Mr. Reagan quoted the Russian as say-ing: "Well, we're free to speak in "the Soviet Union just like you are in the United States. The only difference is, you're free after you Is Distortion of History

On Aug. 11, a Reagan joke about outlawing and bombing the Soviet Union, made during a microphone check for the president's weekly radio broadcast, provoked contro-versy in the United States and

Mr. Reagan criticized on Friday people who "seem all too willing to turn a blind eve to Soviet transgresions, obstensibly to improve the lialogue between East and West."

"But those who condemn firm support for freedom and democra-- who in order to prove their incerity would project weakness - are no friends of peace, buman iberty or meaningful dialogue." he Larry Speakes, the White House pokesman, would not say whom he president had in mind.

Walter F. Mondale, Mr. Reaan's Democratic opponent in the presidential race, has said that be vould support a freeze on nuclear veapons and would immediately pen arms talks with the Soviet nion if elected.

Mr. Reagan depicted economic anctions, applied against Poland fter the imposition of martial law December 1981, as evidence that us administration had not re-(Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

Geraldine A. Ferraro, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, and her husband, John A. Zaccaro, second from right, leaving the office of their accounting firm in New York.

Ferraro and Husband Plan to Pay About $50,000 in U.S. Back Taxes

NEW YORK - The vice-presidential campaign of Representa-tive Geraldine A. Ferraro, Democrat of New York, has announced that Ms. Ferraro and her bushand will pay the Internal Revenue Service about $50,000 in back taxes, Ms. Ferraro also announced Saturday that her busband, John A. Zaccaro, had agreed to release his income tax returns on Monday.

The back payment of taxes stems from an accountant's miscalculation of the profits from a 1978 real estate sale made by Ms. Ferraro to beip finance her first campaign for the U.S. Congress. The underpay-A White House official said that ment apparently was discovered when the family's new accountant reviewed the couple's tax returns.

The underpayment was ac-

Newsweek said the underpayment resulted from an estimate by the family's former accountant that

By Seth Mydans New York Times Service

reacting to President Ronald Reagan's remarks on the division of Europe, has accused him of distorting history and defaming both the United States rejects any interpretation of the 1945 Yalta agreement

"that suggests American consent for the division of Europe into passively accept "the permanent sheres of influence," and added

The press agency Tass said that

"strike the same notes" as demands

subjugation of the people of East- call for niceties.

Mr. Reagan's remarks, made in the framework of the U.S. presidential "Distorting

Mr. Reagan said Friday that the Soviet Union and Poland.

ern Europe."

MOSCOW - The Soviet Union.

the actual profit was $137,500,

Patricia Y. Bario, Ms. Ferraro's press secretary, said the underpay-ment was madvertent and would be explained in Monday's disclosure, Although Mrs. Bario was uncertain of the exact size of the additional payment, she called the $250,000 estimate "ludicrous" and said that the amount involved was one-fifth to one-quarter of that figure.

Earlier Saturday, Ms. Ferraro had announced that her busband, a real estate investor, would release his income tax returns from the time she entered Congress in 1979. A senior aide to Ms. Ferraro said Saturday that Mr. Zaccaro was hesitant to release his returns because they would reveal the names of knowledged after Newsweek maga-zine reported that Ms. Ferraro and Mr. Zaccaro might have to pay as much as $250,000, including inter-tors would be deterred by the In his luncheon speech to about est and penalties, because of the knowledge that their names could be made public in the future.

In Kansas City, Missouri, Walter
F. Mondale, the Democratic presithrough this."

(LAT, NYT, AP)

dential nominee, praised Mr. Zac- Zaccaro Loan Reported Ms. Ferraro made a $75,000 profit caro's change of heart, and said, "I seek a unified Germany.

the Soviet Union."

Mr. Reagan, Tass said, bad

"used the occasion to call into question the decisions of the lead-in New York. The new accountant, have absolutely and utterly no Arthur Young Inc., discovered that doubt about ber bonesty, and her whole record stands for that,"

Ms. Ferraro and Mr. Zaccaro have been besieged by questions about their finances since she announced Aug. 12 that her busband had refused to release his tax returns. She had pledged last month that both their tax returns would be

The vice-presidential candidate, who has said in the past week that she disagreed with her husband's refusal to do so, noted that the release of both their income tax returns "goes beyond the require-ments of the law." Ms. Ferraro said she would release other financial data about income holdings and iabilities as required of a vice-presidential nominee.

Candidates for president and vice president are not required to make public their income tax returns of those of their spouses. "We are hoping the American public will be satisfied," Ms. Fer-

Peter Kerr of The New York in the sale of a commercial building an proud of Geraldine Ferraro. I Times reported from New York:

Mr. Zaccaro borrowed $100,000 Tass Says Yalta Remark and lent the money to his real estate company, his attorney said late Saturday. He repaid the loan with interest after a year, according to the lawyer, Morton Poyman, a member of the New York City Council. While leader, Erich Honecker, have aroused criticism in Moscow of Mr. Zaccaro broke no law by taking the loan, Mr. Povman said he what it calls "revanchists" who told Mr. Zaccaro that he bad acted improperly in using the money in his real estate business.

There is an ethical prohibition known to lawyers: You don't do that," Mr. Povman said.

ers of the three Allied powers" and Mr. Povman said Mr. Zaccaro "to defame People's Poland and had not known that the loan was improper and intended no wrong-The Tass report referred to the doing. Mr. Zaccaro repaid the loan president as "Mr. Reagan," a curt with interest at a rate of 12 percent form of address in the protocola year to Alice Phelan, 84, who had that the United States could not conscious Soviet press that is rebeen declared incompetent to hanserved for occasions that do not dle her financial affairs.

The thing I stress is Zaccaro has The Tass article Saturday was not been found to do anything wrong," Mr. Povman said. headlined, "President Reagan in The New York Daily News in

"Distorting the history of Po-Sunday's editions reported that election campaign, "challenge the land's liberation from the fascist postwar political setup in Europe." yoke," Tass said, "the president did not utter a single word about the House included," has the right to liberation mission played in the call into question the decisions of war by the Soviet and Polish ar-Jonathan Weinstein, a court referce who audited Mr. Zaccaro's dealings with the woman's estate earlier this year, questioned the propriety of the loan. A bearing is scheduled the Yalta conference or of the 1975 mies. For what to President Reaon the matter Thursday.

Mr. Zaccaro was appointed con-servator of the estate in December Helsinki accords that confirmed gan are 600,000 lives of the Soviet the borders of Eastern Europe. soldiers who die It said Mr. Reagan's statements liberate Poland? soldiers who died in the effort to 1982 because he had a reputation Tass said "all upright patriots of as a responsible and successful business executive. In March 1983, it said are being made by some Poland remember and highly repeople in West Germany for a re-unification with East Germany.

Plans for a visit to West Germa-should not forget about it either." Mr. Povman said, Mr. Zaccaro lent (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Reagan Lays Out Party Line

His Strategists Struggle to Liven The Convention

By Howell Raines New York Times Service
DALLAS — As Republicans gathered here for their party's 33d national convention, President Ronald Reagan used his weekly ra-dio address to lay down the battle lines of the U.S. election campaign. Mr. Reagan said that voters faced a "historic choice" between his economic policies and Walter F. Mondale's program of "higher taxes, more bureaucracy and a bigger welfare state.

The Republicans "point with pride" while the Democrats "view with alarm." Page 3.

The president spoke from the White House, where he is polishing the acceptance address he is to deliver here Thursday night. He provided an advance glimpse of that speech's theme as he contrasted the Democrats' economic agenda of gloom and doom" with what he called the "new patriotism" offered by the Republicans.

"In 1984 we face an historic choice," Mr. Reagan said in the five-minute broadcast on Saturday, "Will we heed the pessimists' agenda of higher taxes, more bureaucra-cy and a bigger welfare state leading us right back to runaway inflation and economic decay, or will we continue on our new road toward a true opportunity society of economic growth, more jobs, lower tax rates and rising take-

As Mr. Reagan unlimbered his conservative oratory in Washington, his campaign strategists in Dallas struggled to find ways to inject elements of drama and suspense into the four-day meeting, which opens Monday and which they openly refer to as a "corona-

The Republican leadership was truggling to contain, within the bounds of political prudence, the Arabia, told The Associated Press spirit of confidence engendered among elected officials and the the two attacks were carried out by convention's 2,235 delegates by Iran. He and other shipping public opinion polls that show Mr. sources suggested that they were in Reagan in position for an electoral

A Gallup Poll released Saturday
found that Mr. Reagan led Mr.

Iran since September 1980, began from an elderly woman whom a Mondale among registered voters attacking shipping in the northern court had appointed him to protect by 52 to 41 percent, with 7 percent Gulf earlier this year in an effort to by 52 to 41 percent, with 7 percent Gulf earlier this year in an effort to party's platform document, the May and June. The Iraqi attack president's political managers pre-pared to dispense with one final, minor challenge: a reapportionment plan to give the Northeastern

The attention to such details of party procedure points up the pov-erty of suspense at this convention as its planners try to figure out a way to attract a national television audience for four nights.

Stage managers for the convention moved on several fronts over day in an Afghan Army artillery the weekend to enliven the pro- attack on Pakistani territory, Pakiceedings by, among other things, dividing the traditional keynote address into several speeches.

step of assigning a Democrat, Jeane J. Kirkpatrick, the representative to the United Nations, to deliver the main political speech on Monday night in praise of Mr. Reader town of Parachinar in northern gan's economic program and his Pakistan.

The job of sounding the party's political battle cry normally falls to the keynote speaker. But for Mon-day, the official keynoter, Kather-Ortega, the treasurer of the United States, has been assigned a different task. Re-election strategists, eager to

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

A sailor watches a U.S. Navy helicopter begin a sonar sweep of a section of the Gulf of Suez in search of mines.

Missile Hits Gulf Tanker, Second Attack in 4 Days

By Judith Miller New York Times Service

CAIRO - A fully loaded Panamanian oil tanker was struck by a missile in the Gulf on Saturday, the second attack on a vessel in the same area in four days.

Neither Iraq nor Iran claimed responsibility for the attack, which did not seriously damage the ship and apparently caused no casual-

On Wednesday two unidentified planes fired rockets at a Pakistani tanker in the Gulf, but missed.

there was "no doubt" in his mind retaliation for an Iraqi attack on a Greek ship Aug. 7.] Iraq, which has been at war with cut Iran's oil income. The attacks, Having brushed back attempts which were often followed by Iranilast week by liberals and moderates an retaliatory strikes against other to modify the conservatism of the vessels, were most numerous in Aug. 7 was the first in a month.

ance exchange, has calculated that in 38 successful attacks on shipping this year in the Persian Gulf, also known as the Arabian Gulf, 18 crewmen have been killed and 27

Sources in Bahrain and al Lloyd's of London said the vessel trains and a passenger train dehit Saturday, the 47,310-ton Endeavour, was heading south in the central Gulf, about 150 miles shotage of tracks by protesters. northeast of Qatar, when it was struck in its starboard side.

trol, the sources said.

[Sources in Dubai told Reuters state. on Sunday that the tanker had been They said the Endeavour was re- protests on Sunday. paired where it dropped anchor kilometers) off Dubai in the United Straight day, the United News of Arab Emirates.]

[Also Sunday, two Soviet minesweepers sailed into the Red Sea as unfavorable weather conditions slowed operations by Egyptian, British and U.S. mine-clearing ships in the Gulf of Suez, Reuters (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5) and Midwestern states a larger share of the delegates at the 1988 Pakistan Says Afghans Killed 18 in Shelling ISLAMABAD, Pakistan -Eighteen people were killed Saturstan reported Sunday. According to Pakistani figures, the shooting raised the death toll in That decision led to the unusual a week of border violations to 33. The Pakistani government had initially reported two people dead and four injured in Saturday's attack at Teri Mangal, near the bor-

> But on Sunday, the Foreign Ministry, citing new reports from the area, reported 16 more deaths. In addition, it said, 11 people were wounded. Most of the victims were identified as Afghan refugees.

The report was the latest of a weeklong series of Pakistani accusations of border violations in the area. It followed two reports of attacks in which 15 civilians were said to have been killed.

In addition, the Pakistani authorities said Saturday that an Afghan warplane had penetrated its airspace and dropped several bombs before mirning back. The attack caused no casualties, they

The Foreign Ministry spokes-man said Sunday that the Afghan Embassy's charge d'affaires in Is-lamabad, Sharif Folad, had been summoned for the fourth time in a week. He was given a protest letter.

Mr. Folad was told that Pakistan takes a "serious view of such instances," and could not be held "responsible for the consequences"

5 Thai Troops Die in Ambusk The Associated Press

BANGKOK - Five Thai troops were killed and 10 other people, including a civilian, wounded Saturday when Communist insurgents attacked an army truck during a routine patrol in Surat Thani province in southern Thailand, provin-

Pakistan's delegation to the United Nations has been instructed to circulate details of the latest incursions among UN members, the Foreign Ministry said.

The reports of border violations came less than a week before the scheduled opening of a new round of talks in Geneva aimed at finding a political solution to the Afghan

The indirect talks between Pakistan and Afghanistan, sponsored by the United Nations, are to start on Friday. They will he the fourth round in a series of contacts that began two years ago.

■ Talks Reportedly Imperiled The talks have been jeopardized by the alleged Afghan incursions and Pakistani protests, Reuters quoted diplomats as saying Sunday in Islamahad

But the diplomats said the wording of the protests still made it possible for the talks to go ahead. Because Pakistan does not recognize the Soviet-backed government in Afghanistan, the talks between the Pakistani foreign minister, Sahabzada Yaqub Khan, and his Afghan counterpart, Shah Mohammed Dost, are mediated by a UN special envoy, Diego Cordovez. Mr. Yaqub Khan and Mr. Dost sit in senarate rooms

Among the issues that have been addressed in the talks are Pakistan's allegations of Afghan incursions, the Soviet presence in Afghanistan and Kabul's assertions that Pakistan harbors Afghan guer-

The Soviet Union has 110,000 to 115,000 troops in Afghanistan, according to Western intelligence estimates. They are lighting Moslem insurgents who Kabul says are supported by the United States, China, Iran and Pakistan.

Pakistan denies the claim that guerrillas use its territory for refuge and arms smuggling. But there is clear support for the various insurgent groups in refugee camps along

Protests Go On in S. India

6 More Killed By Riot Police in Ándhra Pradesh

The Associated Press NEW DELHI - At least six demonstrators were slain and 38 wounded by police gunfire in An-dhra Pradesh on Sunday in re-newed protests against the dismissal of the opposition-led state government, state authorities re-poned. The killings increased the death toll to at least 25 in violent street protests since the dismissal of the administration of a popular politician, N.T. Rama Rao. About 275 protesters and 40 police have been

Meanwhile, violent protests spread to two other states, neigh-boring Karnataka and Maharashira, in western India.

A police spokesman in Hyderabad, the capital of Andhra Pradesh, said that five protesters were killed in Chinnathippasamudram, near the Hindu pilgrimage center of Tirupati, when police opened fire, and one died in Puttur, 52 miles (85 kilometers) northwest of Madras, More than 50 people, including several opposition leaders, were in-jured in Bombay, capital of Maha-rashtra, when riot police broke up a demonstration against Mr. Rama Rao's dismissal near the governor's residence, the United News of India reported. About two dozen acuvists were detained, it said.

In Kamataka, one of India's three remaining opposition-ruled states, demonstrators protesting the dismissal blockaded railroads, disrupting train services, India's Southern Railway reported.

The railway said two freight railed in Andhra Pradesh, 250 miles north of Madras, because of

No one was reported injured. Mrs. Gandhi's federal govern-The missile started a fire on deck ment, meanwhile, rushed additionthat was swiftly brought under con-. al paramilitary reinforcements to Andhra Pradesh, a large southern

State police reported that about repaired and was expected to re- 60 people were injured and a rail sume its voyage to Britain shortly. road station set ablaze in renewed

Several towns in the state ob-Saturday night, 12 miles (about 20 served general strikes for the third

India reported. The 19-month-old Andhra Pradesb administration was dismissed last Thursday by the state governor, Ram Lal, ostensibly because Mr. Rama Rao, a popular former film star in southern India, had lost the legislative majority in the 295-member state assembly. A new state leadership was installed that supports Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's governing Congress (I) Party.

Opposition politicians have alleged that Congress (1) bribed Andhra Pradesh state legislators or offered favors to encourage defecuons from Mr. Rama Rao's Telugu Desam party, the first non-Congress party government in the state.
The dismissal was the third of a state government since May and another move by Mrs. Gandhi to strengthen her party's base before national elections that must be called by January. About 163 Andhra Pradesh deputies supporting Mr. Rama Rao headed for New Deltu on Sunday, United News said. They were scheduled to meet President Zail Singh on Monday to try to show that Mr. Rama Rao still commands a legislative majority.

The pro-government Times of India newspaper, meanwhile, said Sunday that legislators belonging to Mrs. Gandhi's party are concerned that the national furor triggered by Mr. Rama Rao's dismissal would adversely affect their political fortunes" in the forthcoming parliamentary elections.

INSIDE

■ Jury consultants' role in selecting jurors is spotlighted by the De Lorean trial. Page 3 Peru's military has stepped up its campaign against leftist guerrillas. Page 5. treaty have been clouded by a separate agreement among Page 5 eight countries. ■ Belfast police officers clashed again with Protestant and Cath-BUSINESS/FINANCE ■ U.S. regulators are reported to be discussing replacing the chairman of troubled Financial Corp. of America. Page 7.

TOMORROW'

Catholic clergymen in Laun America who support a "theology of liberation" for their region are facing resistance from

Sri Lankan Emergency Is Extended

flow the security forces to contin- ago after rebels killed 13 Sinhalese e their campaign against separatt guerrillas, according to official

The sources, who asked that they ot to be identified, said Saturday rat military intelligence showed viore Tamil separatists were comig by boat from India and further : - uerrilla attacks on police stations 1 the north were expected.

trest, they said. Tamil guerrillas fighting for a ste free from the Sinhalese majoron the island of 15 million peoe began a renewed separatist

COLOMBO, Sri Lanka — Presient Junius R. Jayewardene has ttended a 15-month nationwide emergency were also needed to prevent any backlash against Tamils in Sinhalese areas. About 400 people, Sinhalese areas, About 400 people, of killing civilians in their drive alc of emergency for a month to mainly Tamils, died in riots a year > posed in May last year to prevent violence after parliamentary and local elections, can be extended

Mr. Jayewardene's Umted Na- guerrilla ambush on an army contional Party has the two-thirds majority needed in parliament to approve extensions.

A relative full after two weeks of Sri Lankan television reported olence that left at least 95 people and was only an interval in the Friday that the national security minister, Lalith Athulathmudali had urged a class of graduating air force cadets not to use their weapons for what he called personal in fighting separatists.

Television showed films of a unit ticipate while its people were being The sources said the special pow- formerly assigned to guard air harassed and killed.

Tamils accuse the armed forces against the rebels but the government denies any wrongdoing. Last week government officials Under the constitution, the state confirmed that troops set fire to of emergency, which was first im- Tamil shops and bomes, looted property and killed five civilians earlier in the week in and around Mannar, 155 miles (250 kilometers) north of Colombo, in reprisal for a

> The government blamed "extremists and Marxists" in the army for the attacks in Mannar and else-

The Tamil United Liberation Front, the main party for Sri Lanka's 2.5 million Tamils, walked out Friday of government-sponsored talks on the ethnic issue. The party said it could not par-

The market in Mannar, a town in northern Sri Lanka, was wrecked last week when soldiers went on a rampage. cial police said Sunday.

Belfast Police

Clash With

Protestants

And Catholics

BELFAST — Protestant youths clashed early Smiday with mem-bers of the predominantly Protestant police force for the fourth straight day, and Roman Catholics

Fifteen persons were arrested as more low-key than on previous nights."

The disturbances followed a parade Saturday by Protestants to protest what they said had been police brutality against suspected loyalist guerrillas and to demand an end to the police use of inform-

ers. No violence or arrests were reported during the parade. The police estimated the demonstrators heartland of Protestant militancy

The gun attack marked the fifth

Nearby in mainly Catholic west has been recalled from summer recess for a one-day emergency session on Tuesday to discuss the worsening security crisis. The session had been urged by the two

But the debate by the Protestant-dominated assembly, which Catho-

do anything to cool tempers in Northern Ireland. The Protestant

what they said had been "a week of orchestrated vilification of the

The police came mider criticism

a week ago after Sean Downs, a Catholic, was killed by a plastic

Sinn Fein, the political wing of the Northern Aid Committee, which supports the outlawed IRA's aim with the Catholic Irish republic.

peared in public.

Mr. Galvin, who had been

In London, meanwhile, about

3,000 demonstrators demanding the removal of British troops from Northern Ireland paraded through versary last week of the dispatch of

A black wreath in memory of

garet Thatcher's official residence at 10 Downing St. She was vaca-the capital to mark the 15th anni troops to the province.

tioning in Austria.

numbered 3,000.

no officers were hit.

in nearly a decade.

also took to the streets again.

Ian Smith, Unrepentant, Clings On Ex-Leader's Support From Whites in Zimbabwe Dwindles

By Alan Cowell

SHURUGWE Zimbabwe When visitors arrive at his farm here in the southeast tip of Zimbabwe, lan D. Smith likes to show them the cattle that are his pride: the Brahman bulls, lowering and heavy, or the steers, ripe for slaughter, sleek of coat and plump of line.

Dogs and grandchildren and geese escort the party, and the conversatioo is of farming concerns: the price of beef and diesel fuel, the drought that wilted the corn crop, arrangements for the labor force.

Then the talk turns to history. Mr. Smith was the last white prime minister of Rhodesia, a rebel against the British crown who led his white followers against black nationalists, who branded him a war criminal. The battle ended four years ago, with 30,000 people killed.

Now, in a whitewashed homestead in his 6,000-acre (2,500-hectare) estate, Mr. Smith continues as before, dour and outspoken, and the custodian, in his view, of a white minority that is learning to live with new realities.

Mr. Smith these days, like the dwindling number of whites in Zimbabwe, is tolerated, sometimes ridiculed and sometimes just ig-nored by the nation's black-majority rulers, who acknowledge the economic importance of the whites but revile them for their former

When elections were held in 1980, just before independence, Mr. Smith and his fullowers received all 20 of the seats guaranteed tn whites under a British-drafted constitution that was designed, in part, to assure them of a future in a new nation.

Since then, 13 of his legislators have defected to become what are called "independents." Mr. Smith's power base has eroded, but his determination to remain a figure in politics has not. The white members of Parlia-

Smith once sought to divide black Unofficially led by Christopher point?"

By Josh Barbanel

New York Times Service

NEW YORK - In the four decades since Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin secretly met near the Black Sea resort of Yalta, the meeting and its aftermath have been debated by historians and politi-

Yalta Division

Is Challenged

(Continued from Page 1)

mained "passive" toward Soviet

Earlier this month, the administration announced that it was lifting some of the sanctions in response to Warsaw's amnesty for

Mr. Reagan opened the way for restoration of landing rights to

LOT, the Polish airline, and renewal of scientific exchanges. He also said he would probably withdraw U.S. opposition in Polish membership in the International Monetary

A White House statement on

Aug. 3 said that the remaining sanctions, including a ban on direct government credits, could be lifted if Warsaw fulfilled its pledge to release all political prisoners, particularly 11 protest leaders. Those prisoners have since been released.

one, in response to meaningful improvement in the human rights sit-

A Reagan administration official made on the sanctions but that Po-from guaranteeing U.S. wheat sales

At the luncheon ou Friday, Mr.

Reagan announced that he would ask Congress to appropriate $10 million as a U.S. contribution to a farm improvement program administered by the Roman Catholie

Warsaw uprising: Major General Leopold Okulicki, Lieutenant General Tadeusz Bor Komorowski and Church in Poland.

Rowecki.

uation in Poland."

pressure.

political prisoners.

Anderson, a former justice minister under Mr. Smith, the independents Mr. Smith said he has no plans to leave and would be loath to conauthorities, offering what they call a constructive style, as compared with what they see as Mr. Smith's readiness for confrontation.

The white constituency is shrinkin promoting an image of coopera-tion obliged Mr. Smith's party to reappraise its goals and style. It changed its name recently to the Conservative Alliance; previously, it had been called the Republican Front, keeping the initials it used in the old days, when it was called the Rhodesian Front and was known

Admitting that the name change signified a loss of ground, Mr. Smith said, "There were people who believed that the RF was living in the past and was not prepared to cooperate with the government." changing its name, he added. the party hoped to shed its image of being obdurate and uncoopera-

Mr. Smith himself is unrepentant. He sees himself as a potential brake on Prime Minister Robert Mugabe's desire for one-party rule in Zimbabwe. "If it goes on like this, there's not much bope, not much future," be said.

He accused Mr. Mugabe of presiding over economic decline, "a breakdown in law and order" and a rush to Marxism-Leninism. Who but his own party, he asked, would "stand up for the rights and the beliefs of the white?" "Certainly not the independents," he said, "who are on the bandwagon, condoning.' It is evident that Mr. Smith is fighting a rear-guard action to re-trieve what he has lost, to counter political apathy among the whites and curb sentiments such as those expressed by one white farmer, who said: "Smith had his day. Now he should retire gracefully to his farm and keep quiet." As another white farmer put it, "A lot of people think the independents are sellouts and Mr. Smith ment have been divided, just as Mr.

carved out "spheres of influence" and open elections."

A Defense of Roosevelt?

say they aim to work with the new cede ultimate victory to Mr. Mugabe. Moreover, he seems to be saying that the demise of white rule was not the inevitability many took

In his own times, he was a hero ing, and the independents' success to a white minority whose numbers grew to to 280,000 in the mid-1970s, and the embodiment of their aim to maintain supremacy. A former Royal Air Force fighter pilot, Mr. Smith went on record as saying black rule would not come to Rhodesia, not in his lifetime, "not in a thousand years."

He unlaterally declared Rhodesia's independence from Britain on Nov. 11, 1965, a move that brought war and international economic sanctions, which were often cir-

In 1976, under pressure from South Africa, his main backer, and from Henry A. Kissinger, then the U.S. secretary of State, Mr. Smith acknowledged a need for political change. "Having given ground in 1976, we could not recover it," he said. "Our friends left us in the

Mr. Mugabe no longer speaks to Mr. Smith, seeking to isolate him from the political process. Mr. Smith argues that whites have been intimidated into withdrawing support for him. But, he said, "I know I still represent white opinion," a statement some would contest.

There are to be general elections before February 1985. Whites have been slow to register, and Mr. Smith, in one of many gibes and taunts directed at Mr. Mugabe, said the elections would not be free or fair. There will, however, be a contest between Mr. Smith's party and the "independents" for white

As in the closing days of the war, however, whites have been leaving Zimbabwe at a rate of 20,000 a year, so their numbers are now down to 100,000 or fewer in a nation of some eight million people. "With arithmetic like that," a foreign diplomat said, "it's pretty obvious that, as far as the politics are has had his day, so what's the concerned, it's all irrelevant to the

Struggle to

that in effect ceded control of Eastern Europe to the Soviet Union.

Others believe it marked the beginning of the Cold War, as the Soviet Union betrayed promises of "free monial stressing her Hispanic. President Ronald Reagan said Friday that "we reject the interpreration of the Yalta agreement that suggests American consent for the divison of Europe into spheres of But in doing so, Mr. Reagan re- piece of oratory.

conservative critics of U.S. foreign policy.
"Extreme conservatives," Professor Robert C. Tucker of Princeton University said, "have accused Roosevelt of selling out Eastern Europe. In a sense, President Reagan is coming to the defense of Roosevelt's government." At Yalta in February 1945, an accord was reached on veto power in the United Nations Security Council. In addition, the United States and Britain promised the Soviet Union that it would control the southern Sakhalin Islands off its western coast if it declared war against Japan. It did so. But it was the issue of Eastern Europe that has made the conference a lively partisan symbol.

Participants agreed to the "right of all peoples to choose the form of government under which they will live" and called for interim governments representing "all democratic

Mr. Reagan reiterated that On the question of Poland, the primise on Friday, saying be would lift the sanctions "one by Soviet Union and the Western powers agreed to "free, unfettered elections

In practice, in Poland and other East European countries, Communists operating under the protec-tion of Soviet troops took control said that un decision had been in the postwar years. lish moves so far were "encourag-ing," in that the government had kept its promise to release the pris-U.S. participants in the talks said later that the outcome was the result of Soviet power and its reneging on agreements, rather than any "sellout." The official said there has been no discussion of lifting the ban on Some West European leaders credits, which prevents the Comhave questioned this view. De Gaulle argued over the years that modity Credit Corp., a division of the Department of Agriculture, the United States and the Soviet Union had sought to divide postwar Енгоре. And in 1982, Chancellor Helmut Schmidt of West Germany said the West "decided in a meeting in Yalta to practically divide Europe into spheres of influence." The Reagan administration argues that since Yalta did not legally divide Europe, it is not legally di-Mr. Reagan presented posthu-mous medals to three heroes of the vided.

"We recognize oo lawful division of Europe," Vice President George Bush said last September, after a Vice President George Lieuteogot General Stefan tour that included stops in Hungary and Romania.

for a French gift

JEWELLER SINCE 1936

4, place de la Madeleine - Paris 8º

Tel. 260.31.44 - 138, rue La Fayette - Paris 10-

Credit Cards - Taxes repaid at the airport background and her professional line conservative tone.

final convention session to celebrate Mr. Reagan's first term has led campaign officials into conflict with executives of the three main

The Republicans want to televise

Network executives balked, saying that would amount to an extended campaign commercial. They point out that a similar film about Mr. Mondale, shown in the convention hall at San Francisco, was not transmitted over national egists confirmed privately that campaign officials intended to talk so much about the Reagan film that the pressure of public curiosity would force the networks to run it. Druze drove out their enemies.

combat criticism that Mr. Reagan is bostile to women and blacks, want her to deliver a personal testi-

The campaign planners have assigned to a third speaker, Howard H. Baker Jr. of Tennessee, the Senate majority leader, the task of stirring the audience with a rousing intended to shift attention to the broad issue of presidential leadership and away from the party platform, drafted this week. Reagan strategists regard the platform document as a potential general election liability because of its hard-

The plan to use Thursday night's television oetworks.

a "centerpiece package" consisting of an 18-minute film about Mr. Reagan, followed by his acceptance

Several Reagan re-election strat-

Lebanese Druze Enclave Assumes Role of a State

By John Kifner New York Times Service

don't have much influence because they don't have anything here," Hi-sham Nassereddine said about the Lebanese government. "We are running the whole game here."

Since May, Mr. Nassereddine has been the civil administrator of the district of Aleih - not for the central government but for the Progressive Socialist Party, the Druze nilitia force that controls the Chuf Mountains southeast of Beirut.

Aleih, once an attractive mountain resort, is the next place to which the government wants to extend its peace plan, which has brought a tentative calm to Beirut. A Lebanese Army brigade is currently stationed in the area, in the village of Souk at Gharb.

But there are exchanges of fire nearly every night between the army positions and the Druze militismen dug into the ruins of the surrounding towns.

If the upsurge of shooting bodes ill for the government's hopes of getting control of the country, so, in the long run, does Mr. Nassered-dine's civil administration, which is only one facet of an institutional-ization of the deep divisions between religious groups here. "Everybody is withdrawing back into their own sects," says Samir Khalaf, a sociologist at the American University of Beirut, who is studying the effects of nine years of civil strife in Lebanon.

In the Chuf Mountains, the Druze have, in effect, established their own canton, a thus far pale imitation of the state within a state years in the predominantly Maronite Catholic areas run by the dime said. You cannot have noned under the Phalangists; it must be united for all." Christian Phalangist militia.

"We're taking care of any subject you can think about, from displaced people and refugees, military police, tax collection, schools and hospitals," said Mr. Nassered-dine, whose office was decorated with photographs of the Druze chieftain, Walid Jumblat. Mr. Jumblat serves as minister of touristo in the "national unity" govern- lice said. They said they suspected

"All the people here are in one way or another PSP," he said, using the initials of the Progressive Socialist Party.

The Druze, a fierce mountain people who hold to a schismatic branch of Islam, established their civil administration last October, after pushing the Christian Phalangist militias and their ally, the Lebanese Army, out of the Chuf.

The trouble in the Chuf, the traditional homeland of the Druze, began after the Israeli invasion of 1982, when the Phalangists moved in behind the Israelis and attempted to establish control. When the Israelis withdrew farther south, the

Ferraro, Husband Owe $50,000 in Back Taxes

(Continued from Page 1) $100,000 from the Phelan estate to the P. Zaccaro Co., his real estate

Mr. Povman said he did not know about the loan until Mr. Zaccaro filed an accounting of his activities regarding the estate earlier

'I said you shouldn't do that type of transaction," Mr. Povman said. "The rule is: Don't intertwine your business interest and those of the estate."

According to Mr. Povman, Mr. Zaccaro had only intended to help Mrs. Phelan's estate, since it could earn 12-percent interest as a loan to Mr. Zaccaro, rather the 10.5-percent interest it was previously earning. Mr. Povman said Mr. Zaccaro did not benefit from the loan and

For Life, Academic & Work Experience
You may qualify for BACHELORS MASTER'S OR DOCTORATE Send detailed resume for a free evaluation. PACHIC WESTERN UNIVERSITY 1620 VINTERS BY BROWN THE TOTAL TOTAL 1620 VINTERS BY BITTERS TO THE TOTAL from a bank at the same rate. Mr. Povman said he did not know what the loan had been used

Mr. Zaccaro, he said, would not comment directly on the matter. ■ Bush Financial Statement Vice President George Bush released financial documents Friday showing that be and his wife, Barbara, have a net worth of about $2.1 million, most of it tied up in a blind trust established four years ago and in their vacation residence at Kennebunkport, Maine, the Los Angeles Times reported from

Mr. Bush's office also re-released the couple's joint federal income tax returns from 1973 to 1980.

Peter Teeley, a spokesman for Bush, insisted that the controversyover the finances of Ms. Ferraro and her husband had nothing to do with the unanticipated decision to provide the Bush financial statement and to release the tax returns

"We are not trying to make a statement about Mrs. Ferraro's taxes," Mr. Teeley said. "What we are trying to do is establish what the vice president is and has been on the issue of releasing tax and

Mr. Jumblat appointed a 15-man "executive council," whose posts ALEIH, Lebanon - "They paralleled those of the central government's cabinet, such as imance, defense and foreign affairs, to handle the affairs of what he called the > liberated area." Since then the administration masked Catholie youngsters has been extended, with committees in each village. And the militia has been reorganizing along the lines of a regular army cadre.

The Druze canton faces problems, chief among them money. Mr. Jumblat says the funds he formerly got from Libya have been cut off and the party has been reduced to raising money by such means as a toll on automobiles using roads in the zone and a 1-percent tax on The Druze villages, like other lics have boycotted since elections non-Christian areas, have long been oeglected by officials in Beiin October 1982, is not expected to

"Here in this area, no one looks to the government," said Moham-med Sabra Awar, the administrator parties said they wanted to protest of the Aleih hospital."We're not RUC and gross media imbalance." against a central government but we need one that can be trusted by all the people, not just one sect." bullet during a police charge at a rally outside the headquarters of

Prime Minister Rashid Karami has announced plans to ease the confrontation points in the mountains, reopen the highway to Damascus and send in troops. But the plans have bogged down in wrangling, with Mr. Jumblat and his supporters insisting they will not let the Lebanese Army, which they regard as a tool of the Phalangists. back into the area.

of ending British rule in Protestant-dominated Ulster and uniting it "I believe in having Lebanon united, but maybe it will have to be partitioned into small areas before banned from entering Northern person. it can be united," Mr. Nassered- Ireland, escaped and has not reap- No d

Aeroflot Bombed in Karachi The Associated Press

KARACHI, Pakistan - Two men threw an explosive device at
A black wreath in memory of an office of the Soviet airline AeroMr. Downs was carried by a small flot in a Karachi hotel on Saturday delegation to Prime Minister Marnight, injuring three policemen, po-

Missile Hits Gulf Tanker, Second Attack in 4 Days

(Continued from Page 1) reported in Cairo. No mines have been found so far.]

Meanwhile, Western military sources in Cairo said Saturday that small, lightly charged mines on the bottom of the sea, with delayed time fuses, were believed to have caused the underwater explosions that have damaged at least 17 ships in the Red Sea and Gulf of Suez since July 9.

The officials, who spoke on condition that they not be identified, said they could not be certain about the type of mine involved until British and American forces combing the northern and southern Gulf of Suez had found one.

U.S. Navy Orders New Ships for Minesweeping New York Times Service

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Navy has ordered two new classes of minesweeping ships, after two decades of relying primarily on helicopters to sweep mines at sea. The first of the two classes, led by the 1,000-ton woodenhulled Avenger, is intended to clear U.S. ports and coasts in the event of hostilities. Avenger is scheduled to he delivered in September 1985. The second class, known as minesweeper hunters, are 470-ton ships intended to keep coastal waters clear.

A navy spokesman said that while helicopters can be taken quickly on transport planes to any part of the world, sweep quickly and do not trigger mines, they cannot sweep in deep water and have a range of only 100 miles (162 kilometers).

the Egyptian press has suggested, given the poor condition of the sea

On Saturday, Egyptian officials declined official comment on an Iranian warning Friday that it would delay ships in the Persian, or Arabian, Gulf if Egypt or its West-ern allies continued to stop and search Iranian ships entering the Suez Canal, where underwater explosions have damaged at least 19 Suez since July 9.

The total of damaged ships was increased from 17 to 19 on Saturday by Lloyd's, which said it had aved delayed reports.

■ Navies Sharing Search Military sources in Cairo said that British Navy ships were searching the northern end of the Gulf of Suez, while U.S. Sea Stallion belicopters were scanning the middle sector, Reuters reported The Egyptian Navy, using Soviet-made minesweepers, is operating in the southern sector and two French minehanters are conducting clearing operations off Saudi Arabia's Red Sea coast. The destination of the Soviet vessels, identified only as minesweep- civil rights. ers 413 and 912, was not immediately clear but military sources said they were probably heading toward South Yemen, where there is a Soviet naval hase.

Red Sea navigation. ■ Iran Oil Halt Reported

Iran has halted oil exports for about two weeks and crude sales may fall by nearly half this month to around a million barrels daily, Reuters reported, citing oil company sources in Tehran. The sources estimated that the average daily export level last month was about 1.8 million or 1.9 million barrels.

WORLD BRIEFS

Germanys' Leaders Reaffirm Détente

BONN (AP) — East and West German leaders said in weekend interviews that they want to maintain detente between their two countries. Both Richard von Weizsaecker, the West German president, and Erich Honecker, the East German president and Communist Party leader, emphasized the importance of detente and said the Germanys had a crucial role to play in East-West relations.

Their public statements indicated that neither country intends to back away from the new diplomacy between them, despite strong criticism

The Germanys have already made "distinct progress" in relaxing tension between them, Mr. von Weizsaecker said in a radio interview tension between them, Mr. von Weizsaecker said in a radio interview tension between them, Mr. von Weizsaecker said in a radio interview Sunday. Mr. Honecker told the East German press agency, ADN, that "it is better to negotiate 10 times over than to shoot once.

police officers fought mobs of both Arab Shot in Madrid Is a Palestinian religions, but a police spokesman said the disturbances had been MADRID (Reuters) — The Spanish police identified on Sunday an Arab seriously wounded in Madrid ou Friday as Zaki al-Hailou, a leader of the military wing of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine. Mr. Hailou, 44, who is known as Abu Said, was in critical condition in a hospital after being shot by a motorcyclist.

A spokesman for the Palestine Liberation Organization blamed the Israeli account service for the attack but Spanish police accurage said there.

Israeli secret service for the attack but Spanish police sources said they believed the shooting might have arisen from factional fighting between Palestinian groups. An organization calling itself the Islamic Revolutionary Vanguard claimed responsibility for the shooting in calls to newspaness in Parents of Canadam pers in Kuwait on Saturday.

In the violence early Sunday, a sniper fired on an armored police vehicle during three hours of trou-ble in the Shankill Road area, Falklands War Sinking Is Questioned LONDON (UPI) - The Observer newspaper reported Sunday that defense documents showed the British government ordered the sinking of the Argentine battle cruiser General Belgrano in the Falklands war, with a loss of 368 lives, even though it knew the ship posed no immediate n Belfast. A police spokesman said threat to British forces The documents, the newspaper said, were sent anonymously to a Labor time that snipers in the Protestant stronghold had opened up on the overwhelmingly Protestant Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC) since violence flared in the Shankill dis-trict Wednesday for the first time The documents, the newspaper said, were sent anonymously to a Labor Party member of Parliament, Tom Dalyell. The report added that the documents also showed the government of Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher planned a cover-up of its handling of the war in the South Atlantic, withholding key information from Parliament.

A Defense Ministry spokesman said he had "no comment whatsoever" on the report. Mr. Dalyell, who has repeatedly accused the government of failing in account properly for the sinking of the Belgrano on May 2, 1982, by the submarine Conqueror, also refused to comment. ifast, the police said, about 50 lobbed gasoline bombs at officers. The police fired back with plastic Manila Court Approves Aquino Rites

MANILA (Combined Dispatches) — The Supreme Court approved plans Saturday for opposition demonstrations on the first anniversary of the assassination of Benigno S. Aquino Jr., rejecting government arguments that the activities could lead to civil war. bullets. No casualties were report-The Northern Ireland Assembly

Mr. Aquino was shot to death at the Manila International Airport on Aug. 21, 1983, on his arrival from U.S. exile. The Supreme Court described him as a "leader who decided to go back to his country to attain peace" and asked demonstration organizers not to use "placards of hate d acts inimical to public peace" to desecrate his memory.

Soldiers seized a statue of Mr. Aquino on its arrival Sunday and customs officials were quoted as having said it will not be released until its sponsors produce either a tex-exemption certificate or an import clearance. The bronze statue was sculpted in Rome by a Filipino and unveiled in New York last week. (AP, UPI)

Nicaraguan Opposition Gets Reprieve MANAGUA (UPI) - Nicaragua's electoral council has again kept the door open for parties opposed to the government to field candidates in November presidential elections. The council, which had the power to remove the legal status of political parties if they failed to meet the registration deadline of Aug. 5, anounced Friday that it would not move against three parties of the country's largest opposition group, the Democratic Coordinator, It had earlier postponed the deadline for seven days.

The government's concession came after the Social Christian Party, the Irish Republican Army.

The police were trying to arrest
Martin Galvin of New York, pub-Social Democratic Party and the Liberal Constitutional Party last week licity director of Noraid, the Irish lifted their demand that the government hold talks with insurgent leaders.

U.K. Civil Servant on Secrets Charge

LONDON (UPI) - A senior Defense Ministry official has been charged in court with passing secret information to an unauthorized No details of the charges against Clive Pouting, 38, were disclosed in the hearing on Saturday. He was ordered to appear again on Sept. 13 and was freed on bail. Mr. Ponting, head of a Defense Ministry section responsible for giving advice and assistance to the navy, was suspended from duty pending the outcome of the court action, the ministry said.

Solidarity Aide in Plea for 2 Activists

WARSAW (NYT) - A key Solidarity figure on Saturday criticized the government's amnesty for political prisoners, saying it had not been extended to two underground Solidarity activists, among others.

Karol Modzelewski, 48, the former press spokesman of the banned union movement, said that with these prisoners still in jail, "the amnesty will not be full and it has to he full if it is to make any political sense." He was released two weeks ago after nearly three years' imprisonment. The amnesty covered more than 600 political prisoners. But Mr. Modzelewski cited Bogdan Lis and Piotr Mierzejewski, leaders of Solidarity's clandestine wing who face possible charges of high treason, as among those who have been excluded from the amnesty.

French Bombings Linked to Ransom This, they added, would proba-bly take weeks, rather than days, as

GRENOBLE, France (UPI) - A terrorist group that has demanded ranson from the Socialist government is apparently behind three bomb attacks staged last week in southeastern France, the police said Saharday. The latest explosion, at the Grenoble train station Friday, "again was an amateur-built device made with the same explosives as in the previous attacks," a Grenoble police inspector, André Chaillant, said. There was no claim of responsibility. Similar bombs used at a train station in Lyons and a cultural center in Annecy were claimed by a spokesman for a previously unknown group in phone calls to a French news agency. Calling itself M-5, the group warned: "Bloodier attacks will follow unless the government hands over 30 million francs [$3.5 million]

ships in the Red Sea and Gulf of UN Council Critical of South Africa

UNITED NATIONS. New York (NYT) — The Security Council voted approval Friday of a resolution that "strongly rejects and declares as null and wold" constitutional changes proposed by South Africa.

Included in these changes, which are scheduled to take effect in September, is a provision for a parliament of three houses — one for whites, one for people of mixed race and the third for Indians. Blacks, who make up the majority in the nation, are not to be represented.

The vote was 13 in favor, none opposed, with the United States and Bestaining. The South African representative. Kurt von Schirud-UNITED NATIONS, New York (NYT) - The Security Council Britain abstaining. The South African representative, Kurt von Schirnding, said his country "will in no way be impressed or influenced by the farcical proceedings here today."

Mondale Advisers Rebuked by a Black

ATLANTA (AP) - Mayor Andrew Young has expressed exasperation with Walter F. Mondale's campaign advisers, calling them "smart-assed white boys" who will not take advice. Nonetheless, Mr. Young called on fellow blacks to vote for Mr. Mondale against President Ronald Reagan in November and praised the Democratic nominee's 20-year record on Reacting to Mr. Young's statement, a spokeswoman for Mr. Mondale, Maxine Isaacs, said: "It's an unfair charge. . . . I personally find the language objectionable, and I don't think it's based on any reliable Mr. Young opened an address Friday to about 500 people attending Egypt, meanwhile, has called for the convention of the National Association of Black Journalists by combined Arab action to protect saying, "I didn't know there were this many niggers that could write," The saying, "I didn't know there were this many niggers that could write." The line drew a big laugh.

For the Record

A British scientific satellite separated from a West German satellite and witched on automatically 110,000 kilometers (68,000 miles) above the Earth on Sunday, a West German spokesman said. The satellites were launched jointly with a U.S. one Thursday at Cape Canaveral, Florida.

John F. Lehman Jr., secretary of the U.S. Navy, completed on Sunday a five-day trip to Beijing to meet with senior Chinese officials. Neither U.S. nor Chinese officials would provide any details of the discussions. (LAT)

§ Republic

- ---

amagen bar an eine beide.

Acres 6

.

·  $2.19

AMERICA to luckers & the good !

bent birrieter Striger The Same of the Sugar Mark to the state of the same tales of the poets. With the same in state with • 1 : 44 12 The same of the proceeding Transfer in the same The Table 1999 who is not a second of the end of all abalaten an an extern Hory Reduction of the property Burney Same South of divided the same of and the second second

Margarette and the Land State the or distant ≥$13. · In anti- technology by-New York them by their back Par in the later to le Comment Letter There are a same Tellar indiag the

And the second The series Francisco P 14 in the Hone Market ... o manue Stale Arts CHAIR N ack and inval Street are Charm And the state of t

The least the least

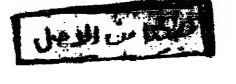

THE PROCESS. didner for Found

Whit There in " the air figle at the states

The same of the sa Selon and Hearth Lundie ger an amily of de san a sample of the sample Standard Andrews Sales of the sales

And the state of t Charles of the control of the contro Specification of policy that is Bled (18) $34,41$346.

Tales of Change The state of the s distanta tin han have Section of the familiar His Self to the second second

Things Are Going Well, or Not So Well Distant Show Vastly Different World Views It is a tradition of America

By Don Oberdorfer

WASHINGTON -- In 1980, the out-of-power Republicans warned in their party platform that the United States was facing "the most serious challenge to its survival" in history. However, after four years in office, the party sees a much more comfortable world.

The prospect for peace is excel- matically in the same period. leni because America is strong again" and "the danger of war has

in de l'indiaglique

NEWS ANALYSIS drafted this week for adoption by the Republican National Conven-

In 1980, looking back on the stake may be nothing less than him-Carter administration, the Demo-

Ronald

RUNNING REAGAN DOWN — A group called "Women Running Against Reagan" carries a sign in Dallas urging delegates to "retire" the president at the Republican convention, which opens on Monday. More than 2,200 people are expected to attend.

Their Party's Platform, Laxalt Says

grown more remote under Presi-deut Reagan," said the platform restoring America to its rightful place" as the strongest and most just of nations. But last month, the out-of-power Democrats asserted in their platform that President "an unprecedented record of fail-The view of the Democrats, on ure" in foreign policy and that "on the other hand, has darkened draa nuclear holocaust, what is at sary," the document says. In a much-noted change from its 1980 posture, the Republicans this time did not repeat its pledge to achieve "military superiority" over the Soviet Union. In a June 14 press conference, Mr. Reagan said, "I would prefer that we not ask for superiority" now that arms-control offers had been made.

Nonetheless, the substitute vows adopted by the platform committee were only slightly short of this — to maintain U.S. "technological supe-riority" as a foundation of nuclear deterrence and to strive for U.S. "qualitative superiority" in naval

The world-class villain, in the Republican platform, is the Soviet Union with "its globalist ideology and its leadership obsessed with military power." This is followed by an attack oo "the Carter-Mondale team" which, it is asserted, "hid behind an umbrella of wishful thinking" in the face of a Soviet

The Democrats in San Francisco also assailed "the Soviet threat" and "the totalitarian Soviet state, which has amassed an arsenal of weapons far beyond its defensive

While pledging "a strong national defense." the Democrats re-buked Mr. Reagan for failing to wield an olive branch. "Today we U.S. Republicans Don't Have to Walk stand at one of the most critical junctures in the arms race since the explosion of the first atomic bomb," their platform said.

It added that Mr. Reagan is "the first American president in over 20 years who has not reached any significant arms-control agreement with the Soviet Union" and "the most of his colleagues in the dissi-dent group said the policies oot-met face to face with Soviet lead-

> On regional matters, the fault line of partisan division runs clearly through Central America, which has become an area of contention for the two parties in Congress.

For the Republicans, whose plat-form lists Central America first, before even the Soviet Union, Eu-They predicted that would tear the rope or the Middle East, the threat party apart and possibly lead to is from President Fidel Castro's formation of a conservative third "brutal dictatorship," in Cuba, the major political party. "brazen" Nicaraguan "Marxist-Lenajor political party. "brazen" Nicaraguan "Marxist-Le-Representative Jack F. Kemp of minist" government and "brotal" New York, who played a major role Communist guerrillas in El Salva-

"We support the democratie points, tried to reconcile the differ-ences by asserting the platform is said the Republicans, in a reference to the 12,000 anti-Sandinist rebels, known as "contras," who are assistwould not raise income taxes but be ed by the U.S. Central Intelligence

The Democrats, in contrast, called for the United States to reform, he said, "We just don't know, duce tensions and give "unequivo-until the study comes back," the form of any revenue increases. duce tensions and give "unequivo-cal support" to achieving negotiat-ed settlements in the area. "We Mainstream Committee mem-bers denounced the platform on contras and other paramilitary ment, election reform and arms the world of "freedom worth decontrol. Several attributed the plat- fending" even though "Grenada is For the Democrats, Grenada is where Mr. Reagan "renounced diplomacy for over two years, en-couraged instability and crisis" and finally "set a chilling precedent" by excluding the press from a military Lebanon, once hailed by Mr.

"His approach will be a little Reagan as vital to U.S. interests in the Middle East, is all but ignored in the Republican document, which 1982," Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982, "Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982," Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982, "Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982," Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982, "Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982," Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982, "Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982," Mr. Nofziger said. Fig. 1982, "Mr. Nofziger said. Fig.

The Democrats made more of it, charging Mr. Reagan with "reck-lessness" in having "sacrificed" 262 U.S. servicemen "in a bungled mission in Lebanon against the advice

By Richard Halloran

New York Times Service

nounced it will close its School of the Americas at Fort Gulick has taught Latin American officers basic military skills, tactics and doc-years on counterinsurgency tactics.

controls U.S. forces in Latin Amer-ma, announced Thorsday that

"Panama and the United States have been unable to conclude a mutually satisfactory agreement," and that the school would be relocated "to a new site to be deter-school was to be completed by Oct.

1, when Fort Gulick is to come trol provided that the authority of under Panamanian control

The Southern Command, which

Founded in 1946, the School of Panamanian.

A skydiver cut himself loose from two others after they became tangled on Saturday, but all fell to their deaths.

3 U.S. Skydivers Die as Lines Tangle During Exhibition at Colorado Fair

WHEAT RIDGE, Colorado - Three skydivers died after their lines tangled and they plunged to earth among bundreds of people at a The crowd "fell silent as they realized they were going down and nothing would stop them," J.R. Erickson, a photographer, said

"When they got close to the ground, about 300 feet or so, then it sunk in," Mr. Erickson said. "I didn't bear many comments.... It was almost like people were in shock, in disbelief that they were watching

A police spokesman said the three men, experienced members of a skydiving club, had been performing a maneuver in which the parachntists sit atop the canopy of the skydiver below them. The parachutes apparently became tangled and at least one of them collapsed, be said. One skydiver cut himself loose from the other two when they were closer than 1,000 feet (300 meters) to the ground. They landed in the middle of a block that bad been roped off to serve as the midway for a three-day festival at Wheat Ridge, just west

The police spokesman said 500 to 600 people were on the midway when the divers fell. Two were dead at the scene and the third died soon after being airlifted to a hospital.

Paramedics going to the scene in an ambulance found an entrance blocked by an illegally parked car, Mr. Erickson said, and "eight or nine men actually lifted it out of the way."

Court in U.S. Upholds Discharge From Navy For Homosexual Acts

By Stuart Taylor Jr.

New York Times Service
WASHINGTON — Ruling that "private, consensual bomosexual conduct is not constitutionally protected," a federal appeals court panel has upheld the U.S. Navy's discharge of a petty officer who acknowledged engaging in bomo-

Judge Robert H. Bork wrote for the unanimous three-judge panel that while several Supreme Court decisions had recognized a vaguely defined constitutional "right of privacy," the court "has never defined the right so broadly as to encompass homosexual conduct."

The 21-page ruling on Friday was the broadest and most ringing repudiation that a federal appeals court has given to the view of some libertarians that laws penalizing nosexual conduct are unconst

While some lower federal courts have suggested that private homosexual conduct enjoys a degree of constitutional protection, the Su-preme Court in 1976 affirmed a lower court decision suggesting the contrary. Because the Supreme Court has issued no opinion in the case, its importance as a precedent

Stepben V. Bomse, a San Francisco lawyer representing the petty officer in the case, James L. Dron-enburg, said Friday that be had not seen the court's opinion or spoken

"Assuming he wants to pursue it," Mr. Bomse said, "we will pursue it" by asking the full 11-judge U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia to rehear the time of his honorable discharge, Mr. Dronenburg first denied, but later acknowledged, allegations by a 19-year-old scaman recruit that earlier ruling by U.S. District Judge be repeatedly engaged in homosex-Oliver Gasch rejecting Mr. Dron-

The ruling is likely to fuel demands for state and federal legislation to protect homosexuals against discrimination.

Judge Bork noted that he had "an unblemished service record and job performance" in nine years as a Korean linguist and cryptographer with a top-security elegrance.

while attending the Defense Lan-guage Institute in Monterey, Cali-

After he was discharged, Mr. Dronenburg filed a lawsuit charging that the navy's policy mandat-ing discharge of all homosexuals violated his constitutional rights to privacy and to equal protection of Judge Bork stressed that "legislation may implement morality" in sexual matters and that the courts had no business creating new con-stitutional rights to engage in sexual activity.

Governmental penalties against omosexual conduct could logically be struck down, be said, only if any and all private sexual behavwas constituonnally protected, "a conclusion we are unwilling to Judge Bork's opinion did not dis-cuss whether private, consensual heterosexual activity would enjoy any special constitutional protec-tion in the military or elsewhere. Many states still have laws prohibiting certain beterosexual acts.

"If the revolution in sexual mores that appellant proclaims is in fact ever to arrive," Judge Bork wrote, "we think it must arrive through the moral choices of the people and their elected repres tatives, not through the judicial ukase of this court."

Judge Bork also said that there had been no equal protection violatinn because the navy policy "is plainly a rational means of advancing a legitimate, indeed a crucial, interest common to all our armed

The effects of bomosexual conduct within a naval or military unit are almost certain to be harmful to morale and discipline," he said.

He added that homosexual liaisons were sure "to call into ques-The case grew out of the 1981 don the even-handedness of superi-discharge of Mr. Dronenburg, ors dealings with lower ranks, to make personal dealings uncomfortable where the relationship is sexuearned many citations praising his ally ambiguous, to generate dislike and disapproval among many who find bomosexuality morally offensive, and, it must be said, given the A 27-year-old petty officer at the powers of military superiors over their inferiors, to enhance the possibility of homosexual seduction."

The panel's decision upbeld an ual conduct in a navy barracks cuburg's suit.

As he spoke, liberal and consercluding the president" need be vative party activists squared off bound by the document's proviover the platform, which bears the imprint of the party's most conser-Mr. Laxalt's effort to free the president and other Republican vative members.

AMERICAN TOPICS

New Yorkers Uneasy About Nuclear Ships

By Helen Dewar

and James R. Dickenson

cross fire over the 1984 Republican Party platform. Senator Paul Lax-

Reagan's campaign chairman, has declared that no officeholder "in-candidates from the most contro-

The U.S. Navy has at times met resistance in sending its nuclear-powered and nucleararmed ships into foreign ports. Now it may have to tangle with New York City.

There is growing unease in that city about the possible presence of nuclear weapons in its barbors — specifically, whether the USS lowa and its five escort ships will have atomie warheads aboard when they tie up at their new home port of Stapleton, Staten Island.

Only last year New York officials and politicians were rejoicing at the prospect of new jobs and the infusion of $500 million into the economy from the navy's decision to station the ships there by 1988.

Now, with constituents be-coming worried, 11 New York Democrats in the House have written an unusual letter to Navy Secretary John F. Lehman Jr. asking him to reconsider the Navy's long-standing nocomment policy on nuclear weaponry aboard its ships.

Absent from the signers were Representative Joseph P. Addabbu, chairman of the House appropriations subcommittee on defense, who played a leading role in getting the navy to ase the ships in New York harhors, and Representative Geraldine A. Ferraro, whose Oueens district stands to gain from conlated to the big naval presence.

Children Are Found Less Fit Than in '74

American children are flabbier and fatter than the young-sters of 10 years ago, according to the preliminary results of a nationwide youth fitness study.

A transfer of the second

The U.S. Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion surveyed a sample of 10,000 youngsters aged 10 to 18 for two years and found that most did not participate in daily physical education classes in

It also found that their classes stressed team sports rather than individual activities that would be likely to be kept up in

Notes on People

Governor Mario M. Cuomo of New York has been praised for soaring rhetoric in his keynote speech at the Democratic | national Association of Ice National Convention, but some | Cream Manufacturers over a point he made about them. Mr. Cuomo referred to the "abject poor of Essex County in New York" in his speech.

Gifford A. Cross, chairman of the Essex County Board of Supervisors, said that many county residents had listened to the address and then gone straight to the dictionary to look up abject, which means miscrable, wretched, degraded and lacking in self-respect. Mr. Cross, a Republican, maintained that Essex residents might not be rich but were proud of what they had. "We resented being called abject poor," be said. Mr. Cuomo flew to Essex County to John T. Dolan, the head of the National Conservative Political Actioo Committee, has told friends he plans to start a conservative polling operation. Mr. Dolan, who has said he will leave the committee after the November elections, is reported to believe that existing polls are too bberally oriented and that his new operation will "keep the others honest.

apologize.

Good and Bad News For Autoworkers

A recent national poll showing strong public support for preserving the jobs of workers in the U.S. automobile industry jobs also brought some uncomfortable news for the United Auto Workers, which commissioned the study.

The union was glad to see overwhelming public opposi-tion to automakers plans to build more small cars in Japan and South Korea for import into the United States. But there were less palatable results too: About 40 percent of the respondents said that American autoworkers were overpaid, 39 percent though their pay was about right and 51 percent believed that they "resist modern work practices and production methods that would make the industry more productive."

One-Liners

More than one out of every three babies born in New York City last year was born out of Bock, a ratio triple to that of 20 years ago, says the city health department... Sweet-toothed Americans downed 1.29 billion gallons of ice cream, sherbet, ices and other frozen desserts in 1983, says the Inter-mal opening of their convention on could lead to defeat of many Re-Monday.

"I think this platform represents publican candidates, possibly jeopardizing the party's control of the the concerns and aspirations of the Nevertheless, Mr. Leach and DALLAS - Amid continued party," Mr. Laxalt said on a television interview program. "That doesn't mean that everybody who lined in the Democratic platform were even worse and reaffirmed their support for Mr. Reagan. alt of Nevada, President Ronald is sitting in office, including the president, has to be locked in total-ly by the wishes of the party."

Conservative activists said they were pleased with the platform but feared that Mr. Reagan and other Republican leaders might "doublecross" them by reneging on the platform's pledge not to raise taxes. Representative Jim Leach of versial sections of the conservative Iowa, chairman of the Republican platform came Saturday as dele-Mainstream Committee, said the gates poured into town for the for- platform was so conservative it in framing the platform's provisions on taxes and other disputed "more populist than ideological."

Mr. Laxalt said the president left open the possibility of other tax increases. Noting that the Reagan administration is studying tax reform of any revenue increases.

issues ranging from women's rights —including its opposition to abortion and lack of support for the

In the Republican platform, the tion and lack of support for the proposed Equal Rights Amendment—to civil rights, the environtal importance" as an example to form to a takeover of the party by small and its people few."
"pseudo-Republicans of the radical For the Democrats, Green right," as former Representative John H. Buchanan Jr. of Alabama

Lyn Nofziger, a longtime friend and political adviser to the president, said Saturday he thought Mr. landing. Reagan would like the platform. Leban tougher than it was in 1981 and 1982," Mr. Nofziger said. "He'll work harder to get the growth of country.

government under control." The D But conservative activists continued to warn that Mr. Reagan might yet turn his back on the document. "I would not advise you to bet the farm that they are going to keep the promises in this platform any better than they did the last plat-form," said Richard A. Vignerie, chairman of the Populist Conserva-tive Tax Foundation. "If next January the Republican establishment goes ahead and sticks it to the taxpayers again, the GOP will be ripped apart. The anti-tax Republi-cans would consider it a doublecross of the highest order." He said that conservatives would conclude that there is no real differ- Soutbern Command bas an- two governments agreed otherwise, considered to bave violated buman ence between the parties and would support a third party instead. Anti-Reagan Rally

Several thousand opponents of

Mr. Reagan's policies staged a mi-lelong march and a raily Saturday, the Los Angeles Times reported from Dallas. The rally was sponsored by a trine, with an emphasis in recent coalition of liberal political groups called the Dallas March and Rally Committee. About 25 demonstrations are expected during the con- ica from its headquarters in Pana-

Pope Schedules Trip to Peru The Associated Press

LIMA — Pope John Paul II is mined." It said the closure of the expected to visit Peru early next school was to be completed by Oct. year, according to a Roman Catholic Church spokesman here who said the visit would include Lima, the port city of Callao and Arequi-

LOS ANGELES - The jury t stimmed prosecutors Thursday declaring millionaire former deal, they concluded that be had about the effects of publicity." M. Takasugi "was very concerned to when asked if pretrial publicity would affect his opinion. He said about the effects of publicity." that stunned prosecutors Thursday by government agents.

utomobile maker John Z. De Lorcan not guilty of drug conspiracy charges was selected with the help of professional jury consultants, a new, rapidly growing breed of experts whose work has begun to affect courts throughout the country.

The Dr. I response such as "You've read and heard a lot about this services can run as high as $1,500 a case, but what dn you think?"

day. On occasion, she offers her fully selected after a public opinion charge.

By Jay Mathews

poll and days of questioning by defense attorneys. Their verdict is expected to focus attention on the jury consultants and probably use of behavioral scientists in Cathy E. Bennett, a Houston jury and trial consultant who belped the De Lorean defense, said more than 100 professionals provide similar services throughout the United States. She rejects assump. tions that jurors from certain infor certain clients.

What you need to do is listen to what people say and look for those who are sensitive and will oot jump to conclusions," she said.

what people say and look for those would be most likely to give Mr. De Lorean a fair hearing.

Initially, Miss Bennett had called conventional courthouse wisdom 72 percent thought Mr. De Lorean that law enforcement officers or was guilty. their relatives always favor the ean's lawyers, said. Mr. Lahr, who of other jurors and asked openbecame the jury foreman, said ended questions to probe each per-Thursday that he had concluded son's willingness to set aside perwith the other jurors that "the government had not established its Mr. Re said it is unusual for

Military Training School in Panama

U.S. Defense Department nffinmanded by an American nr a

Reports from Panama quoted

President Jorge Illueca as saying

two weeks ago that the United States had violated the canal treaty

by granting American workers a special pay increase. He said then that control of Fort Gulick would Pentagon officials suggested that possible relocation sites included

Honduras, Puerto Rico, Florida or

Over the years, Latin American officers who met at the school had formed an "old-boy network" by which they communicated with each other informally despite dip-lomatic crises. U.S. officers looked in the 1970s enrollment at the

be taken by his government.

Georgia.

The 1977 treaty turning over the on the school as an instrument of Panama Canal to Panamanian con- American influence.

the United States to train Latin school fell because President Jim-American students at the school my Carter was critical of Latin

Will Be Relocated, U.S. Army Says

case beyond a reasonable doubt." federal judges with busy calendars been illegally lured into the Miss Bennett said she advises tions that would stimulate a many clients for free or for person-lengthy response, such as, "You've The De Lorean jurors were care- service to indigent defendants at no > they had never hired professional could not afford them if they wanted to hire them.

>
> After spending $60,000 on initial ootside jury consultants, Mr. De Lorean ran out of money and relied instead on the experience of his

"We got an unusually talented. come or ethnic groups will be best for certain clients.

sensitive jury," Mr. Re said, adding that he and Mr. Weitzman decided that well-educated professionals

o conclusions," she said.

In the De Lorean case, for inin a Duke University professor, stance, defense attorneys selected a John McConahay, to analyze a former California Highway Patrol officer, William Lahr despite the California residents showing that

"That convinced us that we had to spend a great deal of time and "His responses [to questions during the lengthy jury selection] indicated that he was very thoughtful," Donald M. Re, one of Mr. De Loring as length out of the hearing rights. But enrollment picked up of U.S. policies supporting authoritarian governments in Latin America have called the school a "train-

The reopening of the school

The Southern Command is beading center for dictators."

Central America.

New York Times Service LOS ANGELES - John Z. De Lorean, who was acquitted Thurs-day of federal drug charges, still faces an assortment of legal probduct in the defunct De Lorean Mo-

ed by a representative of the British government, is pursuing a civil action in Detroit in which Mr. De Lorean is accused of fraud, mismanagement and negligence in the operation of his sports car company in Northern Ireland. A grand Near Completion jury in Detroit is looking into many grand jury. However, the proceed-

Leonard Gilman, has refused to comment on the activities of the any improprieties. Mr. Weitzman accused the U.S. government of "persecuting" Mr. De Lorean and has suggested the possibility of a WASHINGTON - The U.S. would expire Sept. 30 unless the American governments that be

Mr. De Lorean founded the De the Americas in Panama on Sept. cials said that disagreement fo-30 after 38 years in which 44,000 cused on how the school was to be Latin American graduates of the Lorean Mntor Co. as a Michigan corporation in the 1970s and, beginning in 1978, obtained more than $100 millioo in financing from Latin American military officers operated and whether it would be school include four presidents and nine ehiels of armed forces. Critics the British government to build a sports car factory in Northern Ire-

According to a recent report by Parliament, the British subsidiary. De Lorean Motor Cars Ltd., rewould require new appropriations of money that would bring the ceived £77 million from the government. That amount is now equivaschool under the scrutiny of Conlent to about $101 million but in 1978 was worth substantially more.

In 1982, Mr. De Lorean was seeking a $30-million investment in an unsuccessful bid to keep the Science and National Development, regardless of its new locaulently diverted $17 million raised

De Lorean Trial Spotlights Jury Selectors' Role Some jurors said that, despite five to allow lengthy questioning of ju-hours of videotapes showing Mr. rors but U.S. District Judge Robert "no" when asked if pretrial publici-> also had to be careful to ask ques- but f think I can do it." Mr. Weitzman said that, after 20 years of questioning jurors, he relies heavily on his instincts, including bow jurors react to his jokes.

Federal prosecutors here said De Lorean Faces Probe Into Financial Dealings

id that attorneys

By Judith Cummings

lems related to his financial coning Cn. and other business

A committee of creditors, beadnf the same areas with regard to a criminal indictment.

ings were suspended pending the outcome of the Los Angeles drug The U.S. attorney in Detroit,

Mr. De Lorean's chief lawyer in denied that his client committed conspiracy with the British governed by General Paul F. Gorman, who has become influential in the Reagan administration's policy on factory open. While trying to raise money, he came under surveillance Colonel Michael J. Sierra, the by federal agents and was eventual-school's director, said recently that ly charged with conspiracy to distribute of the tribute 55 pounds (24.75 kilo-Pan-American Institute of Military grams) of cocaine. The ehief charge in the creditors' action is that Mr. De Lorean fraud-from investors for developing the De Lorean sports car. The suit con-tends that Mr. De Lorean used about half of that amount to buy for himself a Utah company that makes "snow-grooming" vehicles for ski resorts, the Logan Manufacturing Co. The creditors accused Mr. De Lorean of "looting" the Logan company and they have obtained a court order temporarily blocking riminal indigement.

Contadora Draft

Mr. De Lorean was the first witness subpoenaed in April by the PANAMA CITY — Representatives of the so-called Contadora group of nations met Saturday to continue work on a draft peace agreement for Central America, which is expected to be completed

A spokesman for the group said that officials from Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Honduras, El Salvador and Guatemala have studied the draft and that their comments would be the drug case, Howard L. Weitz-man, who is also representing the automobile maker in Detroit, has ministers. He said the comments received so far were favorable.

island of Contadora in January 1983 to try to find a peaceful solu-

by ordering direct from Antwerp the world's most important cutliamend market. Give diamond to the ones you love, buy for investment, for your enjoyment. Write airmail for free price list or call us:

Joachim Goldenstein diamantexport Established 1928 Pelikasostraat 62, B-2018 Antwerp Belgium - Tel.: (32.3) 234.07.51.

Telex: 71779 syl b. at the Diamond Club Bldg.

Gold Medal 1.5 max. m(1). collection, learner 4.6 color 1958 €€€€€€ ern speculation about the possibility of significant change in the Soviet empire.

real issue is the parties themselves.

change anywhere in the Soviet bloc.

party machines are the governments.

As long as they remain corrupt, undernocratic political machines, totally unresponsive to criticism or to the will of their own members, there can be no hope for meaningful

The Communist parties are far and away the most powerful elements in each of these societies. For all intents and purposes the

The party secretary at the local collective

Herald Cribune

More Presidential Jesting

Mr. Reagan's nuke 'em joke gets less funny as he continues to play around with it, and it was not much of a thigh-slapper to start with. On the contrary, his mike-testing crack about how he was going to bomb Russia in five minutes was a gross and disturbing mistake. Now the president (has someone counseled this as the way to dispose of it?) has made a second reference. Ho, ho -he advises a group with which be is meeting — he is going to a cabinet meeting but he is not going to order the bombing of Russia. Isn't that a scream?

Does Mr. Reagan grasp, even partially, what it is that is wrong when he sports with and giggles over this subject? Has he cootemplated the impression it gives? The impression, to be blunt about it, is of a man who considers this horrendous prerogative of the presidency to be a kind of perk of office, like the capacity to whistle up a limousine and a glass of lemonade, or a kind of toy that goes with the Oval Office - something, in other words, whose horror he does not really grasp.

Is this a wrong impression of Mr. Reagan? We think so, and God knows we hope so. But someone really needs to tell the president how this insensitive banter is striking others. What began as a very bad joke is beginning to say something more and something worse.

-THE WASHINGTON POST.

Back Among the Sweepers

The minesweeping operation that has just begun in the Red Sea offers an unsettling reminder of the variety of perils in international life today. We are all too accustomed to the depravations of lone gunmen or small teams of terrorists operating for their chosen ends. In this instance, however, commercial maritime traffic in one of the world's major waterways has been the target of a mysterious mining campaign that has damaged nearly 20 ships, of many nations, in barely a month's time.

No one has claimed responsibility for laying the mines, and no direct evidence has been found linking them to any particular source. Such a campaign, however, could only have been conducted by an entity with a certain naval capability; it lies well beyond the odd commando in a rubber raft. The prime suspects are Libya and Iran, which have the means and well earned reputations for contempt of the international rules - although exactly why either of them would want to be so indiscriminate in trying to terrorize the shipping of many nations has yet to be explained. In any event, the response of the affected countries has provided a model of friendly cooperation. Egypt asked for help in clearing what it regards as the international waterway clearing their territorial waters in the Red Sea. The United States, Britain and France, all pleased for their own reasons to be of service. have sent the appropriate minesweeping units that are on the job. Dozens of ships a day go through this vital passage, and so an unusually large number of countries share an interest in keeping it open — and in being seen to keep it open. Those who laid the mines should be under oo illusions that the international maritime community is without recourse.

Have you noticed that the United States, while playing its part in the mine clearing, is not out there in front making a big noise about the mine laying? Evidently it has occurred to American officials that just a few months ago they were themselves laying mines -- off Nicaragua. That operation, taking, as mines do, an indiscriminate toll of friendly as well as unfriendly vessels, turned out to be a political embarrassment to the Reagan administration, which ended it. Laying mines is, after all, an act of war. No nation, moreover, has a greater interest in the general freedom of the seas than the United States. It is good to see it back in the company of the sweepers.

- THE WASHINGTON POST.

A Moratorium for Whales

Japan appears ready to defy the impending moratorium on hunting whales, perhaps by accepting a committee's proposal to continue whaling in the guise of research, If so, Washington is legally bound to retaliate by halving Japan's permitted fish catch in U.S. waters.

Japan should stop hunting whales. But there is room for restraint in pressing America's views. When Commodore Perry ended Japan's seclusion in the 1350s, his aim was to get water and coal stations for American whalers, who had already depleted Japan's seas. And it was General MacArthur who ordered Japan to resume Antarctic whaling after World War II.

Along with other nations, Japan joined in hunting one species after another to the brink of extinction. Too little, too late, the International Whaling Commission moved to protect the threatened species and reduced the quotas of those still hunted. But stocks did not seem to recover as quickly as expected. In 1982 the commission recommended a five-year moratorium on all commercial whaling, starting in 1986. That was a shock for a country that depends on the seas for its protein.

Japan's deep-sea fish catch has declined by a third in the last 10 years because of the 200-mile exclusive fishing zones claimed by many countries. To the Japanese, the moratorium seemed unscientific: It came not from the commission's scientific advisory committee but from the commission itself, swollen with new member states that have no whaling fleets. It also changed the rules in mid-game, since Japan had accepted the smaller quotas and reduced its whaling fleet in the expectation that some whaling would continue.

It is true that the rules have been changed, but for good reason. Biologists on the International Whaling Commission began by assuming that whales, like fish stocks, could recover from overhunting. But the methodology of fisheries does not seem to work so well for whales. Depleted stocks apparently do oot bounce back, perhaps because whales, as mammals with a more complex social structure than fish, are more traumatized by violent hunting. Whales are wild creatures, not bred for slaughter, and well endowed with intelligence. Even if some catch could be sustained. their strangeness and songs set them apart, and there are no humane ways to kill them. Japan should accept the moratorium.

- THE NEW YORK TIMES.

Other Opinion

Mr. Reagan's 'Awful Remark'

One of President Reagan's more likable traits is undoubtedly his sense of humor. But please, Mr. President, just be a little more careful what you joke about in the future. - The Bangkok Post.

Is a glimpse of the off-the-air, jocular Reagan a glimpse of something more or less real, more or less instructive than the on-the-air, onthe-level, regular guy that follows? - The Times (London).

"We begin bombing in five minutes." It is difficult to know how to react to this awful remark. Moscow has no problems: The president's gaffe to them reveals the true Reagan so artfully concealed by the fast footwork of his staff. His protestations about peace are the merest facade behind which lurks a rabidly right-wing and rather foolish old man.

The president's immediate advisers are less concerned. Only a man at ease with himself would make a joke about something as borrible as nuclear war, and America is tired of presidents who moan about the burdens of office. There is something in this, but not much. Without getting too pompous about it, Mr. Reagan's joke emphasizes the huge psychic distance between [him] and the Russians. That he can joke about bombing the Russians illustrates the frightening gap in personal knowledge between the superpowers.

Even if the jokes a man makes do reveal his character, one should beware of making too much of an unguarded comment which was probably designed to ease tensions in the re-cording studio. But President Reagan might be well advised to look elsewhere for his jokes. - The Observer (London).

If the Soviets Want Americans

In an unusual move, the State Department has issued a "travel advisory" warning U.S. citizens that they may face harassment if they travel to Leningrad. The warning certainly was justified. If the Soviets want Americans to continue visiting their country, all they have to do is start behaving as if Americans were welcome there. Hauling them off for questioning, inflicting physical violence or preventing them from talking to people they meet during their visits is hardly hospitality.

- The Rocky Mountain News (Denver).

FROM OUR AUG. 20 PAGES, 75 AND 50 YEARS AGO

1909: A Color Bar in South Africa LONDON —The "Morning Post," discussing the color bar in South Africa, remarks: "Uodoubtedly the vast majority of Englishmen sincerely regret that the National Convention in South Africa did not see its way to adopting the Cape principle of equal rights for all men, which is in accord with British traditions, and which the present [British] Government, before it had begun to think about South African union, was wont to regard as fundamentally important. The sacrifice of this principle began with the terms of surrender at Vereeniging, when this country agreed to the stipulation of the Boers that natives should oot be enfranchised before self-government was conferred."

1934: Cagney Fights Communist Tag SACRAMENTO, California — Charges that James Cagney, film star, contributed sums of money to the Communist movement here brought denial from Hollywood [on Aug. 19]. The charges were based on letters seized in a raid on the local Communists' headquarters. One letter read: "I have Cagney's money again. Cagney was fine this time and is going to bring other stars up to talk about Commu-nism." Cagney has said, "I am proud to call myself a 100-per cent American. I started with nothing and worked hard. Today I am comfortable and I believe that nowhere else in the world is there the same glorious opportunity for anyone willing to work hard."

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE JOHN HAY WHITNEY, Chairman 1958-1982

KATHARINE GRAHAM, WILLIAM S. PALEY, ARTHUR OCHS SULZBERGER

LEE W. HUEBNER, Publishe RENE BONDY
ALAIN LECOUR
FRANÇOIS DESMAISONS
RICHARD H. MORGAN
STEPHAN W. CONAWAY
Director of Operations
Director of Operations
Director of Operations Executive Editor
Editor
Deputy Editor WALTER WELLS ROBERT K. McCABE SAMUEL ABT CARL GEWIRTZ

International Herald Tribune, 181 Avenue Charles-de-Gaulle, 92200 Nenilly-sur-Seine, France, Telephone: 747-1265, Telex: 612718 (Herald), Cables Herald Paris. France. Telephone: 141-1205. ISBN: 012116 (Hermal), Capites Herman Parks.

Directeur de la publication: Walter N. Thayer.

Asia Headquarters, 24-34 Hennessy Rd., Hong Kong, Tel. 5-285618. Telex 61170.

Managing Dir. U.K.: Robin MacKichan, 63 Long Acre, Lundon W.C. Tel. 836-4802. Telex 263009.

S.A. au capital de 1.200.000 F. RCS Nanterre B 732021136. Commission Paritaire No. 34231.

U.S. subscription: $280 yearly. Second-class postage paid at Long Island City, N.Y. 11101.

© 1934, International Herald Tribune. All rights reserved.

Communist Parties in Power: Totally Unresponsive

By Franz Loeser

COLOGNE — East Germany's recent efforts to improve its relations with West Germany, and signs of confusion in the The writer was first secretary of the Communist Party at Humboldt University in Berlin for many years and was for the last 20 years a member of the presidium of the East German Peace Council. This is the first of three articles. Kremlin over how to deal with these overtures, have produced another round of West-

farm or factory is the real boss, not the factory director or the agricultural expert.

Party membership is a requirement for holding virtually all good jobs, from plant It has been suggested that a new, pragmatic eneration of Communist leaders is waiting in manager to university professor. A party reprimand can be a worse blot on a member's the wings in Moscow and other East European capitals, ready to seek closer relations with career than a court conviction. the West, make economic reforms and even allow a period of political "liberalization."

A few powerful bosses control everything. Party members have little or no say in the election of the leaders, or in the direction in Such speculation completely misses the point. The issue in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe is not whether Communist which the bosses choose to take society. parties will finally adopt measures to solve the grave problems facing their societies. The That is at the root of East Europe's problems, as I can attest from personal experience.

> In 1939, aged 14, 1 fled from my German homeland to escape Nazism. After serving in the British army in World War II, I came to the United States to study. In 1952, dismayed by McCarthyism and fearing another holo-caust of the kind that I, a Jew, had narrowly escaped, I left and soon moved to East Germany, where I thought I could help build a new, democratic socialist society.

I rose in the system, becoming a senior member of the East German Communist Party, chairman of the department of artificial intelligence at Berlin's Humboldt University and finally professor emeritus. I was honored with medals from my government and trusted to represent East Germany in international confecences abroad. Many of my books and articles were published.

NAME OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

Last year, while on a government-approved trip to the United States, I left all this behind and applied for political asylum. The East German government accused me of being a traitor, but in my opinion the real traitors are the party bosses back in East Germany. To be sure, communism bas achieved a great deal in East Germany. There are an impressive system of free health care, high educational standards, full employment and a large measure of real equality between the sexes. Anti-Semitism has been almost completely eliminated.

But how does one explain that none of West Germany's millions of unemployed choose to move to East Germany, where they could easily find employment? Why is it still necessary for East Germany to physically prevent the departure of its own citizens with barbed wire and a wall that stretches the length of the country's border with the West? Why are young people, who without ques-tion benefit most from the considerable opportunities and welfare measures, disenchanted? Why are many of them turning away from Marxism and seeking hope in the churches? This complex crisis can hest be understood by analyzing the gap between the party's rhetoric and the reality of Communist life.

In February 1983, Yuri Andropov pro-claimed that the Soviet Union had entered a period of perfecting "developed socialism"— that is, it was well along in the transition to the kind of society envisioned by Karl Marx.

According to Marx, in a Communist society the state and bureaucracy would have withered away," material goods, scientific knowledge and cultural ideas would be abundant and freedom and democracy would be well established. Now there is hardly another state in the world in which bureaucracy, autocracy and absolute power are so deeply entrenched as in the Soviet Union. To understand Mr. Andropov, it is necessary to under-stand the political atmosphere at the top of all present-day Communist governments.

The Washington Past.

A Riddle for Republicans: What Is Majority Politics?

Moderates Must Not Be Scared Away

By David Gergen

The writer resigned last January as communications director in the Reagan White House. The Reagan personality is a major the difference. Moderates say that it has been his performance in office

Mr. Reagan entered the 1980 campaign with a well developed set of ideas on domestic policy that had been stirring in conservative think tanks and intellectual journals. They made a springboard for his election

A weakness of the Reagan cam-paign is that it still lives off 1980 ideas. There has been no infusion of new thinking, and no apparent agen-

The fact is that conservatives continue to be in the vanguard of fresh, creative thinking. Men like Mr. Kemp and Senator Bob Kasten of Wisconsin have pushed forward the concept of a flat tax so successfully that it was embraced by the platform committee last week. Mr. Gingrich has published a book, "Window of Opportunity," that tries to bring the potential of computers, biology and Come on men!

We can still head 3

the varmints of

da for the second term.

and a foundation for his first term.

that has counted. Both are right.

DALLAS — Republicans ought to he meeting here this week in spirit of celebration. Not since Dwight Eisenhower cruised to victory in 1956 has an incumbent party had such a good story to tell of peace and prosperity. America's guns are silent, inflation has returned to normalcy — at least for now — and the economy is expanding so rapidly that in one month this spring it created as many jobs as did the European Community in the past 10 years.

Why then are many Republican leaders on edge? Why so nervous about the autumn? And so wary of each other? There are many answers, and all of them underscore the kind of challenge that Dallas represents. In part, Republican strategists are worried about a rapid change of momentum this summer. Six weeks ago Walter Mondale was on the ropes, but then he had a string of successes - Geraldine Ferraro, San Francisco, taxes — that set the Reaganites back oo their heels. Suddenly, November was no longer a sure thing.

Ronald Reagan has rebuilt his commanding lead—15 points by one national survey— but can it slip away again? No one knows, and that is a source of concern. If the race tightens, as his advisers expect, Mr. Reagan's coattails could prove short. As many as eight Republican senators are now caught in tough re-election races. Unless he wins big there could be further erosion in the House, where he oeeds to build another working coalition.

There is a difference between Reagan and the Republican Party.

Beyond immediate concerns there is the future. Privately, Republican leaders now talk a good deal about the post-Reagan era and are beginning to jockey for succession.

Thus younger conservative leaders of the House, like Jack Kemp of New York and Newt Gingrich of Georgia, show no enthusiasm for cooperating with Senator Robert Dole of Kansas, because they foresee the prospects of serious conflict ahead. Party moderates like Representative Olympia Snowe of Maine openly grumble about the heavy rightward tilt of the platform. Even George Bush, who has polished his conservative credentials for four years, has felt anonymous attacks by Reaganites who would like him to get lost in 1988.

The New Right vs. the Old Right, conservatives vs. pragmatists, sup-ply-siders vs. monetarists, social vs. economic conservatives, what's left of the Rockefeller wing vs. everybody else — the conflicts are of every stripe. While not as deep as in an earlier era, they will all be roiling just below the surface in Dallas.

But most voters could care less about Republican internecine feuds. What they want is a straightforward, focused campaign, and then they want leaders who can effectively govern over the next four years. All this suggests what the Republi-can Party must do in Dallas to have a

• Put 1988 on hold. Convention planners like Senator Paul Laxalt of Nevada saw long ago that the con-vention would be a good chance to feature some of the party's coming attractions. The question remains whether these speakers, and their followers, recognize that the first order of business is 1984 and not 1988. If Republicans keep their wits, their overtiding objective over the next 10 weeks will be a Reagan landslide, so that he can sail in and pull others into the next Congress. Then the party must turn to the more difficult task of helping him govern successfully in his second term. Both objectives require the unity that the party displayed in the early 1980s. If the succession struggle breaks out too soon, everyone will lose and the 1988 nomination will not be worth much. • Learn from the past. A closely related goal in Dallas is to come fully to terms with Reaganism.

There is a difference between the man and his party. One is a dominant force in American politics; the other remains a distinct minority. The party must learn how to translate Reaanism into Republicanism, making the two synonymous so that the popularity of the man will live on as the popularity of his party.

factor, but conservatives argue that the power of his ideas has also made party must encourage such thinking. But conservatives must see that the president's more moderate advisers, in and out of the White House, have also been a key to his success. They, more than anyone else, have figured out how to guide the Reagan program to victory on Capitol Hill.

As much as conservatives dislike it, moderates have kept the party closer to the political mainstream in which most Americans live. If the Republican Party ever goes off the deep end, especially on religious and moral issues (there were signs as the platform was drafted), then it can abandon hope of becoming a majority party. Ronald Reagan has succeeded be-cause he instinctively knows that various factions within the party need each other, and he has forced them to work together. A key question in Dallas is whether they will finally recognize this and reaffirm their commitment not just to him, but to each other. If so, it could he a good time for a Grand Old Party.

Los Angeles Times.

Which varaints is that, Ron?

Conservatives Are Bitter

By Howard Phillips

The writer is chairman of the Conservative Caucus, a lobbying group.

WASHINGTON — The Repubspace into the political world. The lican Party may have missed its rendezvous with history.

For 1g years now, an anti-liberal electoral majority io America has been waiting for leadership, waiting for a chance to provide a genuine alternative to the failed left-wing dogmatism of the New Deal and the Great Society. Ronald Reagan and the Republicans have not yet provided that alternative, raising serious questions for populist conservatives. The anti-liberal majority began to emerge in the 1966 congressional elections. It grew stronger in 1968 when 14 percent of voters backed George Wallace and 43 percent Richard Nixon, rejecting Lyndon John-son's no-win strategy in Vietnam and his candidate, Hubert Humphrey. President Nixon was a disappointment to us. Although elected on a wave of anti-establishment sentiment, he toadied to the financial centers that profited from détente with the Communist enemy and to interest groups nourished by the bureaucratic patronage of the Great Society.

The Reagan Gang

Mr. Nixon expanded many Great Society programs and presided over a dramatic shift in the "correlation of forces" to the advantage of the Soviets. Having no strong challengers to his right when he ran for re-election in 1972, he felt no need to justify any of this. In the end, it was his failure to implement the populist conservative aspirations of those who elected him that enabled the liberal establishment to dump him and defeat his party to the 1974 congressional elections.

. The anti-liberal majority had not disappeared, bot the debate that year was not about the issues that roused it. The Republican Party permitted the liberals to change the subject to Watergate, and quite predictably wound up on the wrong side of that year's referendum on corruption.

Jimmy Carter understood the anti-Washington dynamics of the anti-liberal majority. He would never have been elected without strong conservative symbolism, including his reputed experience in reorganizing bureaucracy and balancing budgets. He presented himself as a farmer, a small businessman and a nuclear engineer strongly rooted in the nation's most conservative region. His election strategy depended on conservative voters dislike of Gerald Ford's liberal approach to social issues such as the Equal Rights Amendment and abortion, and on the enthusiasm of millions of born again Christians.

The anti-liberal majority built up a new head of steam during the Carter presidency. Ronald Reagan rhetori-cally stoked its fires, and it began in 1978. In 1980 it defeated 13 more, as Mr. Reagan swept into office oo a wave of populist conservative energy - a flurry of state anti-tax referendums, the burgeoning of the right-tolife movement, the organization of the Christian right and a nationwide grass-roots campaign against the Panama Canal treaties and SALT-2.

Unfortunately, in office Mr. Reagan has also disappointed. Like Mr. Nixon and Mr. Ford, he has substantively abandoned his Main Street constituency and embraced his party's Wall Street wing.

Consider the Reagan record: the technology transfers and taxpayersubsidized bank credits for Communist China; adherence to the unrati-fied SALT-2 accord; the biggest tax increases in American history (federal revenues rose from $517 billion in 1980 to $745 billion in fiscal 1985); a $8.4-billion bailout for the IMF, business as usual in response to the downing of the South Korean airliner; economic aid to Soviet-bloc dictatorships; assaults on religious liberty and academic freedom; increased spending on Great Society programs that fund the left, and the doubling of the national debt. With the exception of the Grenada rescue mission, Mr. Reagan has pursued a no-win strategy in Central America.

I hope Mr. Reagan is re-elected, since Mr. Mondale would be worse. But as a conservative I reject the notion that our role in American politics is to "lose as slowly as possible." I look forward to the time when we can implement our own agenda. We are tired of playing disappointed critics of a two-party liberal regime against which, for nearly 20 years, a majority of Americans has been voting.

The hour is very late for the Re-publican Party. Two decades is a long time to make the anti-liberal majority wait. If, as many predict, 1986 brings economic hard times and a prospect of Republican defeat, populist conservatives may go elsewhere. We may decide to bolster our strength in Congress by directing resources to anti-establishment candidates who are neither Democrats nor Republicans. The New York Times.

A Warning: Reagan Is Over the Hill ment than in his ideological image. He seems to believe that his flag-By John B. Oakes

N EW YORK — The tasteless joke" that Ronald Reagan dropped on Ang. 11 while testing his voice prior to a radio broadcast strips away his protective cover of press agentry and reveals him naked to the American people.

What President Reagan said was not intended to be taken seriously,

His advisers should urge him to withdraw before the election.

much less reported and repeated around the globe. Of course not. But that is exactly the point. The words that came to him spontaneously, instead of the normal "5-4-3-2-1," or "It's a nice day today," exposed Mr. Reagan's mental set, his imprompti, perhaps even involuntary thought processes.

"My fellow Americans," he said, "I am pleased to tell you I just signed legislation which outlaws Russia forever." And he culminated that obvious expression of wish fulfillment with the howling one-liner: "We begin bombing in five minutes." To dismiss this off-the-cuff humor as mere presidential playfulness is as great an error as to claim that it proves Mr. Reagan to be a nuclearwarmonger. It is not necessary to go to either extreme. What Mr. Reagan's little joke reflects is an instinctive feeling that the only good Russian is a dead Russian a rather dangerous sentiment to be boiling along under the presidential skin in this hair-trigger age. What it also suggests is an innate lack of a sense of presidential responsibility, a failure to recognize that every word and gesture of the presi-dent of the United States has the power to move the world. This failure stems not from humility or modesty but rather from their opposite. It stems from an arrogance that disregards completely the effects of careless or thoughtless remarks on on other countries.

It is a "couldn't eare less" approach that is becoming increas-ingly evident with the president's advancing years. Whatever its cause, it can no longer be successfully con-cealed by the protective screen of high-level image-makers and high-priced cosmetic dispensers at the White House's command. Not even his worst enemy would seriously claim that Mr. Reagan would think, on reflection, that bombing the Russians is a joking matter. What gives pause is that he would make such an idiotic statement without reflection. That is the key to the alarm felt in every corner of the globe after his offhand (and theoretically off-the-record) comment. If this kind of remark could spring from him on the spur of the moment, what kind of reaction could be expected of him in a real crisis when decisions affecting the survival of the world might have to be made in a matter of minutes? What confidence can the American public have in a man of such shallow, rash and superficial judgment, especially one who has given increasing evidence in recent months of a growing inability to cope with the realities of domestic and foreign policy?

From the most aggressive jingoism in Central America to his total confusion over tax policy; from gross fantasies on population control to his repeated dissimulation on arms control: from sudden interest in the environment, after sabotaging it during the first three years, to sudden concern for the working poor, after sabo-taging them for the first three years in all this Mr. Reagan shows less waving, moralizing religiosity can be a substitute for the thoughtful deliberation of which he is evidently no longer capable — if he ever was. other people and — if you happen to

In a recent incident at Mr. Reabe president of the United States — gan's ranch, a reporter asked him a question about the prospects for talks with the Soviet Union about controlling weapons in outer space. He smiled; his wife prompted him, and he mindlessly repeated the vacuous phrase she supplied. When a presi-dent comes to that on a subject such as this, it is time to call it quits. If Mr. Reagan's closest advisers were sincerely interested in protecting the president as well as the presidency, they would recognize that he is not up to running the White House

> - rather than after it, as some observers predict be is likely to do. If, bowever, the Republican Party does succeed in propping him up through the election, and if this is the kind of president the American people choose, then we should be singing in the next four years not "God Bless America" but "God Help America." The New York Times.

for four more years. They would urge him to withdraw before the election

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Reagan's Joke Falls Flat In response to the news report "Rea-gam, in a Radio Test, Joked of Attack on Soviet" (Aug. 14):

With all due respect to the presi-dent of the United States, this presidential humor is madness. And he is one of the most powerful men on Earth, who may shape world history as my grandchildren here in little Europe will experience it!

C. KOLFF BREYMANN, Chardonne, Switzerland, During his radio test, President Reagan might have tried a different joke: "My fellow Americans, I am pleased to tell you I just signed a friendship pact with the Russians. Negotiations for the elimination of ouclear, chemical and biological weapons begin in five minutes." LISA SCHLEIN

Rights for Turks, Too Regarding "Rights in Turkey: A Government on the Right Track" (Aug. 13) by Elliot Abrams:

It is really a pity that human rights can be treated in such light fashion by (Continued on Page 5)

appropriate the stage confidence of the stage confidence of the stage Tugare into a little grade. The second second second of $ 200 min to the total of of the second of the feet 🛦 Transport of the state of the s Bowlin form on NE may be bet The state of the s the board in the format of there a Charles of the separate T- ____ 1. 1. N. N. 1. 1. 1 months to the Manager of the Artist the

144

1. O. W.

 $x_{i,1}, y_{i+1}, \dots, y_{i}$

- 14 -

Jan 4 400 3

1

100

179

Acres V. St.

1.20

 179#

ni na W

17379

1. 475.186

Land Congress &

weie Micrelianteritation committee areas of

Statement of the bearing which is the codered Authorities and toggand There is believed that Watergate Hearings State the Land of the

to the or Parish Has Statement South Statement become a seconded thugs the state of the state Total his resistantly 18 Samuel feine feine bentmass The diner must end be White Street of Lower and and water of the dense Spenden aler in all "Le. Of Glory of the action

STEPHEN ! LACORS. LEALLY The state of the second All to the second secon tal Return Steer was new hard by Philippers where he The property of the said and

Paris de la la la la companya de la companya del companya de la companya de la companya del companya de la comp A but the transmit of the straight The state of the s State Spirit Weight and the Vistadam The state of the s and the new speak line property and the STRNI WILSA

South, links

صكدًا من الاعل

VUnresponsite

rite Politica

LETTERS

(Continued from Page 4) such an important person. According to Mr. Abrams, "Turkey is not Sweden, nor should we expect it to be." In other words, developing countries deserve no more than second-class democracy.

If every time one complains of torture and bad prison conditions one is going to get the answer that it has always been like that in Turkey, where can this lead one to?

A Turkish dictum says: "When you stand far away from it, the drum sounds very pleasant."

AHMET KOKSAL

Rabbi Lamm Replies

Regarding the opinion column "A Change of System for Israel" (July 30) by Flora Lewis: I am accused by Flora Lewis of appealing for compassion for Jew-ish "terrorists" on the grounds that they are "patriotic, religious peo-ple." She argues that this is "unworthy of any American" and compares my reasoning to that of Ayatollah Khomeini.

What I pleaded for in a lengthy address is that we not judge a trial that is sub judice. But "burn the witches" is simpler than "innocent until proven guilty."

ists. They are not thugs, inren guns, frenzied teen-agers, zealots who think they are setting the world think they are setting the world These men are not typical terror-ists. They are not thugs, hired guns, aright with their heaven-based ideals. I know these men personally. They are believers, but not Godpushers; they are struggling to pro-tect wives at home and children on school buses. They will not move out of their "own" land and will not submit to mayors who incite mob riots, and they have no government protection.

They are decent and for the most part reasonable men. If proved guilty, they will have committed crimes such as may oever be tolerated — but they are not yet guilty. And is their past record as decent and honorable people of nn conse-quence? Why should Flora Lewis find it so shocking for an American to plead compassion for the families — 13 pregnant women and 126 children? If the courts find the men guilty, then they should be pun-ished. Until then, I ask that we refrain from prejudging them. If that is un-American, I plead guilty.

Rabbi MAURICE LAMM. Los Angeles.

Olympic Afterthoughts

The press and television treated us to a most exciting two weeks of Olympie competition, and those of us io Europe who staggered through the days following our nightly vigils felt rewarded by the superb coverage. But the Mary Decker-Zola Budd incident did insert a bit of a sour note.

I felt real shame at the booing of Bodd which followed Decker's pic Games were too important for tragic fall. Decker's stature as a name is quite secure. Her grace.

The "original Olympic spirit" is runner is ouite secure. Her grace however, leaves something to be a modern notion. desired. As for her "courageous oews conference," I would suggest that, to observe some courage, she get an old film clip of Finland's Lasse Viron crashing to the track just 700 meters from the finish of the 10,000-meter final in Munich in 1972. He got up, ran on and won the race, I stood with 70,000 others in that crowd and cheered him past my own countrymen.

FRED A KING. Anobes, France.

Your pictures (Aug. 13) of the Decker-Budd collision do indeed tell a tale. In picture one, look at the position of Budd's left leg and the expression on Decker's face.

Budd is obviously not "moving in" on Decker. Decker is moving up on Budd and getting a bit physical in the process. In picture two, look at the expression on Budd's face and at the positions of the left legs of both runners. Decker claimed she was tripped, but what kind of a would account for the extended position of her left leg?

What would cause a superbly conditioned athlete like Decker to hit the turf like a sack of cement? Even ice-skaters don't fall like that — unless they snag a blade. What it looks like to me is that Decker's spikes hit Budd's left heel, and when Budd raised her left leg she carried Decker's left leg with it. That is not exactly "tripping."
All this should make Budd wiser.

DAVID YUHAS. Stockholm.

Your Olympic medals table Your Olympic medals table (Aug. 14) arrives at its totals by adding gold, silver and bronze medals together without regard for the fact that gold is better than silver, which in turn is better than bronze. If one rectifies this by counting three points for a gold medal, two for a silver and one for a bronze, China (with 32 medals and 70 points), Italy (32 and 65) and Japan (32 and 60) would all finish higher than Britism (37 and 57). higher than Britism (37 and 57). Yugoslavia (18 and 36) would pre-cede Sweden (19 and 34), and New Zealand (11 and 28) would finish higher than the Netherlands (13

It is with more nostalgia than accuracy that Flora Lewis (in "Olympic Detour: Moscow, Los An-geles and So On." July 27) laments the nationalism of the Olympics and hopes for the suppression of national flags, anthems and teams. She recalls the "nriginal Olympic spirit," providing for a truce to cel-ebrate individual athletes, and calls for returning the competition to and 25) and Finland (13 and 24).

MICHAEL C. MCPEAK.

sport for sport's sake. In fact, the Olympics — part of one of the four Panhellenic Festivals, the most important religious celebrations in ancient Greece celebrated Zeus, not athletes. The military truce abserved was for the sake of Zeus, not sport, Athletes and events were as na tionalistic as a group of fiercely competitive city-states could make them. Each athlete competed for his city, which selected him and paid for training. If he won, the city feted his victory and gave him power, prestige, rank (several became generals) and money — often lots of it. No sentimental stuff about playing the game for its own sake. Many events were inspired by that most nationalistic of events, war -- foot racing in armor, javelin throwing and, most prestigious of all, the four-horse charlot race.

MEL A. TOPF. Bristol, Rhode Island.

Flora Lewis's proposals for "re-versing the tide of nationalism" in the Olympics are far too modest. If we truly wished to climinate nationalism from the Games, we would emulate the ancient Greeks and require athletes to compete in the nude. This would have dire consequences for sporting goods man-ufacturers, but it could lead ultimately to the end of politics in the Olympics, Commies and supply-siders being fundamentally indis-tinguishable in their birthday suits.

T. KRUGMAN, M. NIXON.

'The Watergate Hearings Told Us Everything'

Regarding the Aug. 6 report "In I find these attempts to 10 Years, Nixon the Pariah Has Richard Nixon appalling. Become Nixon the Statesman":

He who once commanded thuss to assault citizens (read the transcripts) and has belligerently refused to show the slightest remorse for multiple crimes must not be allowed to represent the American people or its system of free demorratic government, even as an "experienced elder statesman."

STEPHEN T. JACOBS.

Regarding the opinion columns by Raymond K. Price (Aug. 8 and 9) in raise of the Nixon presidency:

Indeed, Richard Nixon was not 'paralyzed by propriety" when he riminally misused the judicial and electoral systems to ensure re-elec-ion. Mr. Price no doubt considers his subversion of the democratic process to be admirable.

VINCENT O'MALLEY. Amsterdam.

Mr. Price's "morality of coasepences" sounds like newspeak for nds justifying means.

BERNE WEISS.

KELLOG SMITH.

I find these attempts to canonize

Miradoux, France.

The effort to rehabilitate Mr. Nixon is pathetic. Not a single responsible journalist has stepped forward to answer Anthony Lewis's commentary. The International Herald Tribune obviously had to scrape the bottom of the barrel to find a former Nixon employee who didn't get sent to jail to do the job. ELWOOD A. RICKLESS.

London. Regarding Anthony Lewis's col-mn "A Morbidly Insecure, Lawless

Hater' Takes the PR Route to Rehabilitation" (Aug. 8): Anthony Lewis makes a totally biased and very shoddy attempt in furthering the disgrace that Mr. Nixon went through in 1974. I beieve the man was one of the best U.S. presidents of the century.

ROGER J. NIXON. Littlehampton, England.

Reading Anthony Lewis's latest venom on the subject of Richard Nixon, whom this columnist seems determined to hound to the grave, I cannot help wondering whether these attacks are meant to serve as the British government's embargo a smokescreen for Mr. Lewis's guilt complexes. A clue is to be found in the writer's condemnation of Mr. Nixon's role in the Vietnam War. The relevant paragraph studiously avoids any mention of the atrocities perpetrated by Communist forces after the U.S. pullout, hor-rors that liberals like Mr. Lewis are reluctant to acknowledge but for which they are forever morally responsible. Decidedly, the lady doth protest too much.

> PAUL MAGLIONE Geneva.

ing civilian planes while off duty.

The single-engined, turboprop
Pilatus PC-7 planes, which are classified as civilian aircraft, have been I agree wholeheartedly with Anthony Lewis. Why should the press revive this man? We have nothing more to learn. The Watergate hearings told us everything.

RONALD GIGUERE.

Police in Lima used a water cannon Friday to break up demonstration protesting the disappearance of a journalist reporting from rebel strongholds east of the capital, where government forces have stepped up their counterattacks.

Peru Steps Up Drive Against Peasant Insurgents

New York Times Service AYACUCHO, Peru — Government security forces have intensified their campaign against leftist guernillas in this Andean region, according to military and police

They say their strategy includes the use of terror tactics, stepped-up formation of peasant militia forces to help resist the guerrillas, the control of information and the spreading of false reports to confuse the insurgents as well as the peasants in

Other Peruvian sources say the armed forces and the police are increasingly resorting to kidnap-pings, torture and executions in their fight against the guerrillas, who are members of a Maoist revolutionary group known as Sendero Luminoso, or Shining Path.

In a recent interview, President Fernandn Belannde Terry denied ots" for the guerrillas.

Judicial and church sources said the government-approved violence has become worse since mid-July, when the armed forces were given unlimited control over 13 provinces in an emergency zone in the central mountains east of Lima.

In this war, in which both the guerrillas and the security forces reportedly often kill civilians, people concerned with buman rights say it is difficult to say just who is to blame for the mounting death toll, put at close to 2,700 in 1983. Killings often happen in communi-ties inaccessible by road and with only rare contact with larger towns.

In the last two months more than 100 bodies have been found around Ayacuebn and Huanta, and church, local police and judiciary sources blamed security forces for the deaths. In many cases, relatives reports of growing human rights said the victims were pulled from violations, including executions, by their homes or picked up by uni-the police and military, He said the formed soldiers using ufficial vehi-charges came from "ingenuous in-

The bodies, many of them show-ing signs of torture and mutilation, and that soldiers using trucks or were left in fields or by the road-helicopters have abducted peas-

A government counterinsurpurpose in leaving bodies on public police. display. "This raises doubt about In the who did it and intimidates and dis-

deaths in the area. Since they announced their campaign of vio-lence four years ago, they have re-portedly killed 122 police officers and an undetermined oumber of civilians suspected of being infor-

The government, apparently taking advantage of Shining Path's violent image, has accused the guerand as many missing in the last twn rillas of most of the killings in the region. But this propaganda effort is complicated by continuing reports that people are found dead most many missing in the rast twi amonths," she said.

Mrs. Zamora said the commanding the Third World", said Cristian Maquieira, the spokesman for the Third World's Group of 77.

Earlier, in a statement to the meet-

Last week the tortured body of gency expert who insisted on remaining anonymous acknowledged the security forces had a double days after he was arrested by the

In the towns of Ayacucho and Huanta, anxious relatives looking suades people," he said. "The idea for missing family members appear is to reduce the terrorists to their around the clock outside the offices hard core by using greater terror."

Shining Path guerrillas have also blamed for many of the deaths in the area Since that are supported to their mining companies to explore alone, thus denying the United Nations essential Western funds and mining technology. Under the deaths in the area Since that are were repeated last week on a tour of other villages in the mountains behind Ayacucho.

The mayor of Ayacucho, Leonor Zamora, said she had visited the latest in a series of attempts by the local army commander several times "to ask him when this killing

Salvadoran Rights Unit Revises a Death Count

By Robert J. McCartney Washington Post Service

SAN SALVADOR - The Roman Catholic Church's Legal Pro-tection Office, often cited as one of the best sources of information on human rights abuses in El Salvador, said last week that it had subdor, said last week that it had sub-stantially overestimated the oun-ber of civiliao vietims of a mong human rights groups, jour-nalists and U.S. diplomats. Salvadoran Army operation seven fice's director, said Saturday that day her staff has changed its reporting procedures because of the mistake, hich was called to her attention by the U.S. Embassy in San Salvador. But she defended nther figures released by her office oo civilian casualties from February to May that were criticized by the embassy.

2 Hospital remains," he said.

contract problems with the Islamic on arms for Iran, it said.

bourg, Switzerland.

reached for the other two ships.

■ Swiss Plane Delivery Cited

Swiss military pilots delivered a

A Military Department spokes-

according to Reuters. The spokesventing Swiss pilots from deliver-the subject of debate in Switzerland converted for military use.

Ships to Iran

of several governmental and nongovernmental bodies are the best eration, although it had received victims of army operations.

In its rebuttal to the embassy nappings and army-iostigated abuses in El Salvador. The mistake, which was the most significant ever attributed to the Legal Protection Office, or Tutela Legal, appeared

The office conceded in a 21-page report released Thursday that it had committed "an error of information" in publishing initial, un-confirmed reports that the Salvadoran Army killed 250 people, mostly civilians, in an operation Dec. 31 in northern Chalatenango The office's dispote with the emprovince. Miss Hernández said Satbassy is the latest concerning which urday the office had only con- alties and presenting them as the site of the killings.

"many more" were killed.

eyewitness testimony in gathering information, and has criticized the ports for its figures. Embassy offi- to the Geneva Convention. "I was distraught to learn that "official U.S. figures were incom- dez said, the office had obtained a tion Office's figures seemed most accurate.

But in June, the embassy compiled a report challenging the Legal

In its rebuttal to the embassy report, the office offered to provide the embassy with witnesses to back up its contention in 16 of 34 cases The office relies primarily on in March and April that most vic-U.S. Embassy for relying exclusive tims of army operations were unly on Salvadoran ocwspaper rearmed and thus civilians according cials have acknowledged that the In the other cases, Miss Hernán-onths ago.

these figures were so inaccurate, a plete, and have agreed at least for testimony from at least one witness the past year that the Legal Protection most instances but her affice had been unable to contact the individ uals recently to make them available to the embassy. In its latest report, Miss Her-

Protection Office's figures from nandez said, the office has created December to May, including re- a new category to describe victims ports of 579 deaths that were only of military actions, distinguishing sketchily described. The embassy whether or not they were likely to accused the office of picking up have been civilians. It will also clar-official army tolls of guernilla casuify which reports were confirmed at the city marketolace.

U.K. to Send 55 Years After Pogrom, Jews Return

To Hebron, Provoking Arab Hostility By Glenn Frankel

LONDON - Britain will supply the Iranian Navy with two un-armed naval support ships that are families and three trailers, and the part of a 1977 order made by the Arab residents of this ancient city late shah, Mohammed Reza Pahlaawoke to discover another new vi, the Foreign Office said Sunday. The 2,500-ton ships, particularly suited for disaster relief, would not Jewish "fact" on a hill overlooking the West Bank's most troubled be used in Iran's war with Iraq, a It was only the latest of several Foreign Office spokesman said. ettlements launched by Jewish na-"Our policy in terms of neutrality Conalists bere with the support of the Israeli government. They have The announcement confirmed a made Hebron, the West Bank's secreport by The Sunday Times, which ond largest city and the only one where Jews have moved into a said that the ships are fitted with operating rooms, intensive-care densely populated urban area, the units and helicopter landing pads. focal point of both Jewish territori-It said the British government al aspirations and Arab resenthad received assurances that the ships would not be used for mili-tary purposes. But, it added, the U.S. ambassador-at-large to the As in all the cases, the action two weeks ago was fraught with political meaning. Its timing coincided Middle East, Richard M. Fairwith meetings between Likud gov-ernment leaders and the Labor opbanks 3d, was said to have told British officials of Washington's displeasure over the delivery. position to discuss a national-unity coalition, to which settlements like The $240-million order for six of these so far have proven a major the 2,500-ton ships was delayed by stumbling block.

For the young Jews who came to regime that replaced the shah.

Two of the ships were delivered ebron, many of them American by birth, the return to Hebron was before the shah was deposed in a spiritual event, a commitment to 1979, the newspaper said. Two re-establish the Jewish past in the more will be sent at the end of the city. Jews lived in it continuously for centuries until they were driven armed, the sale will not contravene out 55 years ago in a massacre that presaged five decades of violence ween Arabs and Jews of the The paper did oot say whether Middle East, an agreement on delivery had been For the Likud government, Hebron has become a test case, a place to ratify a policy: That the West Bank territories will never be returned to Arab rule.

convoy of training planes to Iran early this month, the newspaper La "In me, the re-establishment of Liberté reported Saturday in Frithe Jewish quarter of Hebron is in many ways symbolic of everything that Zionism stands for and everyman could not confirm the report, thing that Israel stands for," Defense Minister Moshe Arens said in a speech in Jerusalem. man said there were oo rules pre-

"After all, what is Zionism if not the proof that the acts of destruction, the acts of expulsion, the pogroms that were carried out in Eretz Israel [the Land of Israel] the subject of debate in Switzerland over the years, over the centuries, because of reports that they can be will not remain the final verdict of West Bank — They came in the middle of the night, three young bron should welcome Jewish set-tlers "in eradicating what is a blot first Jewish enclave on the West Bank.

> generations see the newcomers as a deliberate provocation. "Of course, there will be further are extremists and they are always looking for trouble," said Mustafa Natche, the acting mayor of Hebron who was deposed last year by the Israeli military anthorities. He was officially replaced by an Israeli after a Jewish settler was killed in

For of all the cities of the West Bank, it has seen the most bloodshed. Hebron became the first Jewish acquisition in the land of Israel when Abraham bought land from the Hittites for a burial spot. The cave of Machpelah in the center of have just one possibility and this is town marks the legendary site where the founder of Judaism, his chief wife, Sarah, son Isaac and and reoccupied the old rabbi's grandson Jacob are said to be bur-house on one of Hebron's main ied. It is sacred to both Moslems streets. They have a lot of counand Jews, and a mosque and syna- tries, a lot of states, and if they gogue uneasily share the same roof at the site. A few streets away, Jews commemorate more modern history. This is the old Jewish quarter of Hebron, where about 200 Orthodox Jewish families lived for generations with their Arab neighbors who have died in Hebron in the last until 1929. That year, Arabs, infour years in factional violence. spired by the mufti of Jerusalem, aughtered 67 Jews. The surviving Jews fled to Jewish-cootrolled

Now the Orthodox have re turned. They first settled in 1972 in parts of Palestine.

11 Die in U.K. Plane Crash The Associated Press

LONDON - Eleven of 14 pas sengers aboard a twin-engine plane taking aerial photographs were killed Sunday when the aircraft crashed and burned in a field near Burton-on-Trent, 23 miles (36.8 kilometers) northeast of Birming ham, police in Staffordshire said Three men who survived the crash suffered minor burns and fractures — that terrible pogrom of 1929."

During the last five years, under the leadership of Rabbi Moshe Le-During the last five years, under Hebron and governed the city for vinger, a founder of the Gush nnt be allowed to return, and trucks have moved directly into the town gion, the radin said, adding that itself to reclaim the old quarter, for thousands of Lebanese would be have moved directly into the town trouble here, because the settlers the land is still afficially under Jewish ownership.

> There are as many as 200 Jews in Hebron and they have rebuilt the old Jewish synagogue, which they say had been turned into a goat pen and latrine by the Arab inhabit-As the Jews move in, the Arabs

Emotions run deep in Hebron. are forced out. There are plans eventually to reoccupy all of the Jewish property in the old quarter, The young settlers recognize Arab omfort over these plans but tend to dismiss it. "If they don't understand, they to leave," said Avincam Horowitz, who with his family has restored don't feel good here, I cannot help Across the street from Mr. Horowitz's house is the site where six Jews were shot down by Palestinians four years ago. They were agreement was apparently timed to take place on the eve of a UN meeting, which began here Aug. 13, to complete the rules that will govern lowed to apply for a license to mine sites on the condition that they first settle any overlapping claims.

In spite of this, the Reagan adern the allocation of deep-sea mining sites.

The meeting is the last before the Dec. 9 deadline for nations to sign the 1982 Law of the Sea Convenministration denounced these protion. Delegates said it could, if sucinto force.

posals as an unacceptable attempt by the United Nations to regulate private enterprise, and the United States cast one of four votes against the treaty. Soon after the treaty was opened for signature, the United States unsuccessfully tried to nego-— to sign the convention, thus iso-lating the Reagan administration. Delegates also agreed, however, that a setback might persuade key tiate an agreement with other sites, each of 150,000 square kilo-meters (57,000 square miles). The companies would exploit one of these sites, and the other would be reserved for the United Nations.

The treaty received new support Friday when Japan and France announced that their state-owned mining consortia would apply for a license to explore separate deep sea mining sites under the UN system. So far the Law of the Sea Convention has been signed by 134 countries and has received 15 of the 60

ratifications required to bring it

In an effort in meet U.S. concerns, the treaty acknowledged the investment already undertaken in deep-sea mining by eight mining consortia. These were given the d-tle of "pioneer investors" and al-

By Iain Guest

GENEVA - Talks over carry-

Diplomats said that the Aug. 3

cessful, convince wavering govern-ments — notably West Germany

Western governments to join the United States in giving the go-will be able to start mining on Jan.

that the Aug. 3 agreement is the Reagan administration to hamper the mining provisions in the Law of U.S. generates a lot of anxiety among the Third World", said

ing, Mr. Maquieira described the

Aug. 3 understanding as "wholly illegal" and "contrary in the letter and spirit of the Law of the Sea

on April 30, 1982, after almost 10 years of negotiations and debate,

Any agreement involving the

the Sea Convention.

treaty.

Many delegates are convinced

onal Herald Tribune

Western governments.
According to conference sources, the United States is Inbbying hard in West European capitals to persuade Britain, Italy, Belgium and West Germany not in sign the con-

Three of the eight governments that signed the Aug. 3 agreement— France, Japan and the Netherlands—have also signed the Law of the Sea Convention. All three have sent letters to the conference chairman insisting that the agreement is simply aimed at settling nverlapping claims — as required by the convention — and that it does not call into question their support for the

According to conference sources, the large West German mining concern Pressuag bas approached the United Nations and said it wil drop its opposition to the treaty if its subsidiary, AMR, can be guaranteed a mining site of its own, Currently, AMR has a 25-percent share in the ocean management consortium, together with Japa-nese, Canadiao and American proposes a complex system for extracting mineral nodules from the ocean floor. Under this, private mining companies would be because to identify two parallel britain and the U.S. isolated.

Israel Will Block Traffic To Aid Units in Lebanon

JERUSALEM — Israel will stop traffic between oorthern and southern Lebanon early this week to allow the installation of new traffie "arrangements aimed at preventing sabotage activity" against Israeli troops in the south, according to an Israeli Army spokesman.

The spokesman said Saturday that a major crossing point near the village of Bater oo the Awali River would be closed from Monday to Wednesday. Beirut radio said Friday that Israeli troops had set up a roadblock near Bater and had imposed new restrictions on travel in an apparent effort to limit arms smuggling into occupied southern Lebanon. The radio said that starting Sunday only small vehicles with special Israeb passes would be permitted to travel in the south for 10 days. Cars leaving certain areas will Emunim settler movement, they will be banned in parts of the reaffected by the new restrictions. For about a year Israel has controlled access to a 24-mile (40-kilometer) strip in the south, often furcing motorists coming from the north to wait up to two days in enter the area. Israel's announcement came not day after Nabih Berri, Lebannn's minister of state for the south called on guerrilla groups in southern Lebanon to protest Israel's two-year occupation of the region by stepping up attacks against Is-raeli soldiers. "We will respond to the Israeli sealing off of the south, the abducnon nf its people and the theft of its water resources by increasing the attacks to three a day," said Mr. Bern, who is also the leader of the Shiite Moslem Amal militia. An Israeli Army spokesman said Saturday that six such attacks had taken place in southern Lebanon within 24 hours. [Lebanon's prime minister, Ra-shid Karami, asserted Saturday that the United States had done in Beirut. Mr. Karami said his government might take its complaints to the United Nations Security Council

United Press International

Israeli Political Talks

Leaders of Israel's Labor Party were quoted Sunday by Israeli media as having said that they would try again to form a government without the rightist Likud bloc if there was oo progress by Monday in talks aimed at a national unity coalition, Renters reported from

Tel Aviv. Four weeks after a general election gave oeither party a clear parntary majority, Labor and Likud delegations met again Sunday to try to settle differences over Jewish settlements in predominately Arab occupied territory. The settlement program is supported by Li-

In the July 23 election, Labor won 44 seats in the 120-seat Knesset, or parliament, to Likud's 41. President Chaim Herzog appointed the Labor Party leader, Shimon Peres, prime minister-designate and urged him to try to form a unity government with Likud. The alternative is for Mr. Peres to try to work out a narrow coalition with some of the 13 other parties, which won a total of 35 seats. In Jerusalem, Israel's caretaker government of Prime Minister ritzhak Shamir repeated its opposition to an international conference on the Middle East, saying it would serve as a forum for extrem-

Yosef Burg, the chief Israeli negotiator to talks on Palestinian autonomy, said King Hussein of Jor-dan, who endorsed the conference in an American television interview, wanted in involve the Palestine Liberation Organization and the Soviet Union in the talks. Jordan annexed the West Bank in 1950, an act recognized only by Pakistan and Britain "Extremists are the ones who set the tone of such international con-

nothing to stop "inhuman repression" by Israel in southern Leba-also have rejected the proposal for non, The Associated Press reported an international conference.

WORLDWIDE ENTERTAINMENT

You won't be hungry tonight after eating at

CONWAY'S NEW YORK BAR RESTAURANT WHY?

the meau. Open all day every day. 73 Rue St-Denis, Paris-1st (Italies

because you can read

ROM SATELLITE TELEVISION CHANNEL PROGRAM, MONDAY 20th AUGUST UK TIMES

SKY MUSIC BOX SKY-FI MUSIC CARTOON TIME MR ED GREEN ACRES CHARLIE'S ANGELS VEGAS ROVING REPORT AMERICAN SPORTS CAVALCADE SKY MUSIC BOX 18.00 18.05 18.30 18.55

BROADCASTING TO CABLE COMPANIES IN EUROPE & THE LIK VIA SATELLITE CONTACT SATELLITE TELEVISION FOR FURTHER INFORMATION TELEPHONE LONDON (01) 439 0491 TELEX 266943

13 de 9 de 15 de 1

EUROBONDS

Some Uncertainties Persist After Recent U.S. Ruling

By BOB HAGERTY

ARIS — Many Eurobond dealers doubt that new regula-tions announced last week will succeed in coaxing hordes of foreign investors into the market for U.S. government securities. The situation remains murky pending publica-on of the rules, expected Monday.

"We have to read the fine print first," says Oswald Gruebel, chief executive of White Weld Securities. At first glance, though, he and many other dealers say they believe the new regime will have less effect on Eurobond prices than was previously thought. The question is emotional, of course, because damage to the

Eurobond Yields
For Week Ended Aug. 14
U.S.S ig term, int? inst. ...
U.S.S long term, ind. ...
U.S.S medium term, ind. ...
Con.s medium term

Market Turnover

For Week Ended Aug. 17

Total Dollar Equivalent 13,681.16 10,168.70 . 3,512.40
22,373.10 21,152.30 1,220.80

Eurobond market presumably would hurt some European-based dealers and help some U.S.-based ones. But even Wall Streeters suggest that the Treasury moves will make little difference.

The U.S. Treasury Secretary, Donald T. Regan, last Thursday sketched out how the Treasury intends to carry out last mouth's repeal of the 30-percent withholding tax on interest payments to foreign holders of bonds issued in the United States. Mr. Regan confirmed that the Treasury and other government agencies would continue to issue bonds in registered rather than bearer form.

Bearer bonds, which do oot require a register listing the names of the bondholders, are the standard for the Eurobond market and appeal to investors who prefer to keep their identities secret. The Treasury could have reached a new group of investors by offering bearer bonds, but too many Congressmen objected that such issues would incite tax

Nonetheless, the Treasury plans special, or "targeted," bond issues tailored for sale overseas.

The beneficial owner of these targeted bonds will have to identify himself to the dealer involved in the sale, a Treasury spokesman said. The dealer, in turn, will be required to certify to the Treasury that the bondholder is not a U.S. citizen or resident. But the Treasury will not have to be told the bolder's name.

OST British and German investors do not object to bonds sold in registered form. The issue is important, bonds sold in registered form. The issue is made though, for many investors from Switzerland, the Bene-though, for many investors from Switzerland, the Bene-though investors from Switzerland lux countries and, to a lesser extent, France. Dealers say these investors will stay away if the Treasury rules seem likely to compromise their anonymity or create a lot of paperwork.

"If they have to sign documents, it will be a problem," says the chief trader at the London branch of a U.S. investment bank.

To expand the overseas market for U.S. government bonds, argues Willy Dunn, a director at the London bond-trading firm of Societé Générale Strauss Turnbull Ltd., the Treasury would have to allow holders to remain "totally anonymous." At Bank Julius Baer & Co. in Zurich, Peter Widmer, a senior.

vice president, warms that the Swiss will shun the bonds "if there is the slightest doubt" that investors will be faced with a registration process when interest is paid.

A minority opinion comes from Robert Kock, managing director of Smith Barney, Harris Upham International Inc. in London. "The certification requirement is not that onerous," Mr. Kock says, adding that the Treasury "is going about as far as it can go" in preserving catering to tax cheats.

The targeted Treasury issues are to feature annual interest (Continued on Page 9, Col.1)

The United Press International newsroom at the agency's world headquarters in Washington.

Outlook for UPI Is Clouded by Cash Shortage

By Alex S. Jones New York Times Service

NEW YORK - United Press International, the worldwide news service that has survived more than 20 years of money-losing operations, is once again facing a serious cash shortage, largely brought on by the cost of covering the Democratic primaries, the political conventions and the Olympic Games.

The company has started to lay off employees as part of a restructuring effort that will provide short-term cost serious. The to-will provide short-term cost savings. The to-tal omber of jobs to be lost remains unclear. But according to many industry experts, the financial problem at UPI goes beyond finding enough cash to satisfy the current operating deficit. The company oeeds to be able to compete effectively with The Associated Press, a non-profit organization, as well for UPI to find a major cash infusion quickly as Reuters and other news services, and to to speed improvements and make innova-

provide innovative services, those experts

Douglas F. Ruhe and William E. Geissler, who acquired UPI from E.W. Scripps Co. in 1982, say the cash delicit is a short-term problem and that they have the means to assure the company's success, even if new capital cannot be found immediately,

"We would willingly sell off every asset we own to assure the survival of UPI," said Mr. Ruhe, the company's managing director. He and Mr. Geissler, UPT's executive vice president, also own UHF independent television stations in Chicago, in Providence, Rhode Island, and in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. A darker view of the situation prevails outside the company. Some industry experts say it may be critical for UPI to find a major cash infusion quickly

UPI has fundamental financial problems that even a large amount of cash is unlikely to

But the industry experts and the company essentially agree on UPI's overall economic

The company's basic news service, with its far-flung domestic and foreign bureaus and enormous communications costs, is too expensive ever to be more than marginally prof-

The company says that of the $112 million it will cost to operate UPI in 1984, more than $20 million will be spent for communications and about $80 million for costs related to gathering and processing the news.

To thrive, experts say, UPI must fashion

(Continued on Page 11, Col. 5)

U.S. Considers Replacing Chief Of Finance Firm

By Tom Furlong and Bill Sing
Les Angeles Times Service

LOS ANGELES — Federal reg-ulators are discussing the possibili-ty of replacing Charles W. Knapp as chairman of Financial Corp. of America if the condition of the troubled financial institution worsens, industry sources say. Federal regulators have formed an informal task force that is believed to be discussing a series of contingency plans to deal with Fi-nancial's problems, the sources said Friday. The task force includes officials of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corp., industry consultants and legal experts.

However, the sources said, the regulators hope and believe that these contingency plans will not be necessary and that Financial will resolve its problems and stabilize its liquidity needs through borrow-ings from the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco, the Federal Reserve and through possible sales

[U.S. market sources said Finan-cial has been selling large volumes of government Nadonal Mortgage Corp. securities over the past few days, including an estimated $500million package, Renters reported Saturday from New York, Financial declined to comment on the

A Financial spokesman derided the objectivity of the reports about ousting Mr. Knapp, ooting that "there are a lot of people in the industry who would love to see him Spokesmen and officials from the Home Loan Bank Board have sistently refused to discuss Financial's problems. Financial, with $32.7 billion in assets, is the parent company of American Savings & Loan Associatioo, whose 126 branches throughout California make it the largest of the 3,500 U.S. savings and loans.

American S&L has lost bundreds of millions of dollars in deposits in recent weeks and has had to borrow from the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco in replace those funds, although the company says that its total borrowings from the Home Loan Bank are below the

Earlier last week, Financial restated its earnings under pressure from the Securities and Exchange Commission, resulting in a $107million loss in the second quarter

Three more lawsuits were filed in U.S. District Court here Friday by shareholders accusing Financial of securities violations. The first suit was filed Thursday, the day after the earnings restatement was announced.

Some regulators, sources say, ap-parently believe that Mr. Knapp himself is a major cause of Financial's problems. They are said to believe that Financial's fortunes would improve if a new manage-ment takes over, restores investor and depositor confidence and scales back the company's aggressive growth, Financial's assets grew

(Continued on Page 9, Col.1)

Optimism Growing on Defusing Latin American Debt Crisis

By James L. Rowe Jr. Washington Post Service
WASHINGTON — Optimism is growing among banking experts that Latin American debt crisis can be defused. The economies of the industrialized countries, led by the United States, are growing, and they are buying billions of dollars of exports from developing countries. By doing so, they are providing the dol- dor - announced that its debt dox" to the "lagged effects of the lars that the countries need to pay payments were far larger than it serious 1983 recessions" and the

In addition, the austerity measures that Mexico and Brazil undertook in 1983 triggered severe recessions, but they appear to be high-ranking U.S. official said of

he announced that Mexico no long- lion and $95 billion respectively. er could pay its debts on time.

could afford. Other countries, such rise in interest rates. as the Philippines and Nigeria, face Rising rates not only make it similar problems "I didn't know what to think," a Mr. Silva Herzog's announcement. "I worried that the international financial system was about to col-mics, and it will be years, if ever, try.

not get it mic bround again.

not get it mic bround again.

ImF traditionally has been a short tries also could harm the recovery in developing countries. gion's two biggest debtors, return package being oegotiated with term solution. Whether an adjust- in developing countries.

Herzog of Mexico stunned the in- and early 1980s. Mexico and Brazil ternational financial world when have debts totaling about $90 bil-

Yet as the economic reality is The Mexican debt problem improving the political situation is quickly grew into a Latin America deteriorating in Latin America, acdebt crisis as one borrowing coun- cording to William R. Cline of the try after another — Brazil, Argenti-na, Venezuela, Peru, Chile, Ecua-nomics. He attributed the "para-the debtor countries. Economists, bankers and politi- crisis.

It was two years ago Monday to the heady growth that character- Mexico, which centers on long-ment in the IMF's role can be when Finance Minister Jesus Silva ized their economies in the 1970s term repayments with vastly easier worked out or whether some new terms, could go a long way toward easing the political pressures in Latin America.

Thus, Mexico, which led Latin America into the debt crisis, may be leading it out. The banks and Mexico are in the process of trying to oegotiate longer periods in which the country is responsible. only for interest payments, and for the principal payments.

more expensive for the countries to nomic policies. The International frustration among the citizens of nomic policies adopted by the lapse." Much of the rest of the world shared this worry.

Debt payment remain a drain on Latin American nations' econo-If the banks reschedule Mexico's monitoring apparatus can be devised that is acceptable both to the banks and Mexico is at the crux of the negotiations. There are potential developments that could transform the worked ont or whether some new debt problem into a financial crisis again, however. A renewed, severe recessioo could dry up demand for the commodities and industrial products of

A major sticking point in the the developing countries. A surge talks is monitoring Mexico's ecoin interest rates beyond what has been experienced so far could make repay their outstanding loans, but Monetary Fund has provided the also add to the general level of imprimatur for oearly all the co-In addition, a steep, sudden countries during the peak of the plunge in oil prices from their already depressed levels would hurt Mexico and Venezuela while providing little help to other major debtors such as Brazil and Argenti-

First Boston Inc. To Buy Amerace

NEW YORK - First Boston Inc. will acquire Amerace Corp. in a leveraged buyout for $47.50 common share in a transaction valued at about $163 million, both companies said.

The oew corporation will be owned by a group of investors led by First Boston and including "certain senior executive officers and key employees of Amerace," First Boston said Friday. First Boston ended unhanged Friday on the New York Stock Exchange at $50.50 a share. Amerace, a maker of consumer and industrial goods. closed Friday on the NYSE at $46.125, also unchanged.

The tender offer, which expires Sept. 14, is subject to bank-financing commitments and is conditioned upon the tender of securities representing or convertible into 51 percent of Amerace common shares

INTERNATIONAL AND

PERSONAL BANKING IN LUXEMBOURG

Price of Treasury Notes, Bonds Rise Amid Moderate Demand by Investors

By Michael Quint New York Times Service

NEW YORK — Interest rates were little changed on Friday in quiet trading. Moderate investor demand nibbled away at securities dealers' holdings of the $16.75 billion of Treasury notes and bonds auctioned and helped raise prices. In addition to the investor demand, securities dealers said proposed changes in Treasury financings helped raise prices of long-term bonds. In particular, said the substitution of 20year bonds with a five-year call protection for non-callable 20-year bonds helped lift prices of out-Because there will be fewer longterm bonds for dealers to absorb in the future, prices of outstanding issues rose.

U.S. CREDIT MARKETS

1.5

Recent conflicting economic data had little effect on the credit market last week

Analysts said the decline in retail sales and drop in housing starts and permits were evidence that the economy was slowing, while the strong gains in industrial produc-tion and personal income in July June were equally convincing signs that the economy continues to exand at a brisk pace. Analysts said that the revised gross national product data for the April-through-June quarter could remain at 7.5 percent or be revised For Week Ended 17 August upward slightly. Gross national product is the total value of a nation's output of goods and services, including income from foreign in-

4.265 76.22 3.77

Traders said the market's bias toward higher prices and lower yields was demonstrated on Thursday, wheo prices reboooded strongly from the lows set on Wednesday. The 121/2-percent Treasury bond, due 2014, for example, fell to slightly below 99 at one time, bot quickly rebounded on a combination of speculative purchases by securities firms and mod-

By late Friday afternoon, prices for Treasury bills and notes due in less than 10 years were mixed with small changes up and down, while 30-year Treasury bond prices were higher by more than ¼ point. Among new issues, the 12%-per-cent Treasury notes due in 1994 were offered at 99 22/32 to yield and consumer-installment credit in corporations continue to issue new notes and bonds at a more rapid pace than during the first six months of the year

Among new financings an-

4942 • 130.14 • 1792 •

CURRENCY RATES

Official fixings for Amsterdam, Brussels, Milan, Paris, New York rates at 4 P.M. EDT.

Late interbank rates on Aug. 17, excluding fees.

	PUSSOOK SUVINGS
	Tax Exempt Bonds Bond Buyer 29-Bond Index10,02 1
•	Money Market Funds Danoghue's 7-Day Average
;	Bank Money Market Accounts Bank Rate Manifor Index 9.74 ?
	Home Mortgage FHLB overage15.20 ?

0.02	*
0.55	*
7.74	7
.20	*
	9.74 5.20

nounced on Friday, Salomoo

The offering prices of the Associates and Beneficial issues were four-year put provision.

not disclosed, and both issues may have been offered at various prices.

r 20-Bond Index10,02 %	I belond them I was a firm
rket Funds 57-Day Average10.55 %	United Press Internation WASHINGTON Ch
ry Morket Accounts Monitor Index	asked the United States to sider new rules governing U
rope15.20 %	tile imports, suggesting they damage two-way trade between two countries.

point

Brothers was sole underwriter for two note linancings that offered investors the option of redeeming their securities before maturity. A $100-million issue of Associates Corp. of North America subordinate notes due in 1994 was offered with a 1214-percent coupon and a

China Protests U.S. Textile Curbs

A spokesman for a group of American retailers who oppose the textile regulations on Friday interpreted the letter as a veiled warning that China might retaliate by cutting its purchases of U.S. agricultural products.

The new administration regula-tions, scheduled to take effect Sept. 7, would change the rules dealing with the "country of origin" of tex-tile and clothing imports entering the United States under countryby-country quotas.

If, for example, panels of sweat-tina has ers are made in China and sewn would be harmed in southern Chitogether in Hong Kong, the new nese provinces alone, rules would charge them against "This would be a g China's quota instead of Hong to our industry, cample Kong's, as in the past. Since China's quotas are in many cases filled > prevent the goods from entering the United States. In a letter in the administration Chinese ambassador Zhang Wenjin said the rules violate the bilateral textile trade agreement signed last year between the United States

"Precise estimates of the trade

"This would be a grevious blow to our industry, employment, trade and economic development."

The letter added: "We wish that before Hong Kong's, this could any disruption in our trade will be avoided, but regrettably no one can be sure that a reverse trend in our in case the United States does not fulfill its commitments to China." Verrick French, executive vice Merchants Association, said in a letter to Sen. Robert Dole, a Refrom the People's Republic of Chi-publican of Kansas, that the China which would be adversely af- nese appeared to be an "indirect fected are not possible," the ambassador said, "but bundreds of U.S. farm goods.

going to do fine."

Analysts had positive reactions to a recent court ruling by U.S. District Judge Harold H. Greene that stressed regional phone companies must concentrate on providing local phone service. The ruling allowed the companies to move into oon-telephone operations only on a restricted basis and prevented the companies from entering the pand willy-nilly now," said Mr. Edelson,

Analysts agree that regional companies can continue to gener-nesses they now run, such as data ate a good rate of return from busi-and voice services, Yellow Pages

There's no urgent need to ex-

-distance husiness.

Have all the advantages of a bank account in LUXEMBOURG, without actually being there.

To discover the advantages of banking in Luxembourg with BCC, all you have to do is to aimply mail the attached coupon. We will promptly despatch to you by airmail our booklet containing detailed information about banking

The BCC Group has offices in 68 countries, its Capital Funds exceed US$807 million and total assets US$12,300 million. The Head Office and branch of the Bank of Credit & Commerce International S.A., in Luxembourg enable you to make full use of the unique advantages offered in Luxembourg which include:-

1. Total confidentiality of investor's affairs by the laws of Luxembourg. 2. The benefits of being able to open and operate an account in Luxembourg without actually going 3. Investments and deposits made by non-residenta are totally tax-free and there is no withholding tax on interest or dividends. Luxembourg is a stable, prosperous financial centre in the heart of European Economic

Mail this coupon for your FREE

BANK OF CREDIT AND COMMERCE INTERNATIONAL S.A. 29 SOULE SURGE ROWAL PO, BOX 1508. LUXEBROUNG, 78-LEZ 1246 BCC3 11

12.68 percent, while the 12½-percent bonds due in 2014 were offered at 100% to yield 12.45 per-

By Elizabeth Tucker Washington Past Service
WASHINGTON — Regional telephone company stocks have surprised many stock market analysts with a strong performance this year, and the abandoned offspring of Ma Bell are expected to continue their stable performances throughout the rest of the year.

They've been unbelievable," said John S. Bain, an analyst at press Inc. "The regional holding companies' stocks are up 9.4 percent since Dec. 30." He added: "It's phenomenal performance, it's baffling." Regional telephone company past six months, the stocks have viewed by investors as less desirable than AT&T stock because it was thought the local telephone characteristics you used to attri-companies would not grow as fast bute to AT&T." companies would not grow as fast

Mr. Peery and other analysts atperceived by analysts as stronger tribute the strong performance of regional telephone company stocks. "At the beginning of 1982, when to cost-trimming efforts such as the breakup was announced, every-one felt that the regionals were the ume of calls handled by the local dogs and AT&T was the plum," said Steven G. Chrust, an analyst with Sanford C. Bernstein & Co. Inc., who held the reverse view telephone stocks traditionally do telephone stocks traditionally do

"Over time," he said, "it became clear that the operating companies were the attractive portion." As regional companies reported strong earnings and began to devel-Edelson, an analyst with First Bosop a track record, analysts began ton Corp. said John S. Bain, an analyst at recommending telephone company Shearson Lehman-American Ex-

was declining. "People realized AT&T was more subject to poor performance than the regional telephooe companies, and that AT&T was going in be a very volatile company in a very competitive industry," said Bradford L. Peery, an analyst at Hicks Peery Ioc., a San Francisco invest-

"Regional telephone compa-The stocks were originally mes," be said, "will be relatively stable, moderate-growth companies with the same kind of growth

well has also helped, analysts said. "Investors have a tendency to switch to safer stocks, particularly when the market was in a funk before the latest rally," said Harry

"Investors have avoided the high-tech stocks that have gotten clobbered," he said, instead switching to safer telephone stocks. Analysts expect the stocks to remain stable throughout the rest of the year but not to maintain the same rate of performance, "These are not barn-burner securities," said Mr. Bain. "They offer a billing and equipment sales. ment banking firm specializing in good steady return, they are reasonably predictable. If the market remains sound and interest rates

D.M. F.F. H.L. Gldr. 112.46 ° 34.71 ° 0.1824 — 20.161 6.547 1.26 ° 17.99 —— 25.50 ° 1.616 x 86.45 ° 3.72 11.6076 2.337.30 4.2651 3.782 11.6076 2.337.30 4.2651 2.84 8.7825 1.767.90 ° 3.223 2.84 8.7825 1.767.90 ° 3.223 —— 4.66 x 72.78 ° 3.485 x 1.752 11.6076 2.207.30 4.2651 76.25 21.07 201.21 -- 58.77 204.1 74.20 7.351 2.203 201.21 -- 58.77 204.1 74.20 7.351 2.203 74.15 2.203 74.15 207.04 -- 4.865 x 272.25 13.195 2.203 74.15 20.25 24.15 207.04 27.25 27.35 2.203 74.15 2.203 7 2.8985 3.779 — 1.222 — 3.782 1.778,60 2,337.75 618.97 stocks, created by the breakup of the Bell system Jan. 1, took a dip immediately after the shares were A.5702 1,363.82 2.5217 45.2019 8,9629 1,805.95 3,291 58,9949 0.762 0.5727 2.2378 1.02031 0.77138 2.71741 issued in February. Bot over the Dollar Values been climbiog back. Eusly. Currency U.S.S. 0.447 Singapore 3 2.1412 0.0012 S. Koreen want 997.30 0.0013 Spen, nebets 163.50 0.0025 Telwan 5 40.01 0.005 Telwan 5 40.01 0.005 Telwan 5 40.01 0.005 Thoi bahl 0.005 CUSTERCY U,5,5 1,1141 Squiv. 1,870 trish E 0,7033 Israeli shekai Evelv. U.S.3

9.421 Australien 5 1.7141

9.917 Austries Schikking 22 105

8.8171 Beleise Ha. franc 5,425

6.9152 Dunich Kreen 10,475

8.143 Flankin wark 4,013

10907 Geek erschene 11448

9.1276 Nesse Kreen 5 7,235 as the Bell System. They are now performing stocks. a Stertion: 1.2225 Irish C ioi Commercial fract (b) Amounts needed to be Units of 100 ioi Units of 1,000 IVI Units of 18,000

The state of previously and the state of the Principal and principal Characteristic and traction Characteristics and the page with the constant of the part of the constant of the constant hit's Accoun *Described a March H. N. Ade March H. A. Ade Coloral on him board has said safety Victoria and the color of the coloral the color of the coloral the coloral of the coloral of the coloral the coloral of the coloral of the coloral the coloral of the coloral of the coloral of the coloral the coloral of the color of the coloral of the color of the coloral of the color of the co

May Act Financial Commed from Page 71

CONTFI COUNT Berper

New Eurobond Issues

lssuer	Amount (millions)	Mat,	Coup %	Price	Yield at offer	Price end week	Terms	New York Times Service BONN — West Germany, the cradle of synthetic-fuel technology, is cautiously pressing ahead with its	for turning coal into gas. The Ruhr- kohle plant, which is being built in Oberhausen, near the heart of the	agreed to abandon a cooperative $1.55-billion coal-liquefaction pro- ject planued for Morgantown, West Virginia, because of its rising	gas products has spurred indus to assume a larger share of fioancing burden from gove
FLOATING RATE NO)TES							development of coal-gasification projects, despite depressed oil	will convert some 750 tons of lig-	cost. As coal euphoria subsided, Heinz Riesenhuber, the Minister
Alahli Bank of Kuwait	$50	1992	1/4	100		- .	Over 6-month Libor, Minimum coupon 514%, Call- able at par after 1987, Commissions 0.90%.	prices, which have generally halted such projects worldwide.	using a process developed by Tex- aco Development Corp.	for Research and Technology, postponed until 1985 a decision whether to build Germany's first	rose 6.9 times, and that of natu
Wells Forgo Int'l Financing	$150	1994	1/16	100		99.60	Over 3-month Libor. Minimum coupon 54%. Coll- oble at par other 1987.	Ruhrkohle AG, Germany's dom- inant coal producer, is constructing Europe's first commercial-scale,	Like the Reagan administration, which in 1981 shifted virtually all	large-scale liquefaction plant, and	of lignite increased only 2.5 tin
FIXED-COUPON								coal-gasification plant. Rheinische	financing of synthetic-fuel pro-	liquefaction activity in 1981-85	t.8 times.
Bear, Stearns	$60	1989	13	100	13	98.12	First collable of 101% other 1987 and at 100% other 1988. Backed by surely band from Aetna Life & Cosualty Co.	Braunkohlenwerk AG, a Rhine Valley coal producer, is building a gasification plant near Cologne,	grams to the private sector, the aus- terity-mioded government of Chaocellor Helmui Kohl has	studies and development of com- ponents.	products remain more costly, a less heat efficient, than natural
EIB	$200	1996	13	100	13	97.88	Sinking fund starting in 1989 will produce a 8.5-yr overage life, Noncollable.	and Klöckner Steel Products Co. plans to install a $115-million gas- ification unit at a power station in	slashed funding for synthetic-fuel projects. Such projects had been emphasized after the 1974 oil crisis	an advances in coal liquefaction	coal, which often lies at gr
Mellon Bonk	$100	1987	13	1003	12.79	99.12	Noncollobia.	West Berlin.	to reduce dependence on imported	oil prices, which made oil deriva-	mains far more costly in extr
Orient Leasing	$30	1989	13	100%	12.79	_	Noncollable.	U.S. companies are profiting	oil and sharpen Germany's com-	tives, such as gasoline, cheaper	than strip-mined coal from Chi Australia or the United States.
Swedish Export Credit	$250	1994	zero	32,925	11%	31.25	Noncollable.	from some of the development. Several German plant-building	petitive edge on the worldwide market for coal-processing equip-		Thus, government funding, b
Work! Bank	$200	1994	12%	100	12%	97.88	Noncollable.	companies, including Lurgi Ge-	ment	By contrast, progress in coal gas-	direct and indirect, remains cons
World Bank	DM300	1994	81/4	100	81%	99.75	Noncollable.	sellschaften and Krupp-Koppers	10 1981, for example, west Ger-	ification has continued. In part,	erable. Bomi is expected to confi
Kingdom of Denmark	£7 5	1994	11%	100	11%	97.63	Noncolloble.	a a	. 36 3	7 4 47
EQUITYLINKED								U.S. Firm Cl	aims Monocl	onal-Antiboo	ly Advance
Konishiro ku Photo Industry	$50	1999	open	100	_	98.00	Coupon indicated at 4%, Callable at 103 after 1990. Investor's put option at 108 after 1987. Convertible at an anticipated 5% premium. Torns to be set Aug. 23.	By Stuart Diamond New York Times Service	Nowinski, a respected microbiolo- gist who is president of Genetic	The company, which is based in Seattle, was founded in 1980. It had	major killer of burn victims. The bacteria also infect people w
Nippon Koçzaku	$60	1999	4	100	4	_	Callable at 103 in 1989. Convertible at a 5%	NEW YORK — A biotechnolo- gy-research company says it has	opment of buman monoclonal	a 1983 loss of $1.5 million oo sales of $6 million. Nelson M. Schneider,	chronic diseases such as cystic brosis and cancer. Dr. Nowin

U.S. Bond Ruling Raises Questions

payments, the system used in the rules is expected to answer some Eurobond market, rather than the semiannual payments of the U.S. market. Some dealers see this as a valuable concession to European recity by U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European investment of the U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European investment of the U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European investment of the U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European investment of the U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European investment of the U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European investment of the U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European investment of the U.S. corporations rather in a way that lets European in a way t ways; others dismiss it as a sop. A few dealers suggest that European investors will shy away from the targeted issues, preferring the greater liquidity of the Treasury for Treasurys in Europe: Central banks long have been exempt from withholding tax on their U.S. government bondholdings. Other European investors have skirted the tax by selling the bonds just before interest payment dates.

cither to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After receiving payments or pay a all, notes Mr. Widmer of Bank Jules again. After to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After all, notes Mr. Widmer of Bank Jules again. After to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After the cither to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After the cither to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After the cither to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After the cither to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After the cither to identify themselves when may adapt the rules again. After the cither to identify themselves when in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify the cither to identify the cither to identify themselves when it is in the cither to identify the cither to it.

than through a Netherlands Antilles subsidiary.

rations will be able to issue bearer bonds for sale to overseas investors. But how will the government At any rate, it is unclear whether ensure that those bonds are not there is much untapped demand sold to U.S. citizens? At present, bonds issued directly by U.S. companies are subject to so-called backup withholding tax regula-tions. These rules require investors say, Treasury officials eventually ing their anonymity. If not, the leg-Mr. Regan said that U.S. corpo- islation eliminating the withholding tax could fail to meet one of its principal aims: to bring home bond-issuing business by discouraging bond sales through the Netherlands Antilles.

Despite Lower Oil Price, Bonn Backs Coal-Gasification Work

By John Tagliabue New York Times Service

-research company says it has oduced the first commercial lev-

Leading experts Friday described the discovery by Genetic

Systems Co. as very significant. Monoclonal antibodies are produced in a laboratory to seek out the substances that cannot be overcome by the body's own antibodies or on which vaccines cannot be Until oow, only small amounts of human antibodies could be produced in the laboratory. The anti-bodies, which specify disease or-ganisms in the body for destruction, are products of the recent biotechnology revolution. They are thought to hold the key to an eventual cure of diseases such as cancer.

was made by a team under the direction of Dr. Robert C.

The commercial breakthrough els of buman monocional antibodies for the treatment of disease.

GmbH, own processes used at many the United States and Japan this is because the growing compet- tite half the cost of the Klockner some two dozen plants worldwide agreed to abandon a cooperative for turning coal into gas. The Ruhr- $1.55-billion coal-liquefaction prokohle plant, which is being built in ject planned for Morgantown, Oberhausen, near the heart of the West Virginia, because of its rising Ruhr Valley coal-mining district, cost. As coal euphoria subsided, will convert some 750 tons of lig-Heinz Riesenhuber, the Minister nite into chemical feedstocks daily for Research and Technology, using a process developed by Tex-postponed until 1985 a decision aco Development Corp.

a proprietary process for which the company received a pat-

Dr. Nowinski said the process

ables the production of a range of buman antibodies a thousand times broader than with previous processes. That means that researchers would have a much better chance of finding specific antibod-now have a practical method to make buman antibodies for therapy," he said. "It is no longer on a laboratory scale, but on a commer-

The significance here is that we ies that cure diseases, he said.

ent last week.

whether to build Germany's first large-scale liquefaction plant, and who follows biotechnology at E.F.

The company's stock, traded over-the-counter, was quoted Friday at $6.50 bid, down from $17.75

Genetic Systems has helped develop very rapid tests using monoelonal antibodies to detect major venereal diseases and it is developing diagnostic tests for other ail-

So far, Genetic Systems has isolated one antibody for commercial baeteria ealled pseudomonas, which cause infections that are the the treatment of humans.

at one point last year but up from $4.75 about a month ago.

In a series of interviews, Dr. Hutton & Co., said Genetie Sys-

Nowinski said be had produced butems is regarded as a company that man monoclonal antibodies at con"combines good science with good centrations of more than 100 micommerce." He added that the crograms a milliliter, 20 to 100 company is in the developmental times greater than previous labora-stage and well financed and that it mry production. He said he had has good prospects.

has good prospects.

itiveness of coal-derived, synthetic-gasification unit in Berlin. Bonn gas products has spurred industry assume a larger share of the fioancing burden from government. A cost analysis by Ruhrkohle million annually in coal-price sub-for the years 1973-83 showed that sidies to keep the price of the dowhile the average price of crude oil rose 6.9 times, and that of natural gas 7.3 times in the period, the cost of lignite increased only 2.5 times, and that of substitute natural gas

Nevertheless, coal-derived gas products remain more costly, and and its derivatives. And European mains far more costly in extract source, as a future option, if oil than strip-mined coal from China, prices rise. Australia or the United States.

Thus, government funding, both major killer of burn victims. The bacteria also infect people with chronic diseases such as cystic fi-brosis and cancer. Dr. Nowinski

fections in mice and that elinical

subsidiary of Bayer AG of West

Germany. Cutter collaborated on tumor-immunology laboratory at the National Cancer Institute and the innovation "very important."

research has concentrated on mon-has been shown that mouse anti-

Antibodies find and attack suband the state of North Rhine-Westphalia will share part of the cost of Oberhausen, and spend about $5 mestic German coal for the plant at world prices.

Mr. Kohl's government, otherwise desirous of eliminating subsidies to private business, justifies the outlays as heightening Germaoy's technological edge; as saving jobs in the Ruhr, where unemploy ess heat efficient, than natural gas ment runs as high as 15 percent, against 9 percent nationwide; and coal, which often lies at great maintaining German coal, the na-depths under built-up areas, re-

The most ambitious energy pro ject is the Ruhrkohle plant, which a direct and indirect, remains consid-Ruhrchemie AG, a subsidiary of Hoechst AG, the chemical compaoy, is building. Hans Karlisch, a spokesman at Ruhrkohle in Essen, said the $75-million plant would convert about 240,000 tons of lignite into synthetic gas when it goes inm production in 1986.

Party of that amount will be converted into bydrogen, and the remainder, ioto oxo-alcohols and said that small amounts of the anti-oxo-aldehydes, in be sold as chemibody had cured pseudomonas in- cai feedstocks.

According to John Moragne trials were expected soon by Cutter vice president at Texaco Develop-Group of Miles Laboratories, a ment Corp. io White Plains, New York, the Texaco process was chosen over several German systems io 1975, when Ruhrkohle installed a Dr. Jeffrey Schlom, chief of the pilot plant in extract chemicals from residual oil products at the Oberhausen site, and was later adapted for coal.

Oberhausen will be the third also a pioner in human monoclonal antibody research, Friday called plant to employ the Texaco pro-cess, he said. In Kingsport, Tennessee, Tenoessee Eastman Co. stances foreign to the body, such as viruses and bacteria. Uotil now, opened a plant last year using the process to extract acetic anhydrides, used for the manufacture of ocional antibodies produced from film base. In Japan, UBE Nitrogen mice for use in disease diagnosis. It Co. recently inaugurated a plant using Texaco technology to proproduction. It is a serum to fight bodies, which can be produced io syothetic-gas products. A duce large quantities, have limited use io fourth plant is being designed for construction in Sweden.

Publication of the new Treasury

tinuation of such a system would discourage many foreign investors. Senior officials at several U.S. tors avoid the tax without sacrific-

Coupon indicated at 3%%. Investor's put option at 106 after 1989. Conventible at an anticipated 5% premium. Terms to be set Aug. 20.

If the U.S. government sees that its new methods are not stimulating

Sales of Personal-Computer Software

By Michael Schrage

WASHINGTON - Personaling far below expectations, accord- Framework, remain strong.

three and five programs (for their ine to industry analysts, retailers "I think it's a summer hull," said computers), where it was anticipated.

The sales slump has affected virgrowing, it is growing at a slower forecasts. rate than most analysts had pro-

Creative Strategies had predicted the business-software market would grow by more than 50 per-cent this year, but the revised estimate is closer to 410 percent growth. The company has halved its growth projections for home software. Infocorp, another industry research company, has similarly re-

By Kenneth B. Noble New York Times Service

Home Loan Bank Board has said that the accounting practices used

U.S. May Act

On Financial

(Continued from Page 7) 44 percent in the first six months of

Mr. Knapp has clashed with regulators over his company's ex-

Executives mentioned as possi-

Knapp include Anthony Frank, chairman of San Francisco-based

WASHINGTON - The Federal

corp's director of microsystems computer software sales for both business-software programs, such home and office machines are fall- as Lotus 1-2-3 and Ashton-Tate's

ing to industry analysts, retailers
"I think it's a summer full," said computers), where it was anticipated leading software publishers.

Frank E. Schwartz, president of Sied that the numbers would be closed. Tim Bajarin, an analyst with mon & Schuster's electronic pub- er to seven to 10," said Mr. Bajarin. Creative Strategies, a San Jose, Callishing group. "People are holding ifornia-based personal-computer their breath and waiting. The probconsulting and analysis firm said: leam is the industry itself; it puts out Tate, was more pessimistic. "Maybe it's just the summer dol- these unbelievable numbers. It drums, but it's probably that the hurts itself with all its shouting, night kind of software isn't out because the expectations have be-tually every aspect of the personal- sales in January. Others in the in- much of the software industry computer software market. While dustry are counting on the Christ-the billion-dollar market is still mas sales season to rescue their Mr. Bajarin of Creative Strategies says International Business lesser-known software companies.

Machines Corp.'s new PCjr home "The business is big and it's gocomputer had been projected to sell close to 500,000 units this year. "They'll be lucky to sell 180,000," he said, "and that has really affected a lot of software

Mr. Lefkowits said: "More than 50 percent of the personal-comput-er software sold is sold when the "Things have really slacked off," machine is purch said Robert M. Left owits, Info-shortly thereafter." machine is purchased, or very Exchange Commission are not widespread in the thrift industry.

commission to restate its second-quarter results to show a loss of $107 million, instead of a profit of

The company was forced by the

Thrift's Accounting Practices

Are Described as Unusual

Fail to Reach Levels Forecast in U.S. More important, people have not software research. However, he been buying as many software noted that sales for the best known packages for their machines as some in the industry had expected. "People are buying between > Nikki Hardin, a software edito with the California-based Ashtonalmost never hear about the homecomputer aftermarket anymore," three and five programs (for their come so high."

This drop in the market's growth
Mr. Schwartz forecast strong rate is directly responsible for shakeout that has forced lavoffs in such companies as Visicorp, Software Arts. Sorcim and Micropro International, as well as dozens of ing to get bigger," said John Brockman, an agent who represents many leading software designers. "The problems now are simply ones of simple arithmetic. If there were 100 shelves and 20 publishers a year ago, there are 150 shelves and 150 publishers today. Most of the players are going to get

However, Mr. Brockman conceded that the growth has not ocexpected that the growth has not oc-curred quite as quickly as he had expected. "Publishers aren't just scared," he said, "they're terrified. It seems that the growth will be less exponential than had been fore-cast."

been blamed on what many indus-try participants concede to be a glut of low-quality software. Mr. Schwartz blamed incorrect marketing. "Prodoct is beiog shipped back," he said.

by Financial Corp. of America and $107 million, challenged by the Securities and $31.1 million.

The dispute involved government National Mortgage Association securities, which the company bought and immediately sold back to the initial holders, pledging to repurchase them at a future date. At issue was the value of the securities on the company's books. The company carried them at the original commitment value: the original commitment value; the SEC said they had to be carried at the market value.

Apparently concerned that Fitremely rapid growth and its ag-nancial's much-publicized troubles gressive fixed-rate mortgage would cause a ripple effect on the beleaguered thrift industry, the The recent publicity over these problems and the company's worsening financial condition due to declaring that "relatively few instihigher interest rates have combined tutions have engaged in these types to fuel a crisis of confidence that of transaction and the impact on has cut cash flow, eroded institu-

It said "institutions involved in tional deposits and sent Financial's stock plunging. However, the stock typical reverse repurchase agree-closed up Friday on the New York ments will not be required to re-Stock Exchange, gaining 50 cents a state earnings based on the SEC position."

One official acknowledged, howble candidates to succeed Mr. ever, that the accounting process is "so complicated" that some institutions might not know whether their First Nationwide Savings, and Wil-liam Popejoy, former president of opposed by the SEC.

liam Popejoy, former president of Financial Federation, which was In any event, the official said the bank board staff was studying the bought last year by Great Western issue and was expected to recom-Financial Corp.

Mr. Popejoy, who has been traveling the past year, recently said he loan institutions that report to the is looking for the right opportunity board. This official added that the to rejoin the financial-services in-dustry. He could not be reached for comment Friday, while Mr. Frank declined to comment.

Hughes Aircraft Plans Georgia Assembly Plant

TUCSON, Arizona — Hughes Aircraft Co. announced plans Friday to open an electronics assem-bly plant in Georgia because of growth in its tactical missile-proction business

Assembly work at the planned factory at LaGrange, 65 miles (105 kilometers) southwest of Atlanta, will be integrated with missile manufacturing operations at Tucson, according to D. Kenneth Richardson, president of Hughes's Missile tems Group.

CAISSE CENTRALE DE COOPERATION ECONOMIQUE - CCCE

U.S. $50,000,000.-Variable rate - 1978/1998 Upconditionally guaranteed by the French State

We hereby inform the bond-holdwe hereby inform the hond-hold-ers that the applicable rate for the thirteenth interest period has been fixed at 12%. Conpon No. 13 will be payable from February 11th, 1984 at the price of US $65.23 representing the interest of 12%%, calculated on the basis of 182/360th, and on the basis of 182/360th, and covering the period from August 9th, 1984 to February 10th, 1985

> Credit Lyonnas Luxembourg, Agent.

CHANT BAN GLOBAL EXPERT

'That's the difference'

It would take an exceptional merchant bank to be able to give you expert advice on a worldwide basis. But then, Standard Chartered's merchant banking services are exceptional: Not to say unique.

The network covers eight important financial centres around the world. And draws on the resources and expertise of Standard Chartered itself-the UK's largest independent international bank, with 2000 branches in over 60 countries.

A combination of broad geographical reach and specialised knowledge that can smooth your path measurably, when it comes to coping with the intricacies of capital raising, financial practice and local legislation worldwide.

Consult Standard Chartered's merchant banking teams for advice and help on mergers, partnerships, investment and takeovers; on leasing; on the provision of export and project finance; and on making the best and most cost-effective use of the international capital

We think you'll find the difference an obvious-and beneficial-one. Discover it soon.

Standard & Chartered

Direct banking, worldwide

Standard Chartered Bank PLC Head Office: 10 Clements Lane, London EC4N 7AB,

	Sales In	ALINE PROTECTION AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AN	Soles in Het ! Soles is No
Over-the-Counter	100s High Low Lost Crose 100s High Low Lost Cr	Seles in Net Somes in 100s High Low Last Chipe 100s High Low Lost Chipe	1004 High Low Lost Chies 1005 Lost 1004 High Low Lost Chies 1004 High Lost Chies 1
	OUSP 5 - 52 23 4111546 1336 1394 + 46 PRIVISIO 736 48 11600 1615 1616 1616 1616 1616 1616 161	InCruit s 35 7½ 7½ 7½ 7½ 10 Number 2 or 55 556 6/2 659 - 16 Sour InCodiny 100 500 7/2 37½ Number 2 or 55 556 6/2 659 - 16 Sour InCodiny 100 500 7/2 37½ Number 2 or 100 500 7/2 57 5/2 5/2 5/2 5/2 5/2 5/2 5/2 5/2 5/2 5/2	Ber 251 211 719 1214 + 14 Uniforce wor 15th Add 1414 + 114 171 1714 1714 1714 1714 1714
100s High Low Last Chipe Sales In Net 100s High Low Last Chipe C	Parkit: 46 4.1 7216 151/6 16 + 1/2 FISOR 168 158 7229 200 200 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100	int She s	## 62 4% 40 40% UNNell 134 34 2274 147 147 147 147 147 147 147 147 147 1
A AA Feb 117 StA 5 Sta + 12 Boherno 400 4.3 105 104 9ta 915 2 C AA Imp 47 107 108 104 104 105 105 105 105 105 105 105 105 105 105	umb 1777 226 236 236 436 1 Fitsect 1.18 6.3 1349 1709 17 1714 3 usb 1 12 2.9 116 646 4 4 — 14 Fitsect 1.7 2.3 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	Inffirm 16 3.3 109 776 174 776 46 COHIBO 122 38 3 5% 4 6 5 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 1
AFP 375 314 314 314 300 BoothFs 4521% 314 21% +1 C AIA an 322 1 31 34 4 BoothF 33715.1 90 2% 2 2% +1 C AMCbt 140 314 314 314 18 BoothFs 3715.1 90 2% 2 2% +1 C	PRIS Not 1 214 214 314 FTV31V 5 46 2.8 54.28 20 20 20 FTV51 1.200 5.7 8.21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 2	Incom 644 84 7 7 — 14 Onition 214 8.6 14425 25 25 Incom 14 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 25 1 100 144 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25	THE REPORT OF TH
AMC . 129 1.0 1741142 11 1734 + 86 Breckin 77 294 214 594 AT&E 39 492 4 4 4 4 1 8 Breckin 310249 259 2734 10 D AT&E 122 492 484 484 1 8 Breckin 9.59 170 444 4 414 + 92 D ATV 98 114 1 112 + 12 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 44 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 444 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 444 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 444 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 444 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 444 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 444 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 259 259 - 90 D AVM Cp 107 434 444 284 13 Breckin 1.16 4.5 12726 259 259 259 259 259 259 259 259 259 259	CTrol h 20 374 394 394 Patenti 1.12 28 24 2504 4514 4512 1 CTrol h 20 374 3v2 344 Patenti 20 5 237 3614 3612 1 EP 199 434 434 444 Electric 20 5 237 3614 3612 1	Invision 128 9.1 $4.1574 3574 3574 378 + 36 Oldford 20 7.8 72.1004 10 1094 - 16 Section 10 7.8 10 1094 -	10
Abrams .225 3.6 20 6 834 9 + 1/2 Bronif 328 2% 3% 3% Di Acsspirs 97 4% 4% 4% 4% 6 Bronner 6 6 6	MI 1502 9% 414 5% + 11/2 Floater 86181/4 151/4 141/4 + 11 NA PI 241 24 314 314 + 14 Floater 1002 74 75 74 + 1/4	Second	APIN .190 13 14 8 772 773 2 UNBERNI 1200 24 3792 3797 3797 3 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12
ACTIBID 125 379 314 379 44 BERGATAN 271 255 40 27 37 37 37 37 37 37 37 37 37 37 37 37 37	anibre 124 54 54 54 54 54 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5	The Yorkel	The control of the co
Actived 23.30 30 30 Schem's 276 39 39 44 46 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 4 56 5144 5145 5145	mers .10m 1.1 77 914 8 915 + 114 FlwSys 204154 15 154 + 14 April 15 154 + 14 April 15 154 + 1	JP Ind 151146 111/2 111/2 11/2 11/2 11/2 11/2 11/2 1	7 24 26 26 26 4 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10
AdvSem 5136 234, 2236—186 Burnes 930 634 644 De AdvSem 5136 234, 2236—186 Burnes 122 646 744 646 156	Things 1.00 6.1 144.3014 2914 2914 1115 Forsich 177 4 574 6 4 11 1115 1115 1115 1115 1115 1115 1	Jeffico	nead 30 1.1 193-0712 4876 4797 + 316 Univien 48 5.0 131376 1319 1319 1319 1319 1319 1319 1319 131
Accurrent 175 74 34 25 35 4 4 Built N 34 25 25 25 4 10 Di Acrisvo 178 274 3 2 14 Built N 174 274 274 274 274 274 274 274 274 274 2	2007 274 45 2006 4 546 6 + 16 6 + 16 600 45 63244 224 24 24 600 600 79 24 24 34 6 + 16 600 600 600 600 600 600 600 600 600	JetAum 28 476 472 46	20 24 14 14 14 15 16 16 17 17 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18
Afficor 1.00 48 222 21 71 - 12 C C Annicor 1.20 410 1114 1114 1144 + 14 CCB 2 46 12 20201/2 201/2 201/2 201/2 Anricore 120 1114 1144 + 14 CCB 2 46 12 20201/2 201/	Higher 28 22 1672 134 177 1314 4 Frinke 1326 24 1515 17 12 16 16 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17 17	Jenel un t 55.8% d 4 4 4 8 PCA het 25 300 9% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5%	318 Tiv 124 Tiv 140 Driverts 2 990 902 903 117 117 127 127 127 127 127 127 127 127
Adomed 40 19 477 2015 1615 2015 + 4 CONB 972 4.6 11 20 20 20 10 No. 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12	inforty 214 d.0 5536 354 354 FreeCt 107 4 36 36 3	KMW 5v 4 1034 1034 1034 44 508	CASC AM 48 125 181/2 181
Alskidi 1 61114 11 17 4 CNL Fn 159 4.0 269 296 296 206 208 208 208 208 208 208 208 208 208 208	153	K.P. 23 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	124 4.1 19 2012 20 2016 + 14 V Bond 248 416 593 416 + 16 V Bond 248 616 593 416 416 416 416 416 416 416 416 416 416
Alfcain 30 5 7736 55 55 -1 CVBFn 376 61 10116 11 11 4- 6 56 Alfstor	OCT V 3 20 2.8 4284 244 244 254 17 27 27 27 27 27 27 27 27 27 27 27 27 27	Karyers 1672 994 494 494 494 197 197 197 197 197 197 197 197 197 197	Right 1.02 9.4 1048 1345
Allored 20 85 814 815 + 14 College 24 2 300 170 170 170 College 24 2 300 170 170 170 College 24 2 300 170 170 170 170 170 170 170 170 170 1	Clean A 440 234 7% 366 Clear B 12 376 340 775 176 Clear B 123 35 176 775 176 Clear B 125 176 775 Clear	Kancop 44 79 34 34 4 P Parties 307154 13 13 4 Section 10716 14 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13	activi 67 794 716 716 10 VINSCO 2.000 34 /500 310 300 300 300 300 300 300 300 300 3
Americal 176 B 67 814 84 45 84 Discounty 126 45 34 Discounty 127 8 41 154 Discounty 128 45 34 45 Discounty 128 45 34 25 B 14 Discounty 128 45 34 2 B 14 Discounty 128 45 2 B 14 Discounty 128 45 2 B 14 Discounty 128 45 2 B 14 Discou	merits 12 5 4 10 5 10 5 10 5 10 5 10 5 10 5 10 5	Karroton Kar	Mos 1918 3 29: 5 + 36 Votrien 40 3.5 417 1947 77 + 60 195 195 195 195 195 195 195 195 195 195
ABRUT 120 40 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25	essect 1686 IV: If If If If I K GriShel 40r 28 4777 I2 12 IEs 3 26 3% 3% 2% 2% GriShel 40r 28 4777 I2 12 IEs 3 26 3% 3% 2% GriShel 40r 28 4777 I2 12 IEs 3 12 IE	1 Kiney up 21/2 21/2 11/2 Marchine	tes 1.80 27 44.20% 27 27% Velosic 1501°14 184, 194, - 44 56 47 1 113, 1714 + 44 176 27 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 4 4 56 47 56 4 56 4 56 4 56 4 4 56 4 56
AFR PRO 100 113 8% 8% 8% 8% Corrishe 744 744 DO AFR PRO 110 113 8% 8% 8% 8% CORRESPONDENT 110 110 110 110 110 110 110 110 110 11	esser 1721864 15 18 — 12 Genove 10e 2.4 132 412 4 412 event 1 173 114 114 114 1 Genove 77 314 314 114 116 Genove 77 314 314 314 116 Genove 77 314 314 314 314 314 314 314 314 314 314	Klestrd	Scp. 1.12 48 44 2394 2174 2395 + 1 5 orf 2.44 97 592572 25 5254 Viction 1.00 46 65 2972 28 2975 5 5 un 2012594 2594 575 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 156 156 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 156 156 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 156 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 135 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 135 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 135 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 135 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 135 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 135 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 4 Viction 1.00 3.0 20 1394 134 135 135 135 135 135 135 135 135 135 135
AFFUCT 28 3.0 10 9% 2% 9% 4 % Cascode 140 3.0 85.39 38% 39 4 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	uss a 119 5% 3% 3% 3% Germ 10a 1a 84 8% 5% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6%	Description 1	early 712 546 7 876 + 166 Verbach 25'4 646 576 334 376 586 587 15 29 38 376 376 587 587 587 587 587 587 587 587 587 587
Almord 10 14 44 44 44 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10	right 23 24 24 54 55 16 Glossii 156 13 9169124 77 124 156 156 157 167 124 114 1154 1154 1154 1154 1154 1154 1	LCSs 30 3 2 3 Perves 146 177 177 1810 1810 1816 1816 1816 1816 1816 1816	22 4 794 1 106 1 107 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
ALnd un 59 6 5% 5% 4 6 Comming 8,000 2% 2% 2% 2% EB And 150 8, 70 7% 14 4 AND 150 17 30 9 84 9 + 4 Comming 8,000 27 77 7% 14 EB And 150 17 30 9 84 9 + 4 Comming 8,000 27 77 7 7% 1 EM And 150 17 30 27 7 7 7 7 7 1 EM	Abor 188 left 14 14/1 + 10 200 CT 2 14/1 +	1	TO 11 278, 279 5% 14 WOODOI 15/16 15
Addenii 48 49 49 40 1 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	EM 115 814 514 514 674 Groden 6731114 138 1114 / line 7 74 214 314 Groven 473 134 314 315 1114 / stm1 7.4 1409 9 4 9 Groven 77 514 44 44 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	Limites 1.15 LG 577 274 276 276 2 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4	Seri 3No
ARRICE 100 070 100 070 100 070 100 070 100 100	inf 130 1 70 8 + w GiAmC 21 43 11 77 154 17 + w 177 1 54 17 1	Large 1 1 1 5 5 5 5 5 5 5	est 140 47 3430 30 30 30 WousePp 36 33 18811 11 11 11 11 14 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15
ATrust 12 4 2 2 ChneCo 30 514 414 459 45 415 415 415 415 415 415 415 415 415	Soulf Label0.5 113 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 13 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14	LandDv .54e 14 62 29 70 10 Photoc: 97 54 44 64 4 4 5urv LandDv .54e 14 62 29 70 10 Photoc: 97 54 44 64 4 4 5urv LandDv .54e 14 62 29 70 10 Photoc: 91 24 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34	Ter 50 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100
Amistro 71 61/2 64/2 64/2 75 Charcan 70 41/2 41/4 41/4 74/2 71/2 71/2 71/2 71/2 71/2 71/2 71/2 71	orb 1 25 35 354 554 56 576 67974d 270 22 327 125 122 124 576 56 576 576 576 576 576 576 576 576	Def Point 18e 12 248 910 910 514 + 12 Privatin 24 40 116 415 615 615 615 615 615 615 615 615 615 6	Wespec 1, 28 27 122 1904 150 1504 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
Andreor 125 1014 9% 1014 + 1/2 Cariffell 17 7% 7% 7% 7% 1014 + 1/2 Chorinos 154 6 8% 8% + 1/4 Chorinos 152 6 8% 8% 4% 6% 6% Chorinos 8 21 285 154 154 6% 6% Chorinos 8 21 285 154 6% 6% 6% 6% Chorinos 8 21 285 154 154 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6% 6%	NAME 2.40 5.5 22.22 23 28 2 Gootfe 222 24 4 4 4 5 7 28 4 6 7 28 7 4 6 6 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7	Lilivas 20 11 518 77% 5 + vs Flores 4389 30 50 - 91 Syros Lilivas 3 36 25 1345 51 376 136 - vs Flores 136 136 25 1345 51 136 25 1345 136 25 13	777 5 774 1/2 44 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4
AndSA 78e 5.2 823144 144 144 145 146 17 Cheffet 63 1 16 76 17 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18	Total 1.28e 7.5 491516 14 15 - 12 Guest'S 224 914 912 904 + 14 15 - 12 Guest'S 224 914 912 904 + 14 15 - 12 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15 15	LineSty 33 2% 515 7/2 94782 1 14411 1994 11 + 14 1 14411 1994 11 + 14 1 1494 11 1994 11 + 14 1 1494 11 1994 11 + 14 1 1494 11 1994 11 1494 11	Windste 45.56 946 78 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4
Artistek .02r 1.5 17 136 136 136 136 136 137 Chesind 25 197 197 197 Englishmen	VIII . 10e 1.0 17910/2 10 10/4 + 16 HHGHT HCW	Linday 140 8.1 17.20 1975 1976 75 75 75 75 75 75 75	9 44 6 6 7 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10
Arthol 23 9% 9% 9% 4 4 12 Childs 3310 15% 11% 12% 4 34 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14	19th 3 22 1.3 44124 1134 13 + 14 14151 Mm 17 594 515 584 - 14 14151 Mm 17 594 515 514 - 14 14151 Mm 17 515 1514 1514 1514 1514 1514 1514 15	LOOKE 31 145 514 514 151 151 151 151 151 151 15	444 5% 6% 11% + 116 Whe sic 73 215 216 316 16
Shrion 76b 47 731645 16 144 + 4 Charles 424114 1115 1115 46 Env	77 1 185 6 0 9 + 1 Halffort 2016 5 31 4 4 4 4 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	LyonAtt 21714% 11 12% = 3% Possibah 24 29% 5% 29% Tork Possibah 27 6% 6 6% 1% 1 Tork Possibah 27 6% 8 8 1 Tork Possibah 28 8 1 Tork Poss	20 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10
Stron 37 844 845 845 14 Ctr5ou 1.00 3.7 199274 2644 2644 1 Earl str5y un 15 1444 1445 1 Ctr5ini 45 344 344 344 Earl		MCI wt 5185 134 116 136 136 Fright Ja 22 1822 Text Zide Al CAC Al CA	1 1 237 416 6 6 - 14 William 718 412 414 412 16
HIGHT 220 92 296234 224 224 4 Chartes 120 40 32 25 22 21 21 22 22 22 22 22 22 22 22 22 22	Lm 131892 1892 1892 HrrfStm 189 5.4 4054 5579 54 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	APS Bc 1.00 4.0 125 25 21 MCDand .52 9 15 5946 + 14	Mex 32 34 3444 % Western 36 37 291 4% 4% 4% 4% Western 36 37 291 4% 4% 4% 4% Western 36 36 4% 4% 4% 4% 4%
sufference 10 13 34 44 42 44 42 Clasicon 10 13 1129 2 244 44 Evr	2.14 11.1 10 1916 1979 1959 House C	Mostrick 1296 842 848 844 Prostly 20104 1096 1096 Television 1274 74 74 Prostlys 43 544 545 546 Trust Trust Appelo 4 25 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 15 14 15 14 15 14 15 14 15 14 15 15 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16 16	27 114 114 119 UE 807 234 216 216 11 ks s 106 4 594 4
ClearSiv	Herse 776 776 776 1 1 10 300 1 1 10 300 1 1 10 300 1 1 1 1	Address J. J. J. 13 9 9 9 Property 276 AM 64 64 64 64 64 64 64 64 64 64 64 64 64	TES AO S.S. 27 9/2 9/2 9/2 9/2 20 XONICS 1330 % % % % MA
GS 2512 1116 12 + 16 ClowCd 28 28 26 360 1016 976 10 FAM occurd 8 1.82 S.7 3928 10 18 CoostRM 193 446 446 446 476 FabroidLy 250 23 1573546 3446 3594 CoostRV 6 376 376 376 FabroidLy 250 23 173 369 369 369 Costlict 250 25 102 892 774 8 + 16 CostRV 6 102 892 8 + 16 CostRV 6 102 8 + 16 CostRV	Whi 20 3.3 54 94 234 9 + 14 Highward 370 24 283 294 294 294 394 394 394 394 394 395 355 355 355	Morrier 199-137 281404 1493 1493 1493 1704 181 181 181 181 181 181 181 181 181 18	THE
nCO PT 2-30 103 635 55 53 15	that 396 444 444 HmBns 20 3.9 44201/ 201/2	Mailfed 49 50 15124 12 13 — W Puscisc 1,12 51 3022792 27 25 — W Trium Acardine 5 4/4 9/9 4/9 12 77 74 Putniff 1,104 42 1673479 367 24/2 Tent Marshs 48 33 4715 16/9 14/9 34 14/9 74 Tent Tent Tent Tent Tent Tent Tent Tent	20 550 2.6 44 674 674 674 674 674 674 674 674 674
KGron Jobe J 315% 15½ 15½ 4 GBcap A John 52 107164 10½ 10¼ 4 ½ Francisco S 13 359 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25%	mBr .80 25 82327 309 329 + 24 HmFMb .34 14 38154 144 154 + 4 CO .30 24 13 74 74 74 HmFMb .37 41 40 1515 154 774 FmFMb .38 41 40 1515 1514 774	Morshil 2.12 47 994614 45½ 45½ 11½ 11½ 11½ 11½ 11½ 11½ 11½ 11½ 11½ 1	3 74 74 74 75 75 75 75 75 75 75 75 75 75 75 75 75
#500	Hts 105 20 50 50 50 20 4 6 20 4 6 50 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6	Movret 277 414 6 619 - 16 Quente 870 514 576 412 - 114 Tall's Adapta 570 574 570 + 16 Quente 861 676 676 476 472 Tall's Adapta 5 16 774 679 570 + 16 Quente 37 8 8 8 70 70 876 10
175C6 120 28 1993C4 314 32 — 14 Compen 53 104 1 1 — 14 Fifth Right G 11314 1314 1314 1314 1314 1314 1314 1	7707 280 49 4999 30 40 49 49 49 114 114 11707 11	McGrap 1.80 5.0 15364 2616 3546 Warring 6 137 1074 974 975 77 Town McGrap 27 1174 11 1110+ 12 August 12 1176 12 1176 1176 1176 1176 1176 117	ne 377 3 67772 11% 11% Week ended Augu 17
orden 1.00 3.9 13.25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25%	Aun 23 54 48 48 48 68 68 68 68 68 68 68 68 68 68 68 68 68	MedStrd 50 17 380.77 3514 3517 3524 3 RHT 2.32 5.0 120407 4672 4472 1 Trust MedSig 27 7 7 7 RHT CD 22 44 27 11% 1% 1 Trust Trust MedSig 4115% 14 4 1 5 1 5 1 5 1 5 1 5 1 5 1 5 1 5 1	777 165 574 274 274 774 175 50fes High Law Load Chapte 17 250 274 275 275 34 White B 2.577,048 275 275 275 275 275 275 275 275 275 275
15kini 7 528 % 16 1/2 CwithF 1486121 410 714 714 1/4 715 14 CwithF 1486121 410 714 714 1/4 714 174 174 174 174 174 174 174 174 17	April 39 Al 116/1314 114: 1314 + 12 identified an 34 22314 2845 2854 48 48 49 48 48 49 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48 48	Medicity 1.50 4.4 41.044 344 344 344 344 344 344 344 344 344	RE 14r 14 148 9 812 9 + 15 1ndBloot 1,000,400 376 3 376 346 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
STOCKER 150 15 096 644 444 444 — 14 ComSter 52 7.7 127 644 444 544 Fish Figure 54 44 545 Fish Figure 54 44 545 Fish Figure 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 54 54	Cas A0 20 428 1994 1994 1994 1994 1995 1 Impres 4 45 694 696 696 696 696 697 697 697 697 697 697	Merrist	750 L9 11 15 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10
cliwet 391 31/2 2 3 Cmp/sl. 1125 41/4 51/4 51/4 14 FICO	mrin - 40 22 41856 1866 1866 1866 1866 1866 1866 1866	Merry 1	79 1.6 25.6 6 58.6 2 4-8 4 7 7 58.6 1 1.5 90.7 90 shores 1.5 1.5 90.7 90.7 90 shores 1.5 90.7 90 shores 1.5 90.7 90 shores 1.5 90.7 90.7 90 shores 1.5
cohn wf 075 10% 24% 25% by CropDet 144 25% 25 25% by CropDet 177 5% 47% 5% 55% 3 CropDet 177 5% 47% 5% 55% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5% 5	mmB	Merrif Mich Mar Mich	108 5 796 5 + 16 37 2020/2 24 24/2 + 1/2 10 76 574 374 574
10 Colecti 23 34 14 14 FFed	35 98 444 14 14'4 4 1 100 1W01 244 10.2 57 26 26 4 19.4 10.6 18.5 24 3.1 4774 26 4 19.5 19.5 19.5 19.5 19.5 19.5 19.5 19.5	Marris p 128 10.5 227 N 222 277 + 16 Marris p 128 10.5 227 N 222 277 + 16 Marris p 128 10.5 27 N 222 277 + 16 Marris p 128 10.5 27 N 222 277 + 16 Marris p 128 10.5 27 N 227 + 16 Marris p 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	Treasury Bills
153 44 40 44 + 1 ComeO	FRM .10e 5 442014 1915 1915 - 12 Iteratory 531114 1974 1974 Iteratory 1975 - 131114 1974 1974 Iteratory 1975 Iterator	Micros 750 340 340 340 340 35 340 37	F AB 5 221 174 164 164 17 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
ORSD wir 217 5% 40 5% 0 6 Confir 1.00 5.7 3376 33% 23% 10 colors of colors o	7/10m 10 77 7 7 Interest 10 77 7 1 Interest 10 77 1 1 Interest 10 Inter	Minden 25 17 17 18 14 14 15 17 17 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18	EI AN 1.5 9 304 304 314 10-4 110-4 110-5 120-5 1
Topics	The second secon	MUNICIPAL 1530 06 416 416 - 16 RICHET 51327 206 23 + 116 UNITED	Fi As 1.5 1 304 794 314 15-12
12 3% 3% Sh Control A 2 and	of 8 28 100 1 2200 200 200 4 10 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100	Missens 2 24 34 50 15 214 2 2 - 16 Royer 30 24 3 30 24 3 4 3 5 5 5 6 6 6 6 7 5 6 6 6 7 5 6 6 7 5 6 6 7 5 6 7	Onsolidated Trading 1-2 10.21 10.22 10.25 10.27 10
DEGG 6 137 316 2% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3% 3%	130 4 31 12013/1 134 134 4 1 1714 2 13 13 14012 77 13 - 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	MonAvt .15 2.3 77 4V2 4 40 + V2 Retwirld 521 15 41144 1319 144 + 116 Monavt .15 2.3 77 4V2 4 40 + V2 Retwirld 127 9V2 24 3V4 Monaver .15 2.3 78 4V3 4 40 + V2 Retwirld 70 54 676 676 - 36 Monaver 1.30 2.4 434,311/2 201/2 11/2 + 1 Retwirld 44 4.6 52 9V4 5V4 5V6	1-2 10.27 10.27
A	Option & price Calls Futs Option & price Calls Puts	Monther 10 14 114 114 114 Rescribe 10041274 114, 12 - 12, 14 114 114 Rescribe 513 544 574 574 14 Finds MCSI 277 13 12 13 + 1 Rescribe 10041274 114, 12 - 12, 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14 14	Seles High Law Last Chres 1-77 10.67 18.45 10.67 11.45 10.67 18.45 11.67 12.50 10.67 11.17 10.50 10.46 11.17 10.50 10.46 11.17 10.50 10.46 11.17 10.50 10.46 11.17 10.50 10.46 11.17 10.50 10.47 11.17
American Exchange Option For the Week Ending Aug. 17, 1984	25% 28 % 7% r r 25% 25 7.44 1 r r 25% 25 7.44 1 r r 25% 25% 25 7.44 1 r r 25% 25% 25 7.44 1 r r 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25% 25%	Milstriar 12:3 77 12 12 Milstriar 13:3 14 3 Milstriar 13:3 14 3 Milstriar 13:3 Mi	A 11.20 to 50 1 50 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
otion & roles Colls Puts Control Colls Puts	### 40 554 r 1/2 Platform 55 876 r 1/4 1/2 Platform 56 876 r 1/4 1/2 Platform 56 876 r 1/4 1/4 1/4 Platform 56 876 r 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4 1/4	Michigan July 24 15/14/4 14/4 14/4 14/4 14/4 14/4 14/4	The state of the s
Aug nov Aug Nov 251/2 25 3-16 11/2 1-16 r 581/2 45 1/2 5-16 1 1-16 r 1-1		HFA 25 946 946 946 946 946 946 946 946 946 946	1244 60 754 744 744 744 744 744 744 744 744 744
Aug flov Aug Nov 2516 2219 25 3-14 17 1-14	F C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C	with the state of	2.253.200 30% 29% 27% -112,
74e 30 1-46 194 9 396 N Serrel 19 34 21-16 r r (beath 2 36 2.36 15-59 77e 35 r 4-16 75 r r Robblef 10 544 r r r 2016 2 31-16 5-16 77e 7 1945 r r r 1 2016 2 31-16 5-16 15 54 2 15 r 7 1 1946 15 55 2 15 2 15 r 7 1 1946 15 55 2 15 7 7 1 1946 15 55 2 15 7 7 1 1946 15 55 2 15 7 15 1 15 1 15 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	17% 22 Ma 196 2% 20 Ma 196 2% 2	Chy Ben 1 177 174 174 174 174 Soll-lift 2300 1472 1474 144 Menu h	nged: 254 UC 9 101.57 foths: 75 : new lows: 34 D44 97.576 Guilders 91.387
5'- 55 3-16 4% 1-16 4% 44% 55 r 1% r r Channe 35 r r 5'- 60 1-15 7/2 6 7% ODECO 35 7 r r r 4114 45 2% 3/2- 5'- 46 r 1'- 9% r Penney 45 r r r 9-16 41% 45 r 116	10 0-16 3501 20 5 554 10 1 400 4040 15-16 3 6 5 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	HICHT 190 73 194 194 139 139 139 139 139 139 139 139 139 139	15.420.000 st pres F short learn 11.401
Con 48 715	r r Silva 59 30 70 r 314 r Pendin 50 15-16 250 650 r 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	Visited 8 31 7/9 7/9 7/9 7/9 7/9 7/9 7/9 7/9 7/9 7/9	dese LAGUORAGO shores ECU short term 97.756
51 70	7 26 3415 35 134 2 115 2 115 25 1315 23 1315 124 10 10 114 115 115 115 115 115 115 115 115 115	18 6 15 6 154 174 174 184 184 184 184 184 184 184 184 184 18
775 25 574 414 1 10 4574 50 1 176 15-16 1 254 20 13-14 21-16 179- 40 1 13-14 574 1 1 4574 50 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	1 Belliso 25 1 1316 1 Striker 15 1 1345 1 1	Fort Sun 25 9/6 9/4 9/4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4
10 1846 F F F Secrity 40 874 10 F 2876 25 52 F	133 30 20 2 284 r 44 Sylven 20 144 r 7 r 144 Sylven 20 144 r 7 r 1 8 sylven 20 144 r 7 r 7 r 1 8 sylven 20 144 r 7 r 7 r 1 8 sylven 20 144	herrer 47 % % 3 % 3 % 6 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
45 r 9 16 69 r 54 98 49 594 r 116 G Tal 25 r r 19 50 r 12 r r 34 33 1-16 7 r r 4812 45 11/2 294 11/2 3 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10	T I Berright 45 12% r 1-16 14 15 764 46 r r 1-16 r 7 70 70 70 70 70 70 70 70 70 70 70 70 7	Yritr 400 74 7700 138 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 12 150 150 150 150 150 150 150 150 150 150	change Conference n, November 26-27
12 r 1-16 Sty r Shirth 30 Stk r 1-16 r Giller 45 r 6472 r 5182 15 273 236 r 1-16 Sty r 5182 258 25 36 119 1-16 r 4776 25 146 119 1-1	10	London London	n, Nowember 26-27
Also 16 1-16 1. This 550 r 5 She'lly 35 5% r 1-16 r 6 She'lly 35% r 10-16 r 6 She'lly 35% r 10-16 r 7 She'lly 35% r 10-16 r 10-16 r 7 She'lly 35% r 10-16 r 7 She'lly 10-16 r	T 1 Dearth 70 T 7 1/2 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	The tenth Internations	al Herald Tribune conference on "The Exchange Risks" will, among other things, election results on international currency
As 30 r 5-16 990 r Tennicus 33 3 r r 13-15 10-15 20 r 1-16 10-	5-16 F 9376 99 8 1796 256 F 13 25 276 367 F 7 13 25 276 36 F 7 13 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25	MANY 15 J 25 SE THE SEC OF U.S.	election results on international currency
12	5-16	markets. The conference has be	come a key event for comorate tracer-
40 719 334	16 r 10 10 12 102 r 23 25 10 10 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	finance directors and inter
	1 214 474 95 514 1516 F F PROCESSA 45 1516 F F	HIVE 272 43 MG CTC CTC + K FOR representation inform	DEBOR DIPRE CONTACT Succes T = 1
270 30 r111-16 r 770 136 16 2-16 40 40 40 40 40 40 40 40 40 40 40 40 40	T 122 133 35 14 14 15 1 1 14 15 1 1 14 15 1 1 14 15 1 1 14 15 1 1 14 15 1 1 14 15 1 1 1 1	Londo Londo Londo The tenth Internations Management of Foreign I assess the impact of U.S. markets. The conference has be finance directors and inter For registration inform Conference Manager, 181	nation, please contact Susan Lubomirski, Avenue Charles-de-Gaulle, 92521 Neuilly ne (33.1) 747.16.86 or telex 612 832F.

œ

NASDAO	National	Market

TOTISH MISTREE .60 .050 1 Negotia National Nati

.84 2.3 1.60 5.1 1.00 5.3

2.20 4.9 1.00 5.4 1.40 42 1.60 19 .44 95

trading floor in

News hot from the

Outlook for UPI Is Clouded by Cash Shortage

For instance, some larger UPI clients feel that the company it has been hurt by the sale to Reuters in June of its foreign photo unit, which some clients considered to be one of UPI's best services.

Since May, UPI, which is privately owned and has released little financial information, has been circulating a confidential investment memorandum prepared by G. Wil-liam Miller & Co. of Washington, offering a 30-percent ownership in the company for $12 million.

According to the memorandum

the money would be used to meet an estimated $7-million operating deficit in 1984, pay overdue bills from companies providing services to UPI and fund an expansion into new information services. Sources within the company, who asked not to be named, said there have been expressions of interest, but no firm offers.

UPI had operating losses of nearly $23 million in 1982 and 1983, according to the memorandum, and owes about $9 million to companies providing services to UPI, such as American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

But the confidential document also predicts optimistically that the company could show a $6.3-million operating profit in 1985, based on some success in slashing expenses such as high communications costs, increasing sales of its basic service, and creating some specialized in-formation services, such as a new high-speed stock-market report. By $50 is 1987, the memo states, after-tax year. earnings are projected to be $18.4

Some experts say that UPI could carve an important niche in the highly competitive field of special-ized information services, despite dn not become effective for up to such competitioo as The Associated Press, Reuters, Dow Jones & and broadcast stations' existing Co., Telerate Inc., and, on the technological side, International Business Machines Corp.

dispute the not become effective for up to two years because the newspapers' existing contracts, often with AP, must expire before UPI's services begin.

As a result, sales generally repretor-in-chief, thinks UPI can be-come profitable. I think we can make it without outside income."

A more pessimistic view is held by some industry analysts who ar-gue that, even with a large capital infusion, UPI's chances at longterm profitability are slim because the nation's No. 2 general news service behind The Associated Press, a news cooperative owned by its member print and broadcast or

"UPI is attempting to be a profit-making enterprise up against a cooperative," said John Morton, an media analyst fur Lynch, Jones & Ryan, a Washington, D.C., investment firm. "I don't think there is that UPI has made important strides in the last two years in winning new business, and the company cites record sales of $24 million for the first half of 1984, with about $50 million projected for the full gathering system.

It must also cut costs, but thereby runs the risk of diminishing its basic service and losing customers.

For instance, some larger UPI clients feel that the commany it has probability by provioung selective information on demand to customy years.

To win new business, UPI has mounted an aggressive sales effort and offered significant discounts to prospective clients who agree to prospective clients who agr specializing in the information field.

The company has entered the special-ser-vices field with a several ventures, including a Spanish-language news service, a regional eco-nomic report and a service that culation, costs $2,545 a week. But provides news to cable-television presidential primaries is frequently singled out for praise. of the limitations inherent in being in some areas, especially national aod international news and sports," said Gene Roberts, executive editor of The Philadelphia In-any way they can beat AP."

Maxwell McCrohon, UPI's edi-

Mr. Ruhe and Mr. Geissler argue

UPI counts sales as the total value of new, usually five-year, contracts for news and photo services using its services.

"I think that they're quite good quite profitable for them.

(Continued from Page 7)

But they stress the opportunities sent revenue in future years, and potentially highly profitable, information services from its current communications and newsgathering system.

But they stress the opportunities sent revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the mean about $5 million in new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the mean about $5 million in new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the mean about $5 million in new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the mean about $5 million in new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the mean about $5 million in new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the mean about $5 million in new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the mean about $5 million in new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability involved with gathering or processing the new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability with gathering or processing the new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability with gathering or processing the new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability with gathering or processing the new revenue in future years, and UPI estimates that this year's profitability with gathering or processing the new revenue in future years, and upper labelity involved with gathering or processing the new revenue in fut and Mr. Geissler, 38, have had to scramble for cash to keep the company going, while spending milsuch as replacing telephone lines pay full fees by the end of the five-with satellite communications. year contract period. At present, UPI's basic news and photo service, according to the rate book, for a newspaper of about 100,000 cirstalled about 2,500 earth stations to many UPI clients do not pay full receive its satellite transmissions, representing savings of about $4 millioo annually. Aiding the sales effort has been a

The oew owners decided that UPI should emphasize state and strong desire from many media ex-ecutives to bolster UPI as an important second voice among generreginnal news coverage, and set out news services. And many say to distinguish itself from AP by that the service has improved dur-ing the last two years. For instance, and flexibility to its clients. The UPI's delegate count during the company negotiated a new contract with the Wire Service Newspaper Guild that gave new latitude in shifting personnel. It announced last week that, over the cext three years, it would shift jobs that involve processing news at central offices to news gathering from the quirer, a newspaper that bad dropped UPI and resumed the ser-vice less than two years ago. "Es-sentially, we're glad to have them back," he said. Contrary to rumors at UP1 of a 5 to 15 percent cut in jobs, Mr. McCrobon, said last week that the restructuring effort was expected to affect 30 or 40 jnbs, or 2 percent or less of UPI's employees.

Much of UPI's gain has come from large news media organiza-tions that have decided they could Mr. Ruhe and Mr. Geissler also afford to resume UPI service behired Mr. McCrohon and William J. Small, both seasoned news pro-fessionals, to lead the news side of cause the last two years have been the company, and the company is But most media executives indicate their support might nnt extend to preventing UPI's failure. now offering new services, such as Custom News and Custom Data, to Despite recent UPI gains, its ri-val, AP, dominates the nation's its regular clients .

general news-service business. According to AP, of the nation's 1,695 daily newspapers, 1,302 subscribe to AP and 608 use UPI, with many of the larger newspapers (alignment).

of the larger newspapers taking various services from both. UPl Wednesday it announced that G. projects that for 1984 it will show a Nogales, the executive vice presinet increase of 11 oew newspapers dent for administration, would be-come UPF's general manager, a UPI now maintains 190 domes- move insiders at the company say is tic bureaus and 70 abroad, and has designed to firm financial planning about 2,000 employees, of whom and decision making.

BOATS & RECREATIONAL	INTERNA	SERVICES BRUSSELS YOUNG LADY componen
VEHICLES	(Cor	YOUNG LADY COMPANION. Los don/Heathrow, Tel : 244 7671
fisher, superb condition, recently overhoused, sound double-shaned hall, new leak deck. Two colerpillar 460 HP each, Chile 2-900 from: Smet	SERVICES	SERVICES	SERVICES	HONG KONG 3-721 3918, Youn ady companion, 460 HP each. Only 2,500 hours, Guest accomodation for 6 + 2 crew, Fully equipped. Decar radar, autopiat, etc., Landon register, Beautiful yacht ready to cruise. US $300,000, or nearest offer, Viewing Artibes, Tel: (33)-93-504962 or 301215.	AMSTERDAM LADY COMPANION charming educated inques	PARTS V.I.P. LADY 553 62 62. Young, educated, mubilingual, your PA in Parts & intil travel companion.	H/KONG/KOWEOON: 723 96 86 European Muhilingual Lody. LONDON VIP LADY, London/Health-	LOW COST FLIGHTS NY ONE WAY $150, Everyday N.Y. West Coast $141, Paris 225 92 90.
offer, Viewing Artibes, Tel: $33-93- 504962 or 301215. SERVICES	charming educated ingust INT'L TRAVEL. [020] 18 21 97 YOUNG TRIUNGIIAL LADY	SOCIETE DIANE PARIS 260 87 43 Men & women guides, security & rent- ing cor services, 8 cm - 15 pm.	row. Tel: 01-769 0409	TO USA FROM £119 one was NATC Lendon 01-734 8100.
. SERVICES	PARIS: 525 81 01	SINGAPORE INIT'S GUIDES, Call: Sin- gapore 734 96 28.	LOS ANGELES 714 828 3238 lody companion and guide.	HOTELS
YOUNG LADY - PA/Interpreter & Tourism Guide -	INT'I. LADY GUIDES day & night in Peris & Airports 527 90 95	ATHENS, Lody companion and person- ol pseistont, Tel: 8086194.	PARIS YOUNG LADY, lourist guide, doy-night, Tel; 807 8495. LADY INTERPRETER trovel compon-	INTERNATIONAL HOTEL ACCOMMODATION or competitive rates, London-Amsterdar
PARIS 562 0587	LONDON, Sophisticated, beautiful French & Scandanavian Lady Guide. Tel: 01-381 6852.	YOUNG LADY, linguist, chauffeur, will brovel, Landon: 747 3304. TOKYO 645 2741. Touring 8 shop- ping guides, interpreters, etc.	lon, Tel: Poris 633 68 09. BRUSSELS VIP ESCORT, Travel Companions. Tel 02/537 33 97	New York-Washington-Orlando-Phi
ESCORTS & GUIDES	ESCORTS & GUIDES	ESCORTS & GUIDES	ESCORTS & GUIDES	ESCORTS & GUIDES
INTERNATIONAL	* USA & TRANSWORLD	LONDON	ZURICH	VIENNA ETOLLE ESCORT SERVICE Tel: 56 78 56. DUESSELDCRE/Cologne/Esser: 584
ESCORT	A-AMERICAN ESCORT SERVICE. EVERYWHERE YOU ARE OR GOL. 1-813-921-7946 Call free from Posicis: 1-800-287-0892 Coll free from Posicis: 1-800-282-0892. Lowell Existent welcomes you back!	Portman Escort Agency 67 Chillean Street, London W1 Tel: 486 3724 or 486 1158 LONDON KENSINGTON ESCORT SERVICE 10 KENSINGTON CHURCH ST, W8 TEL: 937 9126 OR 927 9123 LONDON WEST ESCORT SERVICE 10NDON WEST ESCORT SERVICE 10NDON HEATHROW & GATWICK TEL: 01-747 3304	NATHALIE ESCORT & GUIDE SERVICE Tel: 01 / 47 55 82	English Escort Service, 0211 / 383141 VIENNA - EXCLUSIVE Escort Service
USA			CHELSEA ESCORT SERVICE. 51 Beauchomp Piace, London SW3. Tel: 01 584 6613/2749 [4-12 pm]	Tel: 47-74-61. FRANKFURT REGINA'S ESCORT Service. 069 / 819811.
Head office in New York 330 W, 56th St., N.Y.C. 10019 USA 212-765-7896			GENEVA CHARLENE Guide Service. Tel: 295 395.	FRANKFURT JENNY ESCORT & Frank service. Tel: 069-557210
212-765-7754 Local, National & International MAJOR CREDIT CARDS AND OFFICES ACCEPTED Private Manhanisips Available			GENEVA TOP ESCORT SERVICE TEL: 29 81 30	WASHINGTON, D.C.: Sondy Esco Service. (703) 549-1255. GENEVA JADE DOMINA Escon Se vice. Tel: 022 / 31 26 73.
	ESCORT SERVICE IN NEW YORK		DOMINA, AMSTERDAM ESCORT	BRUSSELS. CHANTAL ESCOR Service: Tel: 02/520 23 65. FRANKFURT "TOP TEN" Escori Ser
This councid-winning service has been featured as the top & most accelerate because the top & most accelerate because the top & the top as the	TEL: 212-737 3291.		GENEVA V.L.P. ESCORT SERVICE + broval / weekend, Tel: 86 05 19	vice. 069/576052. MUNICH 'STARWOOD' Escort 4 Guide Service. Tel: 089/4486038
Including redio and TV.	LONDON	LA VENTURA	+ trovel / weekend. Tel: 86 05 19 MAAMI, FLORIDA Escort Service. 305- 945-3650 or 940-3635. N.Y. CITY 212- 239-4047 or 239-4294	FRANKFURT - PETRA Escort & Trave Service. Tel. 069 / 68 24 05 KAREN ESCORT SERVICE Fronkfur
REGENCY	BELGRAVIA	NEW YORK ESCORT SERVICE 212-888-1666	239-4047 or 239-4294 LONDON ESCORT AGENCY. Tel: 935-5339.	Tel: 009 681 662 NEW YORK, RENEE & Gobrielle Es cort Service, 217-223-0870.
WORLDWIDE MULTILINGUAL	Excert Service. Tel: 736 5877.		LONDON ESCORT SERVICE Tel: 937	FRANKRURT SONIA ESCORT Ser vice. Tel: 069-686562
NEW YORK OFFICE		ZURICH Manique Excert & Guide Service fal: 11 / 361 90 00	MADRID IMPACT ESCORT & Guide Service. Multiingucl. 261 41 42. VIENNA VIP ESCORT SERVICE. Tol:	AMSTERDAM MESSALINA Escor Service: 836554, The Hogue: 875563
Tel: 212-838-8027	LONDON	Tel: III / 361 90 00	(Vienno) 65 41 58	NEW YORK: RENEE'S Escort Service Tel: 212-581-1946. FRANKFURT + SURROUNDING:
å 212-753-1864	BEST ESCORT SERVICE TEL: 200 8585	ZURICH	HOLLAND-JB Escort Service. 020- 222785, 030-944530, 02997-3685. LONDON GENE ESCORT Service. Tel: 370 7151.	Christing's Escort Service, 069/364656 PRANKFURT/ MUNICH Male escor service 069/386441 8, 089/3518226.
ARISTOCATS Lendon Escort Service		GINGER'S ESCORT SERVICE TEL: 01/363 06 64	LONDON STYLE ESCORT Service. Tel: 01-206 1324	PRANKFURT GINA Excert Service. Tel 069/558-826.
128 Wigmons St., London W.1. All major Credit Cords Accepted Tel: 437 47 41 / 4742	MADRID INT'L	ROME CLUB EUROPE ESCORT & Guide Service.Tol: 06/589 2604-589 1146 (from 4 pm to 10 pm)	LISBON V.I.P. ESCORT AND GUIDE Service. Tel: 76-25-04, 2 pm - 12 NEW YORK CITY, MONIQUE Christi-	MUNICH FIRST ESCORT SERVICE Tel: 915207 / 912314.
12 neon - midnight	112: 246 07 60 CIGEDIT CARDS.	1146 (from 4 pm fs 10 pm)	na Beth Escort Service. $12-807-1756	MUNICH WELCOME Excert Services Tel-60 94 69

The fifth annual International Herald Tribune/Oil Daily conference on "Oil and Money in the Eighties" will be held in London, October 18-19, 1984. Chief executives of major oil companies in Europe, the Middle East and the United States will outline and discuss prospects and strategies for the mid 1980's.

For registration information, please contact Susan Lubomirski, Conference Manager, 181 Avenue Charles-de-Gaulle, 92521 Neuilly Cedex, France, or telephone (33.1) 747.16.86 or telex 612 832F.

ACROSS 56 Surface a road 57 Am Arbor's 1 Urge, with river 58 White-talled 4 Disney pooch eagle 59 Cry of regret 13 Canvas cover 60 Take the for short stump 61 Backward 15 "Enigma Variations composer 16 Hankering

17 Close 18 Radium discoverer
19 Largest of the Marianas 20 Relativity theorist 23 Dove sounds 24 B'way sign 25 Profession 28 Docility 33 Ringed by 34 Modern songwriter 35 Venus, to Virgil 36 Theme of this puzzle 49 Before, to Prior 41 Having wings 42 An N.B.A. 43 Uninhabited 45 Spread out 47 Hiatus 48 Just fair

Letteron

YOUD

BOVAR

SCYTIK

EMFONT

EUROPE

MIDDLE EAST

OCEANIA

8-20

gravitation propounder

star? 62 Decimalsystem units 64 Olla, e.g. DOWN 1 Sicilian votcano 2 Celt

Milano

28 Hackneyed

27 Baptism and bar mitzveh

29 Toward shelter

_Lama 38 Newman

hockey film

is a friend lost". H. B.

30 Old Ford car 31 Fight 32 Like a brat

34 As quick

39 "A friend

44 Female

Hugh-

49 Vendition

52 River in

53 Snare

50 Physiologist

Pavlov 51 Invisible vapor

45 Plot's main premise 46 Compass point 48 English

entomologist

3 Snatch 4 Region 5 Hints 6 Fields for Fabius 7 Principal 8 Newspaper people 9 Word with hearted or toed 16 Needle case

11 Scrutinize 12 Lawmaker re electrical resistance 14 Go before 21 Fish eggs 22 Council of DENNIS THE MENACE

"DON'T YOU KNOW ANYONE ELSE ?"

JUMBLE THAT SCRAMBLED WORD GAME
by Henri Arrold and Bob Lee

Print enswer here:

Answer: What the doctor said when the patient complained of ringing in his ears—YOU'RE SOUNO AS A BELL

ASIA

Bengkok Befiling Hore Keng Mealle New Delhi Socal Shamshal Shamshal Shapepera Taisei Tokyo

or Tolerel
(r Tolere
(r Tolere
)
r AFRICA
(r Algiers
(r Cajre
)
r Cajre
(r Capabblanca Harare cl Legos (r Natirobi
(r Tunis
(r LATIM A) cl (d Beenas Aires a Lissa (r Mexico City
o Rio de Jameir

LATIN AMERICA

NORTH AMERICA

| Beenes Aires | 17 63 8 46 C | Lime | 22 65 13 55 0 | Merdico City | 23 73 14 57 c | Rio de Jametro | 20 68 14 57 0 | Son Psolo | --- --- | ng

Friday's Jumbles: ALOOM FENCE MUSLIN LIQUID

WEATHER

26 77 9 48 21 88 23 73 32 90 17 63 27 62 15 59 31 88 21 70

sh-showers; sh-slow; sh-stormy.

MONOAY's FORRCAST — CHANNEL: Slight to moderate, FRANKFURT: Foogy early, lair later, Frank 2-13, 182–451, LONDON; Folir, Temp. 33–14 [86–57], MAGRIO; Fair to stormy, 17 tomp. 25–15 (77–39), NeW YORK; Cloudy, Temp. 25–16 (77–64), PARIS; Fair, Temp. 30–11 [86–52], ROME; Foogy early, lair later, Temp. 21–21 [86–52], ACME; Foogy early, lair later, Temp. 21–21 [86–52], LANGKOK; Thunderstorms, Temp. 31–22 [86–72], MAGRICA; 17 (38–31), MAMILLa; Cloudy, Temp. 31–24 [86–75], SEGUL; Showers, Temp. 25–25 [195–77], SINGA-PORE; Thunderstorms, Temp. 30–23 [86–72], TOKYO; Fair, Temp. 34–24 [93–77].

....

P. D.

WHEN A VANDAL MADE

A HOLE IN THE FENCE AT THE NUDIST CAMP,

THEY'D DO THIS.

Now arrange the circled letters to form the surprise answer, as suggested by the above cartoon.

54 Upon ---: 1545-63 25 Flogged, in a 55 Cozy place 56 Boone or O'Brien O New York Times, edited by Eugene Maleska

PEANUTS

HONEY, YOU,

BEETLE BAILEY

NO!

I TOLD HER HED DO WELL TO GET ON ONE OF THEM

TRAINING SCHEMES

THIN

CAN I

HAVE A

ANDY CAPP

WIZARD of ID

REX MORGAN

AS BERT YON DALE

APPLETON, HE ASKS

HER OPINION OF

VISITS WITH HIS

BURY

BUTICAL PARTY

HAS A

_THE

DONKEY.

THE

SHE'S A PRETTY THING AND. APPARENTLY, A GOOD NURSE

HAD AT THE HOUSE

ELEPHINT

SYMBOL

PASS,

AGAIN !

YOU COULD HAVE LEAPED INTO THE AIR, CRASHED NTO THE FENCE, HIT YOUR HEAR BROKEN BOTH YOUR arms, knocked Yourseli OUT AND MADE A SPECTACULAR CATCH!

てHINK

HOW

BOOKS

THE PYRATES

By George MacDonald Fraser. 406 pp. $16.95. Knopf, 201 East 50th Street,

New York, N.Y. 10022. Reviewed by Alan Ryan

T HINK of pyrates. No, no, not ordinary, A everyday-type pirates.

"Py-rates!" Bared teeth, flashing cutlasses.

evenauches, striped shirts, parrots on shoulders, sneering cries of "Aaargh!" and mocking laughter of the guttural "Har-har!" variety and don't leave out the ever-present pale and palpitating damsels in distress, sore in need of hasty rescue by a tall, fearless, clean-shaven hero with good grammar, nor the equally everpresent lusty wenches, bosoms appropriately a-heave — the whole bit, with the crashing crescendoes of a Korngold score in the background, as galleons toss, seas churn, cannons belch, the dreaded Jolly Roger flaps madly away, and everyone in sight has his eye on the gleam of uncountable golden treasure. Prestol

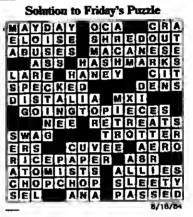

George MacDonald Fraser, one of the finest and funniest of British novelists, scriptwriter of "The Four Musketeers" and "Octopussy," crestor of the world's most lovable rogue, cad, bounder and coward, Harry Flashman, has a new book out called "The Pyrates." Really, that's all you need to know.

Listen to this:
"Wolfish bearded faces in the shadows, car-rings, head scarves, hairy drawers, dirty shirts open to the waist, bad breath, great buckled belts, cutlasses, knives and pistols gripped io gnaried and sweaty hands, and at their head, all in snowy white from breeches to head-kerchief, big as a house-side and nimble as a control lead that the lead has been control to the l cat. Calico Jack Rackham, none other . . . First among equals was Calico Jack, by reason of being literate and smart and able to navigate and do all things shipshape and Bristol fashion, look'ee. . . In our day he would have been a paratroop sergeant, or a shop steward, or a moderate Labour M.P. He was a pirate because it offered a profitable field for his talents, and he was saving for his old age." Then there's the frightening Firebeard, so named for his habit of tying lighted firecrack-

ers in his beard to terrify his enemies, and who rants and roars and regards everything wi a curse. And there's Bibo, a nasty sort who curse. And there's bubb, a nasty sort was aspires to foppish gentility, and Sheba, the black priste queen, who reeks of sex, danger, and Yves St. Laurent, and Happy Dan Pew, who tries to speak only French but who can't get much beyond Collins's Primer.

And of course there's the handsome heroclear skin. good grammar, classic fencing style, the lot - in the person of Captaio Ben Avery of the Royal Navy. And somewhere in the middle is the raffish and roguish Colonel Tom Blood, oot somebody you'd want your sister to date but an absolute ace at getting out of tight jams at somebody else's expense. And there are the ladies. There's lovely Vanity, daughter of Admiral Lord Rooke and the light of Avery's life, (Blood doesn't think she's half-bad, either). And there's the equally ravishing Spanish beanty, Donna Meliflua Etcetera, who talks like Charo and cries, innocent thing that she is, "Pliz, pliz, tek mee weeth yoo!" to the rascally Tom Blood. And, just for good measure, there are even some really bad guys, like the evil and odious Don Lardo Baluna dei Lobby y Corri-

There's even a plot, although it hardly seems necessary with a cast of characters like that set loose to roam the Spanish Main. You see, our loose to roam the Spanish Main. You see, our hero, Ben Avery, was charged with delivering a fabulous gem-studded gold crown to Madagascar. Being a hero, he chose not to attract attention and to transport it alone. Bad choice. First it's in his hands, then it's in somebody else's hands (and not very clean hands, either, you may be sure), then it's to everybody's hands, end so on and so on. Along the way. hands, and so on and so on. Along the way, there are lots of danger, derring do, captures, duels, heroic rescues and pitched sea battles, amid feminine squeals of both anger and delight, and in the end — as it's jolly well sup-posed to — everything comes out okay, or rather, mostly okay, since room is left for — God willing - a sequel.

Fraser's powers of invention are nothing less than fabulous, and he keeps it up, with stuff that's funny enough to make you laugh out loud at the printed page, for 400 pages. This is the ultimate send-up of pirate movies, Hollywood cliches, and every adventure tale ever written, with juicy parts for all your favorite actors, from Clark Gable to Leo Carrillo, from Tyrone Power to Tim Curry. The only thing even remotely similar is William Goldman's "The Princess Bride," and I hardly know how to praise a book more.

Alan Ryan is the author of "The Kill," "Dead White" and, most recently, "Cast a Cold Eye." He wrote this review for The Washington Post.

Jewison Film Set for Toronto United Press Intern

TORONTO — A murder mystery by film director-producer Norman Jewison will have its world premiere at Torooto's annual film festival Sept. 6 to 15. "A Soldier's Story." set on a segregated U.S. Army Base in the South during World War II, stars U.S. pop singer Patti LaBelle in her motion picture debut.

BRIDGE

By Alan Truscott

ONE of the commonest du-plicate or Chicago scores is 600, resulting from a con-tract of three no-trump when the declarer is vulnerable. All these elements were in place on the diagramed deal, but there was one rather vital departure strong-club system, so West was forced to open one heart was of good quality, but his general strength was rather be-

was a natural invitation to That was down six, and the game, and South was in some common score of 600. But it difficulty. He tried three no- was 600 to the defense instead trump, a reasonable shot that of to the declaring side. was made in the expectation of A silver lining for Northreceiving a heart lead.

Baseball

leading a club, and South now feared that East would win and shift to hearts. He survived this actually make four hearts, but danger, and won the first trick are not likely to bid it. Io the spade king as part of his opening bid, there would be eight tricks in sight and an excellent East and West used a chance of a ninth. South had slight misgivings when he reflected that West North ventured an overcall of one spade, which would not be to everyone's taste. His suit low the usual requirements East produced the spade when vulnerable king and shifted to hearts, so East's bid of three hearts the defense took 10 tricks.

South was that the unfavorable

West crossed him up by lie of the cards for them would be favorable for East-West in a beart contract. East-West can replay, the contract was four spades by North, down three, Now the prospects were much better, if West held the and West's team gained 7 international match points.

WEST (D) + 43 - A 10 65 - 18 4 - A K 6 4 2 SOUTH

> ♣ Q 10 3 Buth sides were vulnerable. The bidding:

4 10 0 8

West led the club four.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Carr de Naskra Captures Travers Stakes

SARATOGA SPRINGS, New York (NYT) — Carr de Naskra, whose speed carried him to an explosive victory in the Jim Dandy Stakes two weeks ago, came from off the pace Saturday under a shrewd ride by Laffit Pincay Jr. to win the $307.500 Travers Stakes at Saratoga Race Track $307,500 Travers Stakes at Saratoga Race Track.

The winner, owned by Virginia Kraft Payson and trained by Richard Lundy, paid $10.20 for $2 as the third choice to a field of nine 3-year-olds. The son of Star de Naskra and the Cornish Prince mare Cornish Runner was close up all the way on the rail, split horses in midstretch, then easily held off the fast-closing Pine Circle by three-quarters of a length. Morning Bob was up for third, 24 lengths behind the runner-up and 1½ lengths in front of Track Barron, the 8-to-5 favorite.

The victory, before a crowd of 39.071, made Carr de Naskra the clear leader of the 3-year-old division. the 3-year-old division.

McEnroe, Gerulaitis Reach Canada Final

TORONTO (AP) - John McEnroe defeated Jimmy Connors, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3, on Saturday and advanced to the final of the Canadian Open tennis tournament.
Seeking his first Canadian Open title, the seeded-second McEnroe was to meet Vitas Gerulaitis, the No. 8 seed, for the $60,000 first prize on Sunday. Gerulaitis defeated 13th-seeded Kevin Curren of South Africa, 4-6, 7-6, 7-6.

It was McEnroe's seventh straight victory over Connors. Ranked No. 1 in the world. McEnroe holds a 16-12 career advantage over Connors. world, McEnroe holds a 16-12 career advantage over Connors.

U.S. Soccer Leagues Fail to Reach Accord

NEW YORK (NYT) - The Major Indoor Soccer League and the North American Soccer League have failed to reach an agreement that would have allowed five NASL teams to compete in the indoor league this winter. The New York Cosmos, the Chicago Sting, the Minnesota Strikers and the San Diego Sockers had applied for participation in the MISL. The Golden Bay Earthquakes wanted to operate the Phoenix franchise of the MISL, which had been given a year's leave of absence and did not plan to operate this winter. They were refused collectively for oot meeting conditions set forth by the indoor league. Chief among those conditions were an admission fee of $400,000 each, and an additional letter of credit or performance bond for $250,000 each. Anaheim and Pontiac Get Football Bowls

ANAHEIM, California (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association has approved two additional postseason college football games: the Freedom Bowl for the City of Anaheim, California, and the Cherry Bowl for Pontiac, Michigan The Freedom Bowl, which may begin this year, will be an "open bowl" meaning that officials can select the two best college football teams in the United States available for the local contest. It was unclear how teams for the Cherry Bowl would

For the Record

Chang Jung Koo of South Korea retained his World Boxing Council light flyweight title Saturday by stopping Katsuo Tokashiki of Japan in the ninth round of their scheduled 12-round fight in Pohang, South Korea. (Reuters)

New Zealand won a rugby union series against Australia with a 25-24 victory in the third test, played Saturday in Sydney. The touring All Blacks had lost the first test, 16-9, and woo the second, 19-15. (IHT)

SCOREBOARD

Friday and Saturday Major League Line Scores

AMERICAN LEAGUE	Kenn
Aliwaukee 290 861 809—3 9 6	& HR
Cleveland 010 120 01x-5 0 0	Son I
Coconower, Lodd (8) and Schroeder; Blyle-	Phila
ven. Jeffcoot (7), Comocho (8) and Bando.	Los /
W-Blyleven, 13-5. L-Coconower, 8-13. HR-	Cor
Cleveland, Thornton (26).	Howe
Atinnesota 110 003-700—4 14 0	1-0
Baston 600 100 048—5 18 1	New
Viola, Lysander (8), Filson (8), Davis (9)	Sen I
and Laudner: Hurst, Crawford (8). Stanley	Goo
(9) and Newman, Gedman (9), W-Viola, 14-	Kork

Proof of the P

Football NFL Exhibition

Thursday's Game Pittsburgh 20, Datias 18 Priday's Games New England 31, Washington 27 Seattle 17, St. Louis 7 Sectife 17, St. Louis 7
Softwaren's Games
Defroit 17, Buffalo 12
Cincinnari 25, Chicasa 17
few York Giants 20, New York Jets (4 Philadelphia 31, Minnesota (0
Attanta 52, Tampa Boy 21
Kansas City 31, Cleveland (2
Denver 31, Indianapolis 0
New Cristons 21
New Colonna 21
New Colonna 21

New Orleans 21, Houston 19 Son Olego 35, Son Francisco 15 Los Angeles Roms 27, Green Box 34

CFL Standings

BESSET DIVISION
W.L. T. PF. PA. Pts
8 2 0 245 156 16
2 4 0 185 207 6
3 8 0 186 260 6
1 4 1 145 (84 ; Westers Division
4 1 9 225 (26
5 1 0 177 9)
2 4 0 100 215
2 4 0 107 1s3
1 4 1 127 174

Religious German

Friday's Game 44. Oftono 17

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Standings

Auto Racing

Formula One

AUSTRIAN GRANO PRIX (. Niki Lauda, Austria, McLaren, 1:21: (2.85), 2. Nelson Plauet, Broatl, Brothom-BMW, 1.21:36.376 1.21:36.376

1.AMChele Alboreto, Hoty, Ferrort, 1.22:01.849

4. Teo Fobi, Itoly, Brobhom-BANN, 1.22:07.163

5. Thierry Boulsen, Belokim, Arrows A7, 1 less

4. Morc Surer, Switzerland, Arrows A7, 1 less

7. Rane Amour, France, Ferrort, 1 less

8. F. Hesnaull, France, Lister Lote, 2 less

9. Janoffton: Palmer, Britain, Skoal-Bondil
Rom, 2 lose

9. Jonomes: Poumer, errors Rom. 2 lops 10. Riccords Potress, Hgly, Alfq Romes. 3 lops FORMULA ONE STANDINGS (. Nik) Lopids. Austrio, 48 points 2. Alohn Prost, France, 43.5
3. Ello de Angells, Italy, 24.5
4. Rone Arnouv, France, 24.5
5. Nelson Plausel, Brazil, 24
6. Derat Warwick, Strigtin, 23
7. Keike Rosberg, Finhoud, 28
8. Milentel Albarato, Italy, 15
9. Higel Monsell, Strigtin, 9
9. Patrick Tamboy, France, 9

respiraded offin I meser beim Appeting od that k einemich

gevino Ch

....

. 1.

athe Rain in

m's Results The second of th

1.4

i nega

All the second sections And the second of the second 17. 50 and star. 2 8 1 - 1 - 12 - 43-The second secon . . . 31 15 N 7 The state of the s the more than the Andrews Application of the during on A Street on the street of the st explosion of Policial erstalfer gebonen in half somsta Stage of an a Secretaria Lagran Theorie a torn othicses talker party or 1 is county

ada Wins oves Atop

Mary Comme $\frac{\int_{\mathbb{R}^{2}} f(E_{1,n})}{dE_{2,n}(E_{1,n})} = \frac{\partial \partial_{x_{1}} dL \partial_{x_{2}}}{\operatorname{Moders}}$

A Second Williams Transport dandings Section of the Roll Salara and Art Market the first American Viscontroyd $\{\phi_{i,j}\}_{i\in\{1,2,3\}}$

And the state of t 7 $(\mathcal{M}(1), 1) \in \mathbb{Q}_{\frac{n}{2} \times \mathbb{Q}_{2}}$ The second secon

With the second وليبان أساب $(A_{i_1},\dots,A_{i_m})_{i_1}$ of the large seg-1. 1.1 The region of the taken the region of the re And the second second $\mathcal{A}_{\mathbf{k},\mathbf{r},\mathbf{t}} \mapsto \mathcal{A}_{\mathbf{t},\mathbf{r},\mathbf{t}}$

And the second second The state of the s A transfer of the second Manager of the state of the sta

صكنا من الاحل

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE, MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1984

SPORTS

Trevino Clinging to 1-Shot Lead for the Final Round of PGA

By Mark Asher

BIRMINGHAM, Alabama -Uter 53 holes of going for every in and making only one bogey, 44-ear-old Lee Trevino got greedy aturday as he stood in a fairway unker on the 18th hole in the third ound of the PGA Championship

Let him describe how be hooked he ball into the water with a sixron. took a double bogey and finshed with a five-under-par 67 for a 4-hole total of 204. That left him a hot ahead of Lanny Wadkins (68) .nd two ahead of Gary Player (69), is playing partners, with whom he tarted the day tied for the lead.

"I got greedy with it." Trevino aid. "I had no business going for he green. There was a lip on the rap. I wanted to lift it over the lip and hook it on the green, but I sooked it in the water. I should save laid up with a seven- or eightron. If you gave me the shot over, I I had to do it over, I'd do that. But I haven't laid up any shot all at every drive. He was six under par shooting at every flag and forget-group, too, but could have been having the health back, I regained the driving skills and aggressive-after seven holes, and his only poor ting about it. As a result, it paid off even closer. He was five under par my confidence. . . . I'm playing bet-ness of both Wadkins and Trevino drive was his final one. "He really played an immaculate round of golf," said Player, who shot a 63 on Friday. "To end up that way was cruel."

As a result, it paid off and hopefully it will pay off tomorrow."

A good player is a dangerous golfer when he does that and, despite the double bogsy, Trevino's renity and his good feelings about his game, witnessed by a record crowd of 36,531 and a national feel like I'm in the driver's seat. They don't expect that much out of my game, and I really don't, either.

"I just go after every flag. I just shoot right at it, and if it comes off, it comes off. Like today, at No. 6, I had no business going with a threewood to that green, because I said: "Any guy within seven shots couldn't reach it, and you got to land that thing in a little 10-foot tournament." circle or you got oo shot.
"But I went with it anyway, and

But I haven't laid up any shot all as a result, I ended up eagling it [by pitching in from 40 yards with a sand wedge]. And that's what I did at the TPC. I played conservative the first day and shot 76. Now I'm

Bot the double bogey hardly seemed to interrupt Trevino's seemed to interrupt Trevino's seemed by a contract of the contract o pionship record of 11 under par. The 72-hole record is only nine trowd of 36,531 and a national television audience.

"I feel like I'm getting up to the age where nobody really expects that much out of my game anyway," Trevino said. "That's why I tournament record of 17 under by feel like I'm in the direct sent Floyd and Jack Nicklaus at the Hal Sutton, the defending cham-pion who made the 36-hole cut by only a stroke, had Saturday's best round, a 64 that with better putting could have been in the 50s. Player Among the other 11 players in that group were such top players as Floyd (69-208), Seve Ballesteros

(69-209), Hobert Green (66-210), Calvin Peete (69-210) and Sutton (211). Donnie

Saturday and 10 under for the tournament through 14 holes. But he made an ugly double bogey (bad drive, bad second shot, bad chip) at the relatively easy 409-yard 15th, made two more bogeys and finished at 71-210.

Trevino, however, expects the winner to come from his own three-some, which again will include Player and Wadkins. Trevino: "It'll come down to who hits the most fairways, because Lanny and I will not back off from the driver."
Trevioo says a victory here would mean more to him than the $125,000 first prize. "Once you get up over 40 and you haven't woo in so long, the question is always in the back of your mind, 'Are you capable of winning any more? There's no doubt in my mind that I

In fact, Trevino says his game is better now than in the late 1960s when he won two U.S. Opens, two British Opens and his only PGA Championship.
"The only thing I've gained back that I didn't have in 1980 was my health," said Trevino, who under-early '70s. I don't think I could verely penalizes errant drives. drive the ball as far back then as I can now. I definitely couldn't hit my irons as good. I can hit them higher and I can draw them now, as misses the fairway is to answer the vell as fade. And I'm putting like I did in the early '70s and late '60s."

Io addition to his eagle at No. 6, Trevino birdied the 409-yard first hole from 10 feet, two-putted for birdic four at the 530-yard third, made a 15-footer for dence at the 189-yard fifth, and left a 4-iron approach within 10 feet for his birdie on the 443-yard seventh bole. That put him at six under for

On the 177-yard, eighth hole, Trevioo missed a 5-footer for deuce. His only other birdie came at the par-5 11th when he came out of a greenside bunker and made an eight-foot putt. He hit every other green in regulation until the 18th, but the 10-font birdie putt he missed at the 197-yard 16th was his only good birdie opportunity.

Player plays conservatively — "I'd rather hit a 5-iron from the middle of the fairness that a wedge health," said Trevino, who under-middle of the fairway than a wedge early birdie opportunities, but went back surgery in 1982. "By from the rough" — but he praised failed to convert them.

ter than I did in the late '60s and on this 7,145-yard course that se-misses the fairway is to answer the phone. He's the straightest driver I've ever played with in my career."

Both Wadkins and Player made nifty, scrambling pars on the final bole. Player needed a good sand shot from a fairway bunker and a smooth chip for his. Two holes carlier, Player made a 40-foot birdie putt from an angle on which he had to putt through fringe. He and his caddy forgot to take the pin out. Luckily, Trevino reminded him in

On the 18th, Wadkins saved his par from the deep rough just off the green, gesting the chip to eight feet and then making the putt.

It was a shaky day for Wadkins the 1977 PGA champ. It took him more than an hour in bumper-tobumper traffic to make the oormal 10-minute trip to the course from his rented condominium. He had

Lee Trevino using some body English during the PGA tournament. He was ahead by one after three rounds at 204.

Athletes paraded into Lenin Stadium in Moscow to mark the formal opening of the Friendship '84 Games on Saturday.

In the Rain in Moscow. Men's Results Are Dreary

MOSCOW - Male athletes arned in modest performances as heir two-day track and field segnent of the Friendship '84 Games nded Saturday.

After the recent Olympic perfor-nances in seven track and field vents were bettered on Friday, nly one Los Angles standard was opped by the men Saturday. Oleg Protsenko of Soviet Union on the triple jump with a leap of 7.46 meters, topping Olympic inning mark of 17.26 by Al syner of the United States.

Alberto Juaotorena of Cuba ade farewell to major track and eld competition by finishing in a ead-heat for first in the 800 meters ith Ryszard Ostrowski of Poland. ut their time of 1:45.68 was modit, as were all the track results on a old and rainy evening.

In Prague on Saturday, Eastern

ship-84 - a three-day rout of the marks set in Los Angeles. In the discus and 100 meters alone, 12 discus and 100 meters atone, 12

Prague entrants bettered the results

Foster finished ahead of Roger Kingdom in the 110meter hurdles, a reversal of the Olympic result in the that won gold in California. The Friendship '84 Games are

Although the competition began company Friday, the official opening ceremony was held Saturday. Thousands of gymnasts, folk dancers and athletes filled the field of Moscow's Lenin Stadium as and joined in singing: "Sunny peace — yes, yes, yes. Nuclear explosion —

"Sport, Friendship, Peace." For the Soviet Union, who charged that the Los Angeles

Lewis Finishes 4th As Baptiste Wins Fastest 300 Ever

LONDON — In a stunning upset at the start of a five-nation, 10-day tour of Europe, Olympic superstar Carl Lewis finished fourth Saturday in a 300-meter race won by another American, Kirk Baptiste.

Baptiste, who finished second to Lewis in the 200 meters at the Summer Olympics, covered the distance in the fastest time ever, 31.71 seconds. The previous mark of 32.15 seconds was set last year, also in England, by Mel Lattany of the United States. Lewis ran 32.18, behind Todd Bennett of Britain who was second, and Walter McCoy of the United States, third. Because the 300 meters is not run in the Olympics nor recognized by the International Amateur Athletic Federation, Baptiste's time is not offi-cially called a world record, but a "world's best."

The 300 meters is a distance that is rarely run. Lewis, the Olympic gold medalist in the 100 meters, 200 meters, long jump and 4x100-meter relay, had never competed at this distance before, even though it was he who suggested to the organizers of Saturday night's track meet that he run that event at the outdoor

Crystal Palace sports center south of London. Lewis held an early lead but seemed to fade noticeably with about 100 meters left when Baptiste pulled even with him. Afterwards, Lewis said he "felt pretty good." The race, he said, was "a bit long" for him but that he was experimenting and wanted to try the longer run.

"But I'm oot too worried," he said. "It's the first time I've run the distance, so I haven't the experience.

Even so it's something of a shock. It brings you back to pest, then competes in the 100 meters Zurich on Wednesday, the long jump in Brussels on Friday and the 200 meters in Cologne on Sunday.

While Lewis found defeat in London, Greg Foster regained his peace of mind Friday night in West Berlin's Olympic Stadium.

same event. Running with a sore right ankle and, even more designed as a counterpart for the Olympics and a showcase for Communist athletes who boycotted the Los Angeles events.

Kinning with a sole light annual and the Chympics and a showcase for Communist athletes who boycotted the seconds, best in the world this year, to beat Kingdom's personal best of 13.17. They were competing in fast company as five of the eight Olympie finalists were in

> "After the Olympics, all my friends said I was still No. I in their book," Foster said. "But for me to believe that, I had to prove it to myself."

Foster said that he had considered canceling his European tour and returning home because of the yes, yes, yes, reacted explosion no, no, no."

Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the athletes shouted:

"Then, with the audience picking up the chant, the chant the chan person to run under 13 seconds and challenge Renaldo Nehemiah's world record of 12.93.

Foster and Kingdom were among the few athletes still delighted the track fans here, who consider him an trumpb was Baltimore's fourth who appeared at, or near, their best on a cool, overcast adopted son because of his marriage to a West Berlin straight over the Angels. The Ori-Ad and rainy evening.

In Prague on Saturday, Eastern urope's powerful women athletes and U.S. chanvinism, the contrast evening at the Olympic Stadium, site of the 1936 warm-up suit, was applauded.

Foster and Kingdom were among the rew ainletes adopted son because of his marriage to a West Berlin straight over the Angels. The Orioles used the double play to pull woman. His every move, including removing his oles used the double play to pull warm-up suit, was applauded.

(WP, LAT)

Boddicker (15-8) out of possible

Ashford and Gohr appear headed for a confronta-

Most of the other athletes here complained either about jet lag, a post-Olympic letdown, or both.

One of those was Edwin Moses, who easily won his 106th consecutive race, his 91st consecutive final, in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles but was not particularly pleased with his time of 48.49. He has consis-

Moses could have crawled across the finish line and Ashford refused to be drawn into a war of words.

She's a competitor, I'm a competitor."

tently run under 48 seconds.

winning in 10.94.

Games in Prague.

returning from a rotator cuff injury, allowed just an infield single to Wade Boggs leading off the game. Second baseman Tim Tenfel took the ball behind second but had no chance to get Boggs. Castillo allowed only one runner to reach second. He walked three and struck out one before being removed in favor of Rick Lysander to start the seventh. Lysander notched his third save of the season and second of the day, despite allowing a ninth-inning run on a dou-hle play grounder by Dwight Ev-

Kirk Baptiste (9) winning the 300 meters ahead of Carl Lewis (1), who finished fourth. The Twins took a 3-0 lead off John Henry Johnson (0-2) in the Another was Evelyn Ashford, the Olympic champisecond. With two out, Gary Gaetti, Teufel and Dave Meier singled for in the women's 100 meters, who ran a 10.92 in the semifinals, her best time ever at sea level and the one run. Houston Jimenez added a second-fastest time in the world this year, before two-run double off the left field

Trailing 4-3 entering the ninth inning of the opener, the Twins Both of Ashford's times were better than the 10.95 run by her East German rival, Marlies Gohr, Thursbegan their outburst when Teufel day night in winning at the Eastern bloc's Friendship singled off starter Dennis (Oil Can) Boyd, Bob Stanley (7-9) relieved and permitted Tim Landner's sin-East German newspapers made much of the fact in their Friday morning editions that Gohr's 10.95

gle and Jimenez's bunt single to load the bases. Thursday night was better than Ashford's winning time of 10.97 at the Olympics. Kirby Puckett's sacrifice fly off Mark Clear tied it 4-4, and Hatcher followed with his single to left that tion, perhaps as soon as Wednesday in Zurich. But scored piocb runoer Darrell Brown. Kent Hrbek's sacrifice fly West Berlin reporters repeatedly asked about her "big fight" with Gohr. "If you want to make it a big fight, then you can do that," Ashford said. "But I don't consider it a fight. It doesn't have to he that way. provided Minnesota with an insurance run. Ron Davis (5-9) pitched one inning for the victory. Lysander got three outs for his second save.

Orioles 1, Angeles 0 In Baltimore, the Orioles scored an uncarned run in their first time at bat to give right-hander Mike Boddicker the only run he needed in a 1-0 victory over California. The

To Move to 4-Game Lead in Division

BOSTON - Bobby Castillo innings. threw a one-hitter for six innings to White Sox 7, Blue Jays 6 help the Minnesota Twins open a At Chicago, Harold Baines hofour-game lead in the American mered twice, and Vance Law drove League West with a 3-1 victory and in three runs, including the game-winner in the eighth inning, to lift a sweep of their Saturday doubleheader against the Boston Red Sox. the White Sox over Toronto, 7-6. In the opener, Mickey Hatcher's

Tigers 4, Mariners 3 SATURDAY BASEBALL In Detroit, Kirk Gibson lined a tie-hreaking three-run homer in the bases-loaded single highlighted a three-run minth that lifted the sixth inning and Juan Berenguer struck out a career-high I2 batters to power the Tigers past Seattle, 4-Twins to a 6-4 victory. Castillo (1-0) making his first start and fourth appearance since 3. Gibson's 20th home run was his 15th game-winning hit of the season, a club record. Willie Hernandez finished for his 26th save,

Royals 5, Rangers 4 lo Arlington, Texas, Buddy

Biancalana hit his first major-league home rum, helping Kansas City beat Texas, 5-4. Bud Black (12-10) went 8 % innings, striking out five, allowing no walks and giving up eight hits. Mark Huis-mann relieved and picked up his second save Danney Dannie second save. Danny Darwin dropped to 6-9.

In New York, John Montefusco

'66 Orioles Top Old-Time Stars

BALTIMORE — Luis Aparicio led off the first inning with a double and scored to lift the 1966 Orioles to a 1-0 victory over a collection of Baltimore All-Stars in the team's 30th oldtimers' game Saturday.

Hank Bauer, who managed the Orioles to their first World Championship when they swept the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1966 World Series, managed his old team. Earl Weaver, who replaced Bauer in 1968 and retired in 1982, managed the All-Stars with Billy Hitchcock. More than 40 former Orioles took part in the three-inning contest. They included Brooks Robioson, Robio Roberts, Steve Barber, Bob Turley, Don Larsen, Gns Triandos, Jim Gentile and Paul Blair, who made a running catch off Pat Kelly's drive.

— making his first start since April-28 — combined with Mike Armstrong on a three-hitter, and Ken Griffey knocked in three runs to give the Yankees an 8-0 triumph over Oakland, Montefusco (1-2) allowed three singles before leaving at the end of six, having thrown 72 pitches. Armstrong pitched hitless relief over the final three innings

Giants 6, Mets 5

for his first save.

In the National League, in San Francisco, Manny Trillo's sacrifice fly delivered Jeff Leonard with the tie-breaking run in the ninth in-ning, giving the Giants a 6-5 victory over New York, Randy Lerch (3-1) pitched the ninth for the victory.

Braves 8, Cardinals 3

lo St. Louis, Dale Murpby went 5-for-5, hitting three doubles, and Glenn Hubbard added a three-run home run to power Atlanta past the Cardinals, 8-3. Murpby, with his second five-hit game of his career, became the first Atlanta player this season to score four times in one game. Danny Cox (6-10) took the

Astros 5, Pirates 0

In Pittsburgh, Mike LaCoss scattered five hits and Jose Cruz and Denny Walling knocked in two runs apiece to give Houston its eighth straight triumph, a 5-0 decision over the Pirates. LaCoss (7-3) left the game after seven innings with a blister on the middle finger of his right hand.

Cubs 13, Reds 11

In Cincinnati, Roo Cey and Leon Durham drove in three runs apiece and Chicago capitalized on four errors and a balk by the Reds for seven first-inning runs oo the way to a 13-11 victory. The decision, combined with New York's loss, raised Chicago's lead in the NL East to 2½ games.

lo Los Angeles, Mike Schmidt doubled to drive in two runs and start a four-run eighth-inning rally to carry Philadelphia to a 6-5 victory over the Dodgers. Jerry Koos-man (13-10) snapped a three-game losing streak, allowing Los Angeles six hits and three runs in seven innings. He walked one and struck out seven. Al Holland threw the final 11/2 innings to record his 26th

Lauda Wins in Austria; Moves Atop Standings

auda of Austria. cheered on by an verjoyed partisan crowd, drove said. is MeLaren Porsche to victory

Third in the race on the six-kilounday in the Austrian Grand Prix meter (3.7-mile) Oesterreichring ith four of 16 races to go.

ne finish line, jubilant faos Lauda, won the race in one hour d 21:12:851 minutes, ahead of a reigning world champion, Nel-

Piquet, driving a Brambham off the track. Then he grabbed the MW, said afterward he had prob- lead from Piquet on the 39th lap

With his triumph, Lauda took e lead for the World Formula ning sixth, behind Piquet, Prost, ne title with 48 points, ahead of lain Prost, his French teammate. no was forced to drop out Sun-

ZELTWEG, Austria — Niki championship for a third time: auda of Austria, cheered on by an "We'll have to wait and see," he Third in the race on the six-kilond took the lead in World Formu- circuit was Michele Alboreto of It One Championship standings aly in a Ferrari, 48.998 seconds ith four of 16 races to go, behind; fourth came fellow-Italian Lauda's victory, before what or- Teo Fabi in a Brabham-BMW anizers claimed was a record at- 56.312 seconds behind, and sixth ndance of 150,000, was the first was Switzerland's Arrows-BMW rnn Austrian here. As he crossed the finish line, inbilant faos in Piquet of Brazil, who con- give up. "It was my luck that Prost olled the competition up to the skidded there." Lauda said. "I saw him going off so I braked and ok him. Lauda was as far back as the allow start.

Lauda said his victory was due to his choice of hard tires and bad

Lauda was third until Prost went Lauda was third until Prost went ms with his tires. He trailed the and did not look back, always widand across the finish line by ening the gap between himself and the Brazilian. Early in the race, Lauda was run-

But as the race went on, Lauda y. Prost has 43.5 points, Elio de persistently surged ahead, moving ngelis of Italy, driving a Lotusto third before Prost's mishap. Afmault has 26.5 and Rene Arnoux ter overtaking Piquet, he started

France, who drives a Ferrari, has running slower.

5. "Suddenly 1 couldn't move into "It certainly is the most fortu-te event for an Austrian to win at "I thought, 'That's the end.' But I me. Lauda said. But he cau-went on, moving from third to fifth aned reporters pressing him gear all the time. I was lucky."

Giants Hand Jets 3d Straight Exhibition Loss, 20-14

Running back Rob Carpenter jumping to get a short-yardage first-down against the New York Jets was just one of the things that went right for the New York Giants as they defeated the New York Jets, 20-14, in an exhibition game. The Jets lost more than the game. Joe Klecko, the star defensive end who has been hampered by injuries for two seasons, fell down early in the contest. He was diagnosed as having a strained hamstring and will be sidelined for two to six weeks.

Rose, in Lineup, Paces Reds' Victory

CINCINNATI - Pete Rose had striking out eight planned to pencil in Nick Esasky as the Cincinnati Reds' first baseman. But when 35,056 fans showed up Friday night at Riverfront Stadium for Rose's debut as a manager, the temptation was too much, and so Rose the manager put Rose the player at first base for the game with the Chicago Cubs. To the fans' delight, the 43-yearold Rose starred in a 6-4 victory. He went 2-for-4, scored a run and drove in two. In the first, Rose singled home Gary Rechts from second and, when center fielder Boh Dernier misplayed his hit, he sped around the bases, going into third with a head-first slide. He doubled in the Reds' final run in the seventh.

FRIDAY BASEBALL

Rose, who played 16 years in Cincinnati before leaving as a free agent, was obtained last week in a trade with Montreal and installed as player-manager.

Astros 7, Pirates 4

lo Pittshurgh, Jim Pankovits delivered a two-out, two-run single in the 10th inning to lift Houston over the Pirates, 7-4. Bill Dawley (8-4) was the winner in relief while Kent Tekulve took the loss.

Cardinals 3, Braves 1 In St. Louis, Joaquin Andnjar became the major leagues' first 16-game winner, and Chris Speier hit a home run to lead the Cardinals past

Los Angeles 2, Phillies 1 phia, 2-1.

Mets 2. Giants 0 In San Francisco, Wally Backman hit his first homer of the season, a two-run shot in the 10th, to the Indians a 5-3 triumph over Milgive New York a 2-0 victory over

Padre Chief Loses Suspension Appeal

SAN DIEGO - Dick Williams, manager of the San Diego Padres, began serving a 10-day suspension Friday after Chub Feeney, the National League president, turned down his appeal. Williams was suspended with several others follow-ng brawls between the Padres and Atlanta Braves on Aug. 12. Feeney did lift the three-day suspensioo that he had handed to Padre outfielder Bobby Brown. Feeney determined that Brown was not on the field at the time of the second bench-clearing brawl in the ninth inning.

Ozzie Virgil, the Padres' third-base coach, tonk over for Williams on Friday as the Padres lost, 8-4 to Mootreal. Andre Dawson and Gary Carter hit homers for the Expos to back the seven-hit pitching nings to pitch the Tigers to a 6-2

Rangers 8, Royals 6 In the American League, in Arlington, Texas, Dan Quisenberry In Los Angeles, Steve Yeager's surrendered a three-run homer to run-scoring single in the fourth inning capped a two-run rally that lifted the Dodgers over Philadel- Kansas City, 8-6. Indians 5, Brewers 3 > gled home two runs, and Andre Thornton hit his 26th homer to give

In Cleveland, Brett Butler sin-

Twins 6, Red Sox 5 In Boston, Mickey Hatcher, Kirby Puckett and Tim Teufel each had three hits to pace a 16-hit attack that carried Minnesota past

Orioles 6, Angels 5

the Red Sox, 6-5.

In Baltimore, Rick Dempsey hit a one-out sixth-inning homer to break a 5-5 tie, and Sammy Stewart came in to preserve the lead as the Orioles beat California, 6-5.

A's 7, Yankees 3 In New York, Dave Kingman hit his 30th homer and drove in three runs to belp Oakland beat the Yan. kees, 7-3. Bill Krueger (8-9) went 61/2 innings for the triumph. Blue Jays 4, White Sox 3 In Chicago, Ernie Whitt's homer with two outs in the ninth lifted Toronto over the White Sox, 4-3.

Tigers 6, Mariners 2 In Detroit, Milt Wilcox (13-7) scattered seven hits over eight in-

Atlanta, 3-1. Andujar (16-11) gave of Sieve Rogers and Jeff Reardon, victory over Seattle. (L4T, UP)

Author Patricia Bosworth's Focus On Diane Arbus's Haunting Images

By Jo Ann Lewis

Washington Post Service
WASHINGTON — If you weren't supposed to stare, Diane Arbus did - starting with the flashers she forced herself to look at on the subway between her Park Avenue home and the fashionable Fieldston School in New York. Later she watched her dying father with shocking objectivity, and photographed him dead. There was even a rumor that she had rigged a camera to photograph her suicide in 1971 at age 48. "lt's possible." says Patricia Bosworth.

author of "Diane Arbus," the first biography of the artist. "It's possible." Though widely praised, exhibited, puhlished — and imitated — for her stark snapshotlike images of nudists, transvestites, retardates, freaks and other forbidden subjects. Arbus has also been perceived as something of a freak herself,

"She was nm as freaky and weird as people assumed just because of her fascination with freaks," insists Bosworth, a former model, actress and New York writer and editor who spent more than five years trying to bring to life the story of this gifted photographer, born to wealth and privilege as the daughter of the owners of Russeks Fifth Avenue department store and flattened intn mesmerizing myth since her death.

"Diane was a working woman, a wife and a mother. I wanted to try and paint a complete picture of her. I do not think she was a weirdo, nor do I think she was suicidal all her life. f think she was an nriginal, and saw life in a way others dn not. She could certainly see more in a face than f could,"

And what faces! The pimply young man in a straw hat wearing a "Bomb Hanoi" button at a pro-Vietnam war rally. The grimacing, exasperated boy carrying a toy hand grenade. The like, yet strangely unlike, "Identical Twins." In fact, most of her best-known images had nothing in do with aberrations, and Arbus had good reason for her anger and frustration at being pegged "the photographer of freaks."

But I think she was a voyeur, and I think f am too," admits Bosworth, whose early education in San Francisco's Convent of the Sacred Heart school did not inhibit her from relating startlingly inti-mate scenes from Arbus's life. "A biography is a voyeuristic act, and photography is too," she says. "I'm oot proud of that, but I can't help myself. I think everybody is voyeuristic, really.

Biographer Bosworth

If proof be needed, the publisher Alfred A. Knopf has moved swiftly into a second printing of the book, Avon has purchased paperback rights, and MGM has bought the option in make a film. The Aperture book of Arbus photographs, published after her 1972 Museum of Modern Art retrospective, has sold a record 180,000 copies. Another Aperture book, on her magazine work, is due out

"The story is so unbelievably strong and dark and gothic in and of itself, that I felt if I superimposed judgments it would be too much," says Bosworth. "Even Diane's brother, Howard Nemerov [a Pulitzer Prize-winning poet], when I asked him about Diane's death, said, 'Don't be an armchair shrink, just tell the story."

And that she did, from the student days of the gifted golden girl called "Dee-yann," already obsessed in her youth with the outer limits of experience, to her last dark years, when despite what most artists would call success, she lost herself in a hunt for sensational sex, became ill with hepatitis and subsequently fell into a depression that neither doctor nor psychiatrist could stop. The results have astonished and dismayed her mother, sister and brother.

None of them knew until they read the book, they say, of Arbus's sexual "adventuring," as she called it, during the final years of her life among the '60s demimonde of New York's art and fashion world. None knew, they say, of the depth of the depression preceding her fail-safe cide — he died of a heart attack," she suicide by barbiturates. She also slashed her wrists

"Naturally, f was disturbed and depressed at the realization that we didn't know how unhappy she was and wish we could have done more," said her younger sister Renee, an artist and technical illustrator now living in Albuquerque.

"I didn't know," said Howard Nemerov, whose more talkative wife, Peggy, said she read of Arbus's final years "with absolute horror. I thought, 'Why didn't you tell me, maybe I could have done something. But after reading it, I felt there was nothing anybody could have done."

"f did nothing but cry," said Arbus's mother, Gertrude Nemerov, 83, also liv-ing in Albuquerque. "I had to go first through her death, and then this. This Was Worse

Bosworth first met the highly successful fashion photography team of Diane and Alian Arbus in the 1950s, when she was an 18-year-old Powers model in New York. Allan Arbus -- now better known as the actor who played Dr. Sidney Freedman, the psychiatriat on "M*A*S*H" — had been working in the advertising department at Russeks when he met Diane, then 14 years old. They married when she was 18, and divorced only after 30 years.

"I went to their studio for a shoot," Bosworth says, "and they were wonderful —very civilized, cultivated people, warm and friendly. The atmosphere in the studio was marvelous. f talked to many models who worked with them at the period, and they all loved to work for the 'Arbs,' as they were called, because they were so nice."

Bosworth, the managing editor of Harper's Bazaar at the time, recalls the special milien in which Arbus blossomed as an artist. "There was a lot of experimentation going on in all the magazines in the '60s, a lot of movement and action. Graphically, magazines were becoming more energizing visually. People were being photographed in odd and unusual ways, not only by Arbus. I remember Hiro photographing Faye Dunaway, and she hadn't shaved under her arms!"

"It was my husband who first suggested f write about Arbus," says Bosworth. Her husband, the novelist Mel Arrighi, had also suggested her previous, bestselling biography, "Montgomery Clift." Was there some special fascination with says, adding stiffly, "I have no particular interest in the artist as suicidal." Only when questioned later would Bosworth reveal that her own brother, Bartley Crum Jr., had died at age 19, an apparent suicide. "For me it is a very private tragedy," she said, and "no one ever asked me."

Diane Arbus in Central Park in New York in 1967.

Some of Arbus's survivors refused to cooperate with Bosworth, notably Allan Arbus, from whom Diane was divorced. and their two daughters. Doon, 39, a writer, works for Richard Avedon. She invented the "Nothing comes between me and my Calvins" advertising campaign. Amy, 30, a photographer, shoots the "On the Street" column for the Village Voice. As executors of the estate, they also withheld permission to use any Arbus photographs in the book.

Arbus would be 61 now — hard to believe, because she always looked so young. She was sometimes described as beautiful, at other times as gamy. "She was a very sexual person, a very dependent person," says Bosworth. Others described her as a wait. "needy," lonely. "She smelled," said one hlunt

I think she was a chameleon in some ways," Bosworth says. "There were some days when she looked very chic, as she did to Walker Evans when she'd just come from seeing a Balenciaga show and was dressed in Conrrèges. And then there were other times when somebody would notice her brown teeth and notice that she was a little disheveled.

"I think it had to do with her mood, but it also depended on the world she was going into. I think she wanted to be at her best for the Walker Evanses, whom she respected and revered, and perhaps when she took photographs of a transvestite in a welfare hotel, she might have looked a little bit disreputable berself so the transvestite would feel at case."

And everyone spoke of her brilliance. "Arbus had begun to achieve mythic status before her suicide," Bosworth says. She was one of three photographers chosen by John Szarkowski, the Museum of Modern Art's photography curator, for his 1967 "New Documents" show (with Garry Winogrand and Lee Friedlander), which was heralded as the beginning of a new age in documentary photography. She had received two Guggenheim grants, and had been invited to show at the Venice Biennale — the first American photographer ever so honored.

But Walker Evans had asked her to teach at Yale, and she said no. She was asked to publish a book of her photographs, and said no. She was asked to do one-person show at the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, and said no. Ultimately, in a profound depression, she said no to

"In the end, she's an enigma. But I think most great artists - most special artists - are mysteries," says Bosworth. "You shouldn't explain an artist, f didn't want to explain Arbus, but f did want to

LANGUAGE

A No-Burger Burgher

By Sherwin D. Smith NEW YORK — "It's a nothingburger." Anne McGill Burford, late of the Environmental Protection Agency, said of the National Advisory Committee un Oceans and Atmosphere shortly before withdrawing from her appointment as its chairman.

The reaction to her remark may have helped force her decision to withdraw, which Representative James H. Scheuer, Democrat of New York, hailed with a fine example of diasrym (backhanded com-pliment): "She has done more for the environment today than during her entire tenure at EPA." It would be nice to think that this episode puts the kibosh on burger coinages. Originally, Hamburg steak was steak — ground but real - a specialty in the lusty German seaport of Hamburg. The earliest citation for Hamburg steak in the Dictionary of American English is 1884; five years later, it had picked up an er. And by the time of the Depression, the steak had disappeared both linguistically and literally: Just about any scraps of beef too tough to chew could be ground, slapped between the haives of a bun, doused with ketchup and eaten as a hamburger. Elzie Segar, the cartoonist who created Popeye, also created the vogue for burger comages — notably the Wimpyburgers consumed by J. Wellington Wimpy. "One night, June 20, 1931, to be exact," reports Jerry Robinson in "The Comics" (Putnam). "Popeye took Olive [Oyl] to dinner at Cafe de Rough-house. It was at the cafe that Wimpy's addiction to hamburgers was first evidenced. His passion for them was so strong that he once lost a $20,000 bet with Popeye when he couldn't hold one for 10 minutes without eating it (he lasted 9 minutes and 50 seconds)."

Segar also coined goonburger, af-ter a character named Alice the Goon, but that was only the beginning. Chickenburger, clamburger, lambburger, kirschburger, shrimpburger, pickleburger, dogburger (made with a frankfurter, I trust) and whinnyburger (made with just what it suggests) are a few that H. L. Mencken collected for "The American Language." In the great postwar meat shortage of the 1940s appeared the Trumanburger — made with mashed baked beans. And when Richard Nixon appoin

ed a new chief justice in 1969, inevitably Washington luncheonettes

featured Warrenburgers. (Confer Cheeseburgers — even bacon-cheeseburgers — I've grown accustomed to, but Wisconsinburgers 1

U P above appears the word late, in the sense of "recently, but no yow." Used the mough it is, late seems to me to resonate with melancholy, like the word manque. It has also always seemed to me slightly. at least stuffily academic in its affect. Here is how Barbara Pym uses it in her novel "A Glass of Blessings" to help delineate two characters, the narrator and a young man she has just encountered after an interval of several years:

. . . .

4.00%

- - --

s fr

13-5.57

.

755 Toky 1

-- str

A SAMA

1 Jun 1

2.0

 v_{i},v_{i}

Rule from the defende

ed Andrew ratesh, gre

the in heat or a tampital and the second Thinking the

The Strategy

Alternation of the ា នៃប្រៀ

the solid aga

or mass.

We Thirty

 $\theta = G \cdot \Phi(\chi) \sqrt{g}$ e de la

Santa Standard

to beings

10 1 A 1 A 2 400 The state of the s 14. .. en (15.04)

4134

 $\leq (101, \, p_{\rm e})$

144

 $\operatorname{Tr}_{A} = \{ g_{k} |_{\mathcal{H}_{A}} \}$

* * * * * *

hady to be cent

"He had ... helped in the compilation of a Portuguese dictionary. It was from the title page of this work that I had gleaned some further information, for he was described as 'Piers Longridge, B.A., late of the British Museum, sometime lecturer in English Literature' at a college in Portugal whose name I could not remember - and now creeping into a wine lodge at 2 o'clock in the afternoon when he had told me he was going back to work. How the glory had departed, if glory it had ever been! The words 'late' and 'sometime' seemed all of a sudden rather sad."

It's not a Britishism, but it is a word to be careful with, as the Oxford American Dictionary demonstrates by immping two separate meanings in a single entry: "no longer alive, no longer holding a certaio position." That's nnt enough. In the sense of "no longer alive," late doesn't mean simply "dend"; it means "recently de-ceased." As The New York Times Manual of Style and Usage notes: "It is not needed, for example, in the late Lyndon B. Johnson."

The Times stylebook goes on to warn: "Avoid a redundancy like this: She is the widow of the late John R. Doe."

Sherwin D. Smith, late of The New York Times Magazine, who edited the language column from its inception, is substituting for William Safire this week. .

New York Times Service

MIDDLE EAST

FAR EAST

Bahrain: 493592. Jordan: 25214.

ANNOUNCEMENTS SUBSCRIBE to the INTERNATIONAL HERALD

TRIBUNE AND SAVE

IN ASIA AND PACIFIC contact our local distributor or:

International Herald Tribune 1905 Toi Sang Commercial Boild 24-34 Hermesty Road HONG KONG Tel: HK 5-286726

DIVORCE IN 24 HOURS
Mutual or contrasted actions, low cost.
Haith or Daminiscan Republic. For information, send $3.75 for 24-page booklet //hondling to Dr. F. Gonzales, Op.
1835 K Si N.W., Weshington D.C.
20006, U.S.A. Tet 202-45-4331

ALCOHOULS
ANONYMOUS in Fonish Pars. 634 59 65. Generols
30 U.S.
30 U.S.
30 U.S.
30 U.S.

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS in English. Paris: 634 57 65. Genevo: 267286. Rome 39 48 93. FREUNG low? - having problems? SOS HELP crise-line in English. 3 p.m.-11 p.m. Tet Paris 723 80 80. PPTEMBER FASHION STUDY, PAA, 9 rue des Ursuines, 75005 Paris. Tel: 325 3509 CONTINEX BAGGAGE & MOVING to 152 cities North America - car/sea, Call Charlie 281 18.81 Paris. Cars too

ALLIED VAN LINES INT'L OVER 1,000 AGENTS in U.S.A. - CANADA 350 WORLD-WIDE

MOVING

PARIS Desbordes Inter [01] 343 23 64
FRANKFURT 5 arvices, I.M.S. (069] 250066 MUNICH

(089) 142244 LONDON (01] 953 3636 SPAIN F. GIL STAUFFER (01) 2757348

CAIRO Allied Vers Lines Int'l [20-2] 712901 (0101) 312-681-8100

FOUR WINDS INTERNATIONAL

30 U.S.A. Offices CALL US FOR YOUR NEXT MOVE

CONTINEX BAGGAGE & MOVING

LAKE LUGANO

Lakeside aportments in a beautiful park with swimming pool, own landing stages. First quality equipment size fineplaces, large terraces, built-in terrajets. Fines from SF453,900 up to SFI 123,600. Mangages up to 60% of low interest rates. Soles permits to foreigness are available. For further details sleave contract.

EMERALD HOME LTD.

Via G. Cotton 3

CH-9900 Lugano-Paradia

Tel. Switzerland 91-5429-13.

Telec: 73612 HOME CH.

MOVING BAGGAGE MCVED via ar/sea USA: Worldwide, Excess Baggage Co. Lon dan 603 1266/7, Weekends 474 4743

PERSONALS AM NO LONGER responsible for the debts of my wife, Dohne Modur. Signed Bruce Mollin. Je ne suis plus HUGH CRAIG - Coll Michael 641-9001.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

FRENCH PROVINCES CANNES, Crosette center, 3-rooms equipped kitchen, both. 60 sq.m F570,000, [93] 99 09 65. PARIS & SUBURBS Marais Historical Hotel in garden, 2 - 4 rooms HOTEL DE TALLARD Daily 2 - 7pm 78 Rue des Archives, 274 16 92. SWITZERLAND

LAKE LUGANO

INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFIED REAL ESTATE REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE TO RENT/SHARE SWITZERLAND

THE TERRACES OF GENEVA Lovely learny town houses are available on a golf and country duly only 6 leas from the tender of General. Enjoy your freedom precify on the Swiss Barder. Purchases authorized for foregoes et attractive prises, contact; Apartments also available i rominent Swist mountain resi Visit properties - no obligation

MONTREUX-GENEVA: FOREIGNERS MONTRELIX GENEVA: HOREGINES, Are you looking for the very best for something very exclusive? Or for o reasonably prixed Swiss home! We have for you APARTMENTS from SF205,000, VILLAS from SF225,000, CHALETS from SF235,000, Context H,
SEBOLD SA, Tour Grise 6, CH-1007
Lossorre, Teb 071/25 26 11, Telesc 24298 Sebo CH.

REAL ESTATE TO RENT/SHARE PARIS AREA FURNISHED

74 CHAMPS-ELYSEES 8th

OPPORTUNITIES

PARIS AREA FURNISHED HABITAT INTERNATIONAL . Furnished Rentals

Short/Long Yerm BEST AREAS DELUXE FLATS. STUDIO 2 ROOMS 3 ROOMS 265 11 99 or 265 37 16 Teles: 640 793 F Pleose note our new address 9 rere Boyale, 75008 Paris Next to Place de la Concorde Open in August

STAYING IN PARIS? RURNISHED & UNFURNISHED FIRST-CLASS APARTMENTS Minimum rendol 2 months. Also flots & houses for sole. INTER URBIS, 1, rue Mollien, Poris (87). Tel: 563 17 77

PECIAL AUGUST BONUSI Stay of

SPECIAL AUGUST BIONUSS Stoy or least 3 nights, get one extra night free... All rooms (studies) with both, lottchenette. Also 2 and 3 room apert-ments, from 1 might up. Special weekly and monthly roles. Contact: Flototel Expo. 52 roe of Oradow, 75015 Paris. Tel: 554 97 56. The 200406 F.

BUSINESS

OPPORTUNITIES

TO RENT/SHARE PARIS AREA FURNISHED EMBASSY SERVICE

Your Real Estate Agent In Paris 562 78 99 Flots for sole: 562 16 40 Offices for rent or sole: 562 62 14 OPEN IN AUGUST

SHORT TERM in Latin Quarter No agents. Tel: 329 38 83. 18th: Flot, all comfort, 3 furnisher rooms, F5040 Tek 609 18 09 PARIS AREA UNFURNISHED AST EXECUTIVE HOMEFINDING RS Poris & suburbs, Rent/sole 551 09 45

GREAT BRITAIN LONDON, For the best furnished fit and houses. Consult the Specialis Phillips, Koy and Lews. Tel. Lond 839 2245, Telex 27846 RESIDE G. LONDON. For quality furnished apart-ments & houses to rent for 6 months to several years. Call Anscombe & Ring-land on Landon 722 7101, tix 279660.

BUSINESS SERVICES

EMPLOYMENT

EMPLOYMENT SECRETARIES AVAILABLE GR INTERIM - The Most Reliable Temparary Agency in Paris. French & bilingual office personnel. We accept entigements from 1% day up. Special costs for large temperature of the paris temperature of the paris temperature. rates for long term or maternity re-placements. Call Daniello 758 82 30 SECRETARIAL

Don't miss INTERNATIONAL SECRETARIAL POSITIONS

TUESDAYS in the HT Classified Section.

ETUDE BOSQUET 705-84-49 DOMESTIC POSITIONS AVAILABLE FOR SEPTEMBER, billingual couple (French-English or Sponish-English) as nootine of hotel-vallet and chamber modi, free to trovel between Paris / French Riviera / Caribbeon, Please reply with photo to Box 1129, Herold Tribune, 92321 Newilly Cedex, France

DOMESTIC POSITIONS WANTED

ALWAYS AVAILABLE - ALI PAIRS, children's normy, mum's helpers & of brunches of 1st class live-in domestic help worldwide. Coll Scorne Burezu, London 730 8122/5142 (24 hours) LI-CEMPAGY. The 8950670SLOANE G.

Your Office in German

Labor relations and negations will local smoot.
Administration of contracts with suppliers.
Comp maintenance.
Experience administration.
Personnel administration.
Interfacing with local government agencies.

we are "At Your Service"

Complete office services of two prestige acid/reses.

Fully equipped offices for the short term or the long term.

Internationally trained office and professional staff or your disposal.

Con be legally used as your compocate domails for Germany/Europe.

Your business operation can start immediately. Laireo Business Services Genbit Laireo-Hous em Hobbeuserpark Justinioestrasse 22 6000 Frenkfurt em Main 1 Germany Tek 0611-590061 Tekez 414561

FURNISHED OFFICE IN PARIS IN PARIS
MER CHARPS ETYSES
Rental with all office facilities Mutalingual Secretaries, mailtox, phone, telex, message service, Muelling roums, projector and smultaneous translation equipmen

YOUR

THE CHAMPS BLYSEES LENGURY SERVICED OFFICES Telephone crewering, Telex, Fox secretarics, meeting room ACTE. 66 Changs Byses Fors Bin Tel: 562 66 00. Tla: 649157F

EMPLOYMENT DOMESTIC POSITIONS WANTED

2 FRENCH GENTLEMEN seek pernon-nent position as cook, butter, mainred, complete housekeeping. Con-chive. Howe US visa. Good refer-ences, Write Box visa. Hordel Tri-bune, 725/1 Neurily Cadex, France ALWAYS AVAILABLE LONDON on bobyminders & 1st class daily maids. Coll. Sloane Bureau, London: 730 8122/5142, LIC.EMP, AGY. YOUNG LADY, '22, English speaking, seeks port-time job, (hoby-string, cide to elderly persons, diverse tervices), Mrs Lourentius: Paris 605 2529 eves.

PNGUSH NARPHES & Mother's Helps free now. Nash Agency, 53 Church Road, Hove, UK, Tel: (0273) 29044/5 GENERAL POSITIONS WANTED

TRRINGUAL AMERICAN woman, 30, seeks immediate position working directly for associative or for progressive European or U.S.based co. in oreox related to real estate, project development, PR, etc. V. Fox, 211 W 56 St., 230, NY.NY 10019 Tel 212-734-8697 LONDON RASED French Model 25, free to travel, looks for openings. Tel: 12 to 9 pm Landon 589 8570. GENERAL POSITIONS AVAILABLE

WANTED. 5 oftermoors/week Poris 17th, pleasant girl, English mother tongus, interested in children for Oli-ver aged 32 older children, ou pais). Prefer SRN/munsery nurse but all op-plicants considered. No "child mind-ers" please. Tek 265 5428 between 10 cm / 6 pm.

MicounterMent's:

Minimum of 10 years experience performing similar responsibilities, with the record of increasingly responsible positions and professional growth and English.

Fluent in Spanish and English.

Knowledge in cast control.

Graduate of a university of recognized standing.

Must passes high level of managerial state and have the capability of being, promoted to a higher level position.

Send resume and references to Box 1120, Herold Tribune, 92521 Neurly Cadex, France

TRANSCAR THE CAR SHIPPING SPECIALISTS

FRANKRUIT / MAIN-W. Germany. H. hermann GribH. Tel: 0:9-448071. Fick-up all over Europe *ro/ro-ships.

Place Your Classified Ad Quickly and Easily INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE

By Phone: Coll your local RTT representative with your less. You will be informed of the cost immediately, and once prepayment is made your ad with appear within 48 hours.

Costs The basic rate is $9.10 per line per day + local taxes. There are Code: Intercent is 39,10 per line per day. It local toxes, There are 25 letters, signs and spaces in the first line and 36 in the following lines. Minimum space is 2 lines. No abbreviations accepted. Credit Cardis American Express, Dires's Cub, Eurocard, Master Card, Access and Visa.

HEAD OFFICE

EUROPE Jeddah: 667-1500. Daruman: 834-3466. U.A.E.: Dubai 224161. Anusterdom: 26-36-15. Athens: 361-8397/360-2421. Brussels: 343-1899. Copenhagen: (01) 329440. Frankfurt: (69) 72-67-55. Lauranne; 29-58-94. Bangkok: 390-96-57. Usbon: 67-27-93/66-25-44. Hong Kong: 5-420706. Monito: 817 07 49. Segut: 725 87 73. London: (01) 836-4802. Madrid: 455-2891/455-3306. Milan: (02) 7531445.

Norway: (03) 845545. Rome: 679-3437. Tel Aviv: 03-455 559

UNITED STATES

Singapore: 222-2725. Tahwan: 752 44 25/9. Takya: 504-1925. AUSTRALIA Melbourne: 690-8233. Sydney: 9222 977.

TRANSCO

TAX FREE CARS

ICZKOVITS

COOPER ST JAMES

OFFICIAL AGENT OF BMW (GB) LTD

We can offer to: free BMW's at rount prices. Left or right hand drive, American specification, full fockup, warranty and official dealer backup.
Also factory-built builet-proof BMW's 6. specialist cooch-building, e.g. antibulances, all tost free for export.
Call London (01) 627 6699.

UNPORTANT

TAX FREE CARS company words experienced our trad-ers with the USA to self: Mescades, Parsche, BMW. Vasing USA Sept. POB 3, St Joost-Ten-Noode 2-1030, Brussels

New York: (212) 752-3890. AUTO SHIPPING AUTOS TAX FREE

HOW TO IMPORT A EUROPEAN CAR INTO THE U.S.A. his document, first written for Amer can car dealers, explains fully what or must do to bring a cor into the U.S. It includes latest new 8 used European auto prices, buying tips, DOT 8 EPA conversion addresses, custom decreases outer prices, buying aps, I/O/1 & CrA-conversion addresses, custom decreance 8 shoping procedures or well as legal points, You can sove up to I/S$14,000 when buying a Mercedes, or BMW in Europe & importing it to the States. To receive this manual, send I/S$18.50 (add I/S$1.50 for postage), to: Partick Schmidt, Postatech 3131 7000 Stuttgart 1, West Germany a keep o constant stock of more than one hundred brand new cors, competitively proced, and for fine outslogue 8 stock let. Transco SA, 95 Noordeloon, 2030 Antwerp, Belguer Tels 03/52 62 40 (10 lines), The 35207 TRANS 8. AUTO CONVERSION DOT/EPA CONVERSIONS to U.S. spec. Acceptance guaranteed. VIA-corp. 6200 Freeport Centre, Botti-wore, MD 21/2A Tel: 301-638-611; th: 4995689 Europe tel: 050 71 5071; Europe tis. 82209.

AUTOS TAX FREE FOR YOUR 1985 MERCEDES

he best known and most reg European Dealers in stack: Gullwing 500 SEC 1000 SEL Standard & 30 inch dension Limes, + ever 50 star dard MERCS, all types TRASCO INTERNATIONAL LTD 6312 Stelehousen Switzerlond Tel: 041-42-36-77-70 Tx 865318 TRAS CH

Showroom, Store and Factory 2820 Bremen 77 West Germany Tel: 0049-421-63 63 982 Tx: 246624 Trans D.

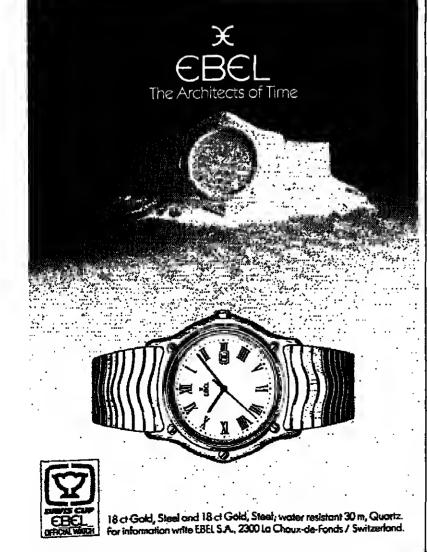

TAX FREE CARS Largest Showroom & Inventory All moles, oil models, brand new perform 1, 2008 Antwerp, Belgium Tel: 3/231 97 00 Tbx 35546 PHCART B

EOFERENCEO CAR TRADERS for Mercades, BMW, Porsche, offer full service import / suport US DOT & EPA for tourse & decler, Occomende Motors, Tersteegerstr, 8, 4 Duessel-dorf, W, Germany, Tek (0) 211 -434646, Telen. 8587374.

NEW MERCEDES CARS Immediate delivery from stock 280 S-SI-SE, Soo SE-SE-SI BUTE INC. Tournestr. 52, Frendfort, W. Germ. Tel: 069-232351, The 411539 PAGE 11 FOR MORE

CLASSIFIEDS

VAN CLEEF & ARPELS WORLD FAMOUS JEWELLERS NOW HAVE A SHOWROOM IN LONDON 153 NEW BOND STREET. TEL: 01-491 1405 TELEX: 266265

Studio, 2 or 3-room operament 1 month or more. LE CLARIDGE, TEL: 359 67 97. SECRETARIES AVAILABLE CALL GR for the best temporary office personnel in Paris. Tel: 758 8230

International Business Message Center ATTENTION BUSINESSMEN: Publish your business message in the International Herald Tribune, where more than a third of a million readers worldwide, most of whom are in business and industry, will read it. Just telex us (Paris 613595) before 10 a.m., ensuring that we can telex you back, and your message will appear within 48 hours. The rate is U.S. $9:10 or local equivalent per line. You must include complete and verifiable billing address.

		INT'L
		BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE
	UK & OFFSHORE	UNILIMITED INC.
THE WEEK	COMPANIES FROM £78	U.S.A.
THIS WEEK	U.K. + Isle of Man + Anguilla	A complete social & business service
	Guernsey + Jersey + Gibrottor	providing a unique collection of talented, versatile & multilingual individuals, for:
August 27th	Liberia + Panama + Delaware Ready-made or to suit
	Full nominee, administrative and accounting back-up including	Fashion-Commercial-Print-Promotions Convention-Trade Shows-Press Parties
in	bank introductions	Special Events-Image Makers-PR's Social Hosts-Hostesses-Entertainers
	SELECT COMPANY FORMATIONS	Social Companions-Tour guides, etc.
BUSINESS WEEK	Mr Pleasont, Douglas, lete of Man Tel: Douglas (0624) 23718 Teles: 628554 SBJECT G	212-765-7793
	Telex: 628554 SBLECT G	212-765-7794 330 W. 56th St., N.Y.C. 10019
INTERNATIONAL		Service Representatives Needed Worldwide.
	IMMIGRATION TO USA
Mass Transit: the Expensive	MADE EASY Attorney & Regitor obtains visus & per-	PANAMANIAN corporations provide the advantages of complete confiden-
Dream.	monent residence. Helps to set up USA businesses & locates commercial, indus-	solity, zero fax liability & US dallar
■ The Rangway Cost of	trici & residential real estate. For free	corrency environment. We after con-
Washington's Metro and How Hong Kong Keeps	brochura write, David Hirson, 1201 Dove St., Ste 600, Newport Beach, CA	reliable and competitive basis. We are particularly interested at finding its Subway Hemming.	92660 USA. (714) 752 0966.	up with offshore business consultants
London's Merger Fever - Will	INT'L LOANS or orbitrope, $50 milion-	in other countries Contact H. I. Dar- lington, POB 1327, Panama 9A, Pana-
U.S. Investors Catch It?	$1 billion. For information and re- ownerments, send $250 - advancement	mg. Tix: 3121 KBNKA PG. Tel: 23- 0634 or 23-4819 (eves 23-6779).
	fee. No brokers please, just strong
NOW ON SALE	financial companies. Write to BJRO- INVEST, AS Kongensot, 16, 0153,Oslo	FINANCIAL
AT ALL BUTTOMATIONS	1. Norway.Tix 72461 Euro N.	INVESTMENTS
AT ALL INTERNATIONAL	SAWN TIMBER AUSTRIAN PINE 5000 m3 available from stocks, Live	BANK NOTES-Bork promissory notes available. Long term maturities. Top
NEWSSTANDS.	sheep up to 15,000 head can be	100 banks 5% to 10% up to 100 Billion. 24 hour commitments, We have fidu-
NETTOSIANUS,	supplied in 3 months. Ethern Afinc. The 42046 EMSLTR. Tel: 18 08 63/25 52	ciary bank. To close call 813.955.4590
-	98. Ankara Tr. Coble: EMSEL/AN- KARA	or 813-924-8697 USA.
COMPUTER PORTRAITS	NAKA.	LEADING U.S.RUSINESSES - Private Companies Confidential Acquisition.
T-SHRT FOTOS	BUSINESS SERVICES	Box 1104, Heroki Tribune, 92521 Nauthy Cedex, France
NOW IN FUEL COLOR
on all-cash business that can earn you $8000 · $10,000/mooth. New and used	LIMITED COMPANIES	OFFICE SERVICES
systems from $10,000 - $30,000, Kenson Computer Co., Dept. A20, Beetho-	formed in the	PADIC

212-765-7793 212-765-7794 W. 566 St., N.Y.C. 10019 IANIAN corporations provides ANNAN corporations provide controlled to complete confidence or confidence or confidence or confidence or controlled to the confidence of the confidence of the confidence of the confidence or consultants or countings. Controlled H. I. Dorrock, 7008 1327, Ponomin 9A, Ponomick, 3121 KENKA PG, Tel: 23-x 22-4819 [eves 23-6779]. FINANCIAL NVESTMENTS VOTES - Bork promisiony notes ble. Long term moturities, Top riss 5% to 10% up to 100 Billion, recommitments, We have fidu-smk. To does call $13.955.4580 1924-8697 USA. G U.S.RUSTNESSES - Private pries-Confidented Acquisition, 104, Herold Tribune, 92521 Cedex, France FICE SERVICES PARIS Near CHAMPS ELYSES UK OFFSHORE COMPANIES We provide nominee Director & Secretary! Complete domiciliation! London bank occounts opened sinuthaneously with company being purchased Bearer Shares available! J.P. Company Registrations Ltd., New Companies House, 17 Widegate St., Landon ET 71-P. Tel: 01 377 1474. Teles: 873911. RENT YOUR OFFICE

GEORGE Y EXECUTIVE CENTER AUTO SHIPPING Zurich-Zurich-Zurich LIGHT-LURIUT-LURIUT

BAHRHOFSTRASSE 52

ITHE FINANCIAL CENTER
Let our integrated Rusiness Services Company provide your offices needs.

Temporary enticative offices.

Dedicated phone line.

Multilinguel receptionists.

Multilinguel service the most of the components.

Your office owny from home.

Besimem Services Consult Corp., Relativostrasses 52, CH-8022 Zurich.
Tale 01 / 211 92 07. The 813062. PARS SPECIALISTS
PARS (1) 500 03 04
CANNES/NCE (23) 37 43 44
FRANGURT (61 U7 89 5)
SONN / COLOGNE (228) 219221
STUTTGART (2703) 89081
MUNICH (68) 73 10 45
RESMERIAMEN (67) 13 063
LONDON (6) 515 46 84
NEW YORK (27 26 95 706)
HOUSTON (773 973 7805
LOS ANGRES (273 215 3182)
MONTREAL (514 866 668)
ACEINTS WORLD WIDE
LISTON (718 973 7805 LISTON (71 Your office in Paris right on

Printed by gdz in Zurich (Switzerland)